In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear father, Hugh McSwain, who passed away January 10th, 1947. A cheerful smile, a heart of gold The dearest Dad the world could hold. Happy memories, fond and true From those who thought the world of you. Fondly Remembered by His Daughters, Mrs. Arthur Anderson and two Sons John and Alexander.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband, Hugh McSwain, who passed away January 10th, 1947. Not a day do I forget you. In my heart you're always near For the one that loved you missed you As I dawn another year. I think of you in silence And oft repeat your name What would I give to hear your voice Or see your face again. Sody Missed by His Wife.

Groups in Knox Church Opposed Scottish Call

OTTAWA, Jan 8 — An interesting situation concerning church protocol over the decision to call a Scottish minister instead of a Canadian in Knox Presbyterian Church in Ottawa was revealed in a statement by Rev. J. M. Ritchie, Moderator of the Presbytery. Mr. Ritchie's statement read in part: "The report of the recent meeting of the Ottawa Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Canada which sustained the call to Rev. Colin F. Miller of Bankfoot, Perthshire, Scotland, to Knox Presbyterian Church in Ottawa, stated that the call was sustained 'without debate or comment.' "Actually, a complaint had been presented against the call by four sisters of the church on behalf of a minority group within Knox Church congregation. "That complaint was dismissed after more than three hours of deliberation. The petitioners were thanked by Presbytery for the able presentation of their case."

Mr. Ritchie explained that the Presbytery meeting at which the protest was launched was held behind closed doors. When the report of the meeting was given to the press it wrongly stated that the vote on the call was sustained without debate or comment. Mr. Ritchie said that he "felt it is my duty as Moderator to correct that impression in all fairness to those who made the petition." The difference of opinion within the congregation regarding choice of a Scottish or Canadian minister for Knox Church to fill the vacancy created by the death of Dr. Robert Johnston last October, developed after several ministers had been heard in the pulpit. Several candidates for the call were heard by the congregation, and Mr. Ritchie said "Of these, the most popular choice seemed to be between Mr. Miller and a Canadian minister. "At a largely attended congregational meeting held for the purpose of making the call, Mr. Miller won out by a substantial margin. There were about 50 members of the congregation of about 700, however, who felt that the most lucrative positions in the church were being given to "outsiders" and who protested the call, convinced that it should have been given to a Canadian. When the Presbytery meeting was called to sanction the choice of the congregation, it also was faced with the petition of the minority group, which though small in numbers represented a strong section of the youth of the congregation. After three hours of heated discussion, Presbytery approved the call to the Scottish minister. There the matter was officially ended and the call was extended to Mr. Miller.

"Exercise Moccasin" For P. E. I. Signalmen

OTTAWA, Jan. 8 — Signalman V. J. LeBlanc Summerside, P. E. I. and 18 other men of the Royal Canadian Signals and -- Royal Canadian Army Service Corps men are slated for a cold winter just south of Fort Churchill, Man., where they will live for eight weeks in temporary camps of tents and igloos or on the trail. In announcing "Exercise Moccasin", Army Headquarters has revealed that the signalmen will test Service radio equipment and ground wave ranges in cold weather while the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps will gain valuable experience in operating tractor trains for supply duties. Two mobile signal stations will travel in snowmobiles towing sleds spending 12 days at each temporary station they set up. A master station will remain in one spot for the duration of the exercise. RCASC personnel will operate tractors pulling a "train" of 10-ton sleds and a caboose. Three men will form the crew of each train. The soldiers will remain out in the barrens approximately eight weeks, a new experience for most of them. They are now undergoing a two-week winter hardening course at Churchill after which the exercise proper will commence. Native pattern mukluks are being made by the natives of Akivik, N. W. T. to cope with the cold-weather problem. An RCMP Norseman aircraft will be used for the initial survey of the signal station sites and will stand by for possible emergency need. This is once more an example of the excellent co-operation between the services.

MRS. WILLIAM A. MACNEILL On Sunday December 7th, Mrs. William A. MacNeill passed peacefully away at the home of her daughter Mrs. Wilfred Campbell, Irlstown, in her 97th year. The deceased was born in Park Corner and was the youngest daughter of James Donald and Nancy Ramsay. The greater part of her married life was spent in Cavendish. And to her beautiful home there all comers found a hearty welcome, and hospitality was dispensed with lavish hand. Mrs. MacNeill was a life long member of the Presbyterian Church, also a Charter member of the Women's Missionary Society. And it was always her pleasure to help anyone in trouble. In 1920 after deciding to retire from active farm life, she and her husband moved to the village of Hunter's River, where twelve years later Mr. MacNeill was called quite suddenly to his Eternal rest. Since that date Mrs. MacNeill spent intervals living with members of her immediate family, also resided for sometime with a nephew John Semple, New Glasgow. The last eight years of her life were spent at the Campbell home, Irlstown, where she was tenderly and faithfully cared for. Those left to cherish her memory

BUTCHER'S DISPLAY THRILLS IMMIGRANT

TORONTO, Jan 8 — (CP) — There aren't many cheerful faces in front of Toronto meat counters, but Mrs. George Paulsen is one shopper whose enthusiasm is undimmed by the price tags. Newly-arrived from Oslo, Norway, Mrs. Paulsen still gets a thrill from the mere sight of a roast of pork or a few chickens on the butcher's counter. Mrs. Paulsen and her husband completed a family migration to Toronto which started when her son, Ragned, came here during the Second World War and married a Toronto girl. Five other children and grand-children preceded Mrs. Paulsen and her husband.
