Every Thoughtful Man or Woman

—having the best interests of his or her dependents at heart arranges their affairs in such a way that at death the estate will be divided in a most equitable manner.

The only way in which this may be successfully carried out is to make your will now, while you have every faculty at your command with no undue influence at work.

The Dominion Trust Company will gladly render any possible assistance in connection with your will. If the company is appointed executor we will instruct our or your solicitors to draw it up at no expense to you. We have a most efficient organization which will administer your estate with a minimum of expense and a maximum of return.
