Coady, Joseph Storey, Harry Storey, James McLeod, Charles Smith and James Coyle, Sr.

BOY SCOUT TOY SHOP—Quite a number of children visited the old Fire Hall in the City Building Saturday afternoon to see the display of toys comprising the annual Boy Scout toy shop. About 500 different articles, many of a toy nature, have been repaired, renovated and redecorated during the past few weeks by Scout leaders assisted by the boys. The toys are as good as new following the recent overhauling. The various articles will be distributed to deserving children by Santa Claus when he pays his annual visit to the province this week.

HEAVY SNOW FALL—A heavy snowfall which assumed the proportions of a blizzard over the weekend spread an 18-inch blanket of snow over the province. All the main highways of the province were blocked to wheeled traffic and a few of the pedestrians found their way going in the city. A few church services had to be cancelled because of the inclement weather. Both City and Government snow plows were out traveling about the city and out to the Airport.

It was fitting "that our final tribute to the late Henry Smith be paid in this Church that he loved so greatly and served so faithfully." Rev. Hugh Miller declared in his funeral oration for the late Mr. Henry Smith at services held in Trinity United Church Saturday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Miller, who also conducted a short service at the house, was in charge of the services assisted by Rev. D. C. Boothroy and Rev. T. H. Bussell Somers.

The late Mr. Smith passed away at the residence of his son-in-law, Lt. Col. K. S. Rogers, after a short illness. He was 90 years of age and had been a life-long citizen of Charlottetown. For over 40 years he had filled the position of Clerk of the County Court but had been in retirement for a number of years. He had been a very active member of the Methodist and later the Trinity United Church during his lifetime.

The late Mr. Smith was laid to rest in the family plot in Sherwood Cemetery beside his wife and two children, William Raynor and Marianne Grantham who predeceased him. Rev. Mr. Miller officiated at the grave.

The mourners included: Lt. Col. K. S. Rogers, William Rogers, Robert L. Rogers, Dr. H. D. Johnston, Mr. R. L. Cotton, Mr. William Cotton, Hon. F. R. Hearty, Messrs. A. H. MacDougall, A. C. Duchemin, C. H. Baird, Heber Large, A. G. Gillis, Frank Clarke, Keith Morrow, C. G. Black, and G. J. Tweedy.

The pallbearers, who had been previously chosen by the deceased, were: His Honour, Lieutenant Governor B. W. LePage, Chief Justice J. A. Matheson, W. J. P. MacMillan, Lt.-Col. G. E. Full, Dr. J. H. Ayers, Messrs. E. T. Higgs, R. E. Mutch and Fraser Morrow.

GOLDEN WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. John Gill of Union Road will celebrate their golden wedding tomorrow, December 23rd.

FIREMEN CALLED—Firemen were called out about 8:30 last night for a slight blaze at the residence of John B. Perry, North Market Street. Firemen said an oven and kitchen stove set fire to a partition. The family had the blaze practically extinguished when the fire fighters arrived. There was very slight damage.—S

Many friends here regretted to learn that Mrs. Norman Oatway was confined to her home suffering from a heart ailment. Mrs. Oatway had been in Charlottetown visiting her son Roland in the Provincial Sanatorium and was returning to the station when she slipped on the street and fell breaking the two bones in her wrist. Best wishes for a speedy recovery are extended to Mrs. Oatway.

SERVICE AT THE KIRK—Owing to inclement weather a Christmas service at St. James Church was cancelled. The service at the Kirk of St. James, M.A., S.T.M., conducted services and preached the sermon. Special music included a contralto solo by Mrs. H. S. Henderson, and an anthem "There Were Shepherds"—Buck in which the solo parts were taken by Mrs. Anabelle Lawson. The Christmas Festival will be held next Sunday because of the bad weather yesterday.

TROOPS ENTERTAINED—The Y. M. C. A., house party Saturday night for the men in uniform attracted the largest crowd since the weekly entertainment was inaugurated. Over 300 sailors, soldiers and airmen were present at the gala event and the "Y" was all dressed up in its Christmas decorations. The evening was spent in dancing, carol singing, games and other amusements and the ladies served special Christmas refreshments. Next Saturday the Y. M. C. A. will again be host to the troops when a special entertainment will be presented.

HEAVY MAIL—The largest amount of Christmas mail so far this season was delivered to the local Post Office Saturday night when seven truck-loads were taken there. This included 11 bags of cards and letters. The train did not arrive in the City until ten minutes before midnight Saturday owing to heavy traffic. A heavy outgoing mail, about six truck-loads, will leave the local office this morning.

To handle the large number of cards and letters, there are two extra collections each day at present. The single daily stamp sale was held Monday when $1,000 worth were sold.

TUESDAY

CANON MALONE IS SPEAKER—The legend of the Wandering Jew was re-told in the city yesterday in an address by Rev. Canon M. Malone at the home of the Jew Duke on Tuesday evening. Mr. Malone was made a life member of the Society some years ago. The vocation part of the meeting was taken up by the reading of the book of the evening, Mrs. Currie and Mrs. Campbell. An interesting reading on the Presbyterian Church during the last fifty years was given by Rev. Fraser, Halifax, following a heavy snowfall.

QUARANTINE LIFTED—The quarantine at Beach Grove Military Training Centre was officially lifted yesterday. Dr. B. C. Keeping, deputy minister of public health said last night. The camp was placed under quarantine over a week ago following an outbreak of scarlet fever. The disease was scattered by the disease but since then no new cases were discovered. One case was also discovered at the local airport about the same time and no others have been reported there since. The discovery of a case in the city last week, no new cases have been reported.

TO KEEP ROAD OPEN—Royal Air Force snow plows will cooperate with the Provincial Government plows this winter in an effort to keep the roads from the Airport to Savage Harbour cleared of drifts. The Air Navigation School's bombing range is situated in Tracadie and practice is carried out there. It is necessary to maintain communication by road if possible. However, if weather conditions prevent keeping this stretch of road open it may be necessary for the R.A.F. to blast some of their personnel near the range to keep records of practice.

ENJOY CONCERT—The Char. lottetown Senators, under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Full, paid their annual visit to the Provincial Sanatorium last evening and presented a most enjoyable Christmas concert for the patients. The delightful program by the well-known local artists consisted of Christmas carols and other pleasing musical entertainment. A large number of the patients gathered in the artistically decorated reception room where they were most enjoyably entertained. A beautiful Christmas tree and other trimmings added a festive air to the occasion. Besides the patients, members of the sanatorium staff, were present at the concert.

Lac, Lincoln Dumont is visiting his home in Brighton on the Christmas occasion

Mr. and Mrs. Hume Keefe, left Tuesday for Halifax where they will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends.

Miss Esther C. Harper, Principal of the Intermediate School at Gaspé, Quebec, is spending the Christmas holidays at her home in East Royalty.

Mrs. Boyd Lowther is making a splendid recovery from her recent serious operation in the Prince County Hospital and her friends will be glad to welcome her to her home in the near future.

The many friends of Mrs. Earle Sawyer of North Tryon are glad to hear that she is able to leave the Prince County Hospital where she has been a patient for the past six weeks, and go to the home of her parents, Mr. Russell Clark of Cape Traverse where she will remain for a while.

PURCHASE A FINE LOT OF FURS—T. G. Gallant of Charlottetown since his retirement from the Federal Fisheries Department has been raising silver foxes in his garden as a hobby. And he's raising good ones, as evidenced by the fact he sold yesterday his entire lot of furs to Mr. Fritz Weisler and Mr. W. Chester S. McLure. Three skins of the lot were specimen full skins and were purchased at a price of $65 each.

Following the usual prayer meeting service at Central Christian Church last night, members of the congregation gathered in the Lecture Room and presented Rev. Neil Herman, the minister, with a well-filled purse. Elders W. H. Steverson and R. H. MacNeill were also present with a Bible each for their service to the church.

TO VISIT SARANAC LAKE—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor of Malpeque left on Friday for Saranac Lake to spend Christmas with their son, Dr. Irwin Taylor, and Mrs. Taylor. They were met in Montreal by Dr. and Mrs. Taylor and will motor the remainder of the way. Dr. Taylor is a very successful dentist at Saranac Lake.—S

—WAS KNOWN IN SUMMERSIDE—Friends in Summerside will be sorry to hear of the announcement of the death of Sgt. Pilot John Percival Taylor, who was killed in action in last week's news. Sgt. Taylor was one of the first fifteen young men who came to Summerside to guard the airport when it was first opened, but before the main body of airmen came. After leaving Summerside Sgt. Taylor went to Toronto for his training and had been overseas for some months as a pilot, when he was killed in action. His home is in Athabasca, Alberta. He made quite a few friends during his three months' stay in Summerside and corresponded with them after leaving here. Shortly before the news of his death, friends had received Christmas cards from him.—S

—LITTLE BOY SUFFERS FRACTURED ARM—Master Duncan Cole, nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Cole of Stanley Bridge is in the Prince County Hospital with a badly fractured arm. The little fellow had been carrying baskets, helping with the grain threshing and just before the work was completed for the day he was passing the threshing machine and his sleeve became caught in the spindle of the drum. The machine was stopped as quickly as possible but in spite of quick measures his arm was broken near the shoulder and his wrist badly lacerated. He was rushed to the Prince County Hospital after first aid had been given, and is now resting as comfortable as can be under the circumstances. His many friends trust he will soon be well again.—S

—SAD REVEREAMENT—Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Arthur Jones of St. Eleanors in the death of his wife who passed away after a brief illness on Friday evening in the Prince County Hospital. Mrs. Jones was only 28 years of age and was before her marriage Jessie K. Hunt, daughter of Mrs. Hunt and the late Richard Jones, who was killed in action in the Prince County Hospital. Mrs. Jones was very active in the work of St. John's Church of which she was a member. She will be much missed by her many friends and old who will deplore her passing. Her mother, who now resides at Windsor, N. S., and sister, Janet, were with her when she passed away. To her grief-stricken husband, mother and sisters the deepest sympathy is extended. The funeral will be held this afternoon from her late home to St. John's Church, St. Eleanors.—S

—RECEIVES SAD NEWS—Mr. Hugh Murray of Bedouque has received the sad news of the death of his sister Mrs. Thomas Frost which occurred at her home in Millbank, N. B., on Thursday last. Mrs. Frost had been ill for some months and her death was not unexpected, but nevertheless came as a shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Frost was before her marriage, Miss Lena Murray, daughter of the late Robert Murray of Bedouque and will be kindly remembered by old friends there. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, one of her sons, Beattie Pillman, Victoria, P.E.I., and her brother, Hugh Murray, Bedouque. The funeral was held on Saturday at Millbank.—S
