CENTRAL CHRISTIAN - Again last night Dr. Robt. F. Whiston preached to a delighted audience on another of the Parables, taking this time, the Parable of the Good Samaritan. He stated that this parable had grown from the questions asked by the young lawyer and that Jesus had answered both questions by evasion. He called attention to other questions asked of Jesus and the answers He gave. He said "You remember the disciples asked Jesus whether few would be saved but Jesus did not answer direct. Had He answered 'Only a few' he would have discouraged His disciples. Had He answered 'The many or all shall be saved' He would have made them careless and indifferent. But He said, 'Strive to enter the straight gate.' What an answer. Heaven is for those who strive whether few or many. At another time Peter pointing to John said, 'Lord and what shall this man do.' Jesus answered 'What is that to thee - follow thou me.' In other words He made it known that like begets like. Peter was older than John and to John he was a hero and leader, thus he would follow where Peter led. So Jesus told Peter to follow.

DEATH OF MRS. SAMUEL METHERALL - There passed away at her home in Hills River on Tuesday at the age of 73 years, Mrs. Samuel Metherrall, after a short illness. Mrs. Metherrall was the daughter of the late William Bell, who came with his family in 1874 from Dumfries, Scotland, and settled in Hills River. Mrs. Metherrall married and lived in Hills River where she was known for her many estimable qualities. She was of a very quiet and reserved nature and was quite contented to live and die in the village of her adoption. Mrs. Metherrall only travelled from the vicinity of Hills River once since she went there with her parents, the occasion being last summer when she visited Summerside. There are left to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, three sons and two daughters namely: James of Halifax; Fred and Arthur, and Mrs. Jack Hudson all of Hills River, and Miss Ella at home; also one sister in California, to whom much sympathy is expressed. LECTURE ON AUSTRALIAN LIGHT HORSE - An illustrated lecture of more than usual interest was given in the Presbyterian hall, Summerside, on Thursday evening by Rev. Mr. Moorhead Legate of Charlottetown. The lecture was under the auspices of the W. M. S. of the church. There was a large and appreciative audience, who were well repaid for turning out on such a disagreeable evening to listen to Rev. Mr. Legate's story of the Expeditionary Forces on the Eastern front and especially the bravery of the Australian Light Horse. In thrilling language the speaker reviewed many instances of that memorable march to Palestine with General Allenby. Some remarkable pictures were shown of Palestine, its many sacred historical places and many of the scenes during that bitter fight with the Turks when General Allenby won Palestine for the British and restored it to the Jews. Of particular interest was the gate of the cemetery at Jerusalem where the British soldiers were laid to rest. Over the gateway is an inscription in English, Hebrew and Turkish, that this cemetery was given by the people of Palestine in gratitude for a resting place for those British soldiers who had given their lives in the cause of Palestine. The manner in which General Sir Edward Allenby entered Jerusalem after its capture by his army will live long in the memory of the English and also Moslem population. The sacred manner with which he guarded the places of worship not only of the Jews and Christians but of the Mohammedan, won the hearts of the Moslem population. His entry on foot fulfilled the prophecy of the Arabs that "He who shall save Jerusalem and exalt her among the nations will enter the city on foot, and his name will be God the prophet." Therefore the Arabs call him "Al-Nabi," meaning "God the prophet." Rev. Mr. Legate spoke in glowing terms of the Australian troops, their courage and devotion to the Motherland. Some interesting pictures of the camel riders were shown, also other scenes of the eastern campaign. A vote of thanks was moved by Mr. Donald Baker, seconded by Mrs. J. S. Perry and extended to the speaker by the chairman, Rev. Mr. Jeans. A double quartette consisting of the Misses Muriel Lee, Jean Lyle, Helen Peters, Mrs. Maurice Mill, Messrs. Forbes, Mountain, Hancock and Rogers contributed some rousing patriotic songs. Mr. Reginald Ellis manipulated the lantern. S.

Petersen, formerly of Denmark. The bride and groom were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Petersen will make their future home at 187 Prince Street, Charlottetown. S.

IN MEMORIAM

DOUGLAL GERALD MacDONALD Our dear Lord has taken a beautiful bud. Out of our garden of love Borne it away to the City of God, Home of the angels above Full blooming flowers alone will not do Some must be young and ungrown So the frail buds he is gathering too Beautiful gems for his throne

The district of Monticello and vicinity was saddened and shocked on Wednesday, December 10th, 1930 when it became known that Dougald Gerald MacDonalld, the darling child with his winsome ways and pleasant smile and who was such a favorite in the district among young and old alike, had suddenly passed away. The deceased who was an exceptionally bright, robust child, had never been ill until three days previous to his death, when he contracted a sore throat which had been prevalent in the district for some weeks. But was not considered serious as all who contracted it recovered without the aid of physicians. When his condition became acute a physician was called. But nothing could be done to stay the cruel hand of death. Fortified by the last rites of Holy Mother Church administered to him by his zealous pastor Rev. K. C. McPherson. His pure and spotless soul winged forth its way to him who gave it to join that immortal throng before the Great White Throne. The deceased who was six years and nineteen days old was the fourth son of John A. (Bornish) MacDonalld and Evelyn MacPhee his wife, and a nephew of the late Rev. Stephen J. MacDonalld who passed away at Charlottetown, July 6th, 1930, and a grand nephew of the late Very Rev. Mons. Dougald M. MacDonalld and a great grand nephew of the late Very Rev. Daniel MacDonalld, D. D., and the late Rev. Pius McPhee. The two latter venerable missionaries who superintended and successfully accomplished the hauling of St. Andrew's Church down the Hillsborough River to Charlottetown on March 9th, 1864, now St. Joseph's Convent.

On Thursday, Dec. 11th his funeral took place at St. Margaret's church Mass was offered for the repose of his soul by the pastor, who also performed the service at the grave when all that was mortal of dear little Gerald was tenderly laid to rest in the Bornish family plot on the sloping hillside beside his elder brother Damian Francis who predeceased him nearly eight years ago. There to await the Glorious Resurrection. There are left to mourn their loss a father and mother also three brothers namely: Stephen J.; James Charles; and Chester Louis. Numerous letters of sympathy were received by the bereaved family from relatives and friends for which they are very grateful.

Two little hands lay o'er his breast, Two little feet laid down to rest, Two little eyes in slumber closed, How our hearts are bleeding none but God knows, One little voice that prattled in love, Now singing with angels above, There he is watching and waiting for me When I shall cross the dark rolling sea.

Dear little hands o'er reached out to me, Dear little form that sat on my knee, Now it is still and silent for aye, Angels have beckoned dear Gerald away, Still in the mansions so bright and so fair, Up above the golden stair His little voice is singing to me, Yes, I am waiting and watching for thee.
