McClary's Sunshine Furnace

Correct Installation

You may resolve to have the very best furnace money can buy.

You may pay the highest market price for a furnace—
And yet fail to satisfactorily heat your home.

Much depends upon the way in which a furnace is installed, as well as on the kind of furnace you buy.

For some homes a One-Register (pipeless) furnace is suitable.

For others a piped furnace to deliver the heat to distant rooms is necessary.

But no matter what size or model of furnace you may need to successfully heat your home, or what kind of fuel you may burn, there is a Sunshine Furnace that will heat your home without fail.

There are two reasons why you are absolutely assured of satisfaction in a McClary's Sunshine Furnace (Pipe or One-Register):—

1. Because the dealer knows and will recommend to you the correct model of Sunshine furnace for your fuel and plan of house.

2. Because the furnace will be installed on correct principles by an expert chosen by McClary's who know that he understands his business. Only such dealers can get McClary's Sunshine Furnaces to sell.

McClary's stand back of every Sunshine Furnace and guarantee it to do its work, so they see to it that it is correctly installed.

It is not enough for McClary's that the Sunshine Furnace is well built, but it must be correctly set up in order to radiate and deliver the required amount of heat to each room in the house.

Every dealer who sells McClary's Sunshine Furnace is thoroughly qualified to advise you on your heating problem and to install a McClary's Sunshine so that it will give you the utmost satisfaction.

It is therefore the most precious aid we have to relieve all ailments of the respiratory organs and to check their progress. It supplies to the system the lime, sodium and iron salts so badly needed especially in consumption—while the Creosote it contains sterilizes and galvanizes, as it were, the tubercular lesions making a cure possible.

Try VIN MORIN, it has proved invaluable in many cases similar to yours—it is a wonderful remedy.

On sale everywhere.

RAISINS AS A FOOD.—Remember, do you, the delicious, fruit, raisin bread that you used to eat before the war, the kind that made you a raisin bread fan? Well its coming back! Yes! Smack your lips, for it's coming. Lower prices have done it. Raisins are now 30 per cent lower in cost to the baker which permits them to sell a generous loaf at reasonable prices and comply with the late Federal order which requires at least 2 oz. of raisins to each 16 oz. loaf of bread. So look for a big revival of real raisin bread. Your baker and your grocer will be selling it. You'll see it in their windows and show cases. The "old days" are returning in more ways than one. Good old fashioned raisin bread with raisins in it is proof of it. Raisin receipts from time to time will be published in the Guardian for the benefit of its readers.

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet but pretty wedding took place in Knox Church, Calgary, Monday evening, Sept. 12th when the Rev. McCreary Wilson united in holy bonds of matrimony, Amy Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Mr and Mrs B. S. Moore, of Charlottetown, P. E. I. to Norman J. McKinnon of Calgary. The bride, who was given away by her brother-in-law, Mr. J. H. Francis was very smartly attired in a suit of navy blue velvet, prettily embroidered, with hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The bride and groom received congratulations at the home of her sister Mrs. L. H. Francis after which a dainty wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon left for their honeymoon at Banff and Lake Louise, Oct. 1st, turning they will reside in the Strand Apartments. The bride was the guest of honor at several showers before her marriage when she received very many useful and valuable presents.

IN MEMORIAM

PETER MELVER

At his home in Newton on Tuesday, August 30th, there passed peacefully away Peter Melver at the advanced age of 82 years. The deceased had been in delicate health for the greater part of his life, during which time he had been tenderly nursed by his sister Susan, who made it her life's work to care for him until her death about three years ago.

Mr. Melver, always of a quiet disposition lived at peace with his neighbours and was beloved by all. He could always be depended upon in time of trouble to lend a helping hand and was especially noted for his honesty and truthfulness. A devout member of the Catholic Church, he led a good life in preparation for death, bearing his sufferings always with resignation to the Divine Will and was fortified with the last rites of the church by Fr. McQuaid. The funeral which took place on Thursday, Sept. 1st to St. Malachi's Church, Kinkora, was largely attended. High mass of requiem was sung and services at the grave were conducted by Fr. McIntyre. The pall bearers were: Emmet Kelly, Michael Melver, Eugene Melver, John T. Mallin, P. J. Smith and Joseph Campbell. To mourn his loss and cherish his memory he leaves one sister; Mrs. Francis Kelly, Borden, P.E.I. and two nieces; Fannie Kelly, of Everett, Mass., and Mrs. John McCarville at home to all of whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

Happenings Of The Week

tropical fragrance fulfilled the expectation of the little group blooming gloriously, and filling the large room with its delicious scent—then fading, its brief hour over.

Mr. W. C. Sinclair, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Amherst, accompanied by Mrs. Sinclair and two children, Billy and Betty, are spending the week-end in Charlottetown, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Huestis.

This has been an exceptionally busy week with the political conventions in different parts of the province and this city, and the important conference for the improvement and development of our fisheries, each bringing its quota of interested visitors.

The Exhibition is also holding first place attention and every effort is being made to make next week's fair the best yet.

Miss Ruth Young, daughter of Rev. G. M. Young and Mrs. Young of Fredericton, formerly of this city, has gone to Toronto. She will enter the Toronto General Hospital to take a course of training.

At a meeting of the executive of Rotary Club of the maritime provinces held in Moncton hall Tuesday, representatives were present from Halifax, St. John, Sydney, Charlottetown, St. Stephen and Moncton. Rev. Canon Armstrong, rector of Trinity Anglican church, St. John, was the principal speaker at a meeting of Rotarians held Tuesday night.

The marriage of Miss Beatrice Adele Palmer, daughter of Mr. H. J. Palmer, K.C., and Mrs. Palmer, of this city, to Mr. H.K.S. Hemming, of Montreal, took place quietly on Thursday morning last in St. George's church, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, the Rev. C. F. Lancaster officiating. The bride, who wore an embroidered suit of navy blue, trimmed with moleskin fur, and blue hat with silver grey feather, and carrying a shower bouquet of pink opheelia roses, was given away by her brother, Mr. Philip E. Palmer. Only the immediate relatives of the bride were present, including her mother and her brother, Mr. Harold Palmer, who went from Charlottetown to be present at the wedding. The church was beautifully decorated. The bride, who is very popular, was the recipient of many handsome presents from her friends. She received quite a number of congratulatory telegrams, among which was one from Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. McKinnon. Mr. and Mrs. Hemming left immediately after the ceremony for New York and other points in the United States. On their return they will reside at 24 Durocher Street, Montreal.

For the Synod week Principal and Mrs. Mackinnon had as guests two visitors for whom there will always be a warm welcome in Nova Scotia—the Rev. Harvey Morton, of the Trinidad Mission, and Mrs. Morton, who after a five months' leave from labors which are proving so richly fruitful in a field especially dear to Presbyterians in Canada, are about to leave on their return, together with four of their children—girls and boys, whose natural vigor has not been affected in the least by life in the tropics, and who are children of whom their parents may well be proud. Dr. Morton's eldest daughter, Elizabeth, will remain in St. John, with her grandfather, Judge Forbes, attending school there, his oldest son having been entered at the Presbyterian boys' school, Pictou.

Miss Alice Harrison, of Moncton, was a welcome visitor here this week.

Mr. J. H. Winfield, general manager of the Maritime Telephone and Telegraph Company, and Mrs. Winfield, of Halifax, have returned to their home after a delightful trip to the coast, where Mr. Winfield attended the electrical convention, a meeting which brought together at Vancouver many men from all parts of the Dominion. En route home they visited Victoria, Seattle, Calgary, Medicine Hat, Winnipeg, Montreal and Toronto.

Happiest congratulations were showered on Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNeill, of Summerside, whose marriage took place at the bride's home, Mr and Mrs. Wm. Wright, Charlottetown Royalty on Wednesday at high noon. After a reception the happy couple motored to Borden on a wedding trip to Boston and New York, before taking up their residence in Summerside.

Hostesses at the Golf Links this afternoon will be Mrs. J. E. O'Donnell, Mrs. H. McIntyre and Miss Nicholson.

Mrs. Fred Harris, of Bridgetown, is enjoying a visit with her friend, Mrs. (Senator) Robertson, 87 Upper Prince street.

If one wants to be very smart, one should include in her fall wardrobe at least one frock of black velvet, severely plain, to be worn with collar of white batiste lace.

Deepest sympathy is expressed for the family of Mr. Paul Lea of Moncton on the death of Mrs. Lea, which sad news reached her friends here this week.

Rideau Hall, the official residence of the Governor-General of Canada, has an interesting history. It was built in 1837 by the Hon. Thomas McKay, who, with John Redpath built the Rideau Canal locks. He built the hall as a private residence, having purchased 1,000 acres of land east of the Rideau river.

When Sir William Sutherland, Junior Lord of the Treasury and Whip for Scotland, and who had been secretary to Mr. Lord George, was married the other day to Miss Christine Fountain (who is the owner of large collieries in Yorkshire,) the Parliamentary private secretaries presented him with a copy of Mrs. Asquith's Memoirs, presumably as a warning to Parliamentary husbands in official positions.

WOULD YOU TELL?

If you were a girl, and the only work you could find in the whole city of New York was as a chorus girl—would you tell the boarding house "cats" that?

Or would you be mysterious and say nothing? Would you face their open contempt and sneers or let them gossip behind your back, while you struggled on to make good?

This is the dilemma.
