

Everyone says —

“How can they produce such fine cars to sell at such Low Prices!”

This is the comment that people make on seeing the new Chevrolet cars.

Beautiful streamline bodies mounted on a chassis new from radiator to rear axle, these cars present the most striking values ever offered in the low price field. Note these outstanding features—

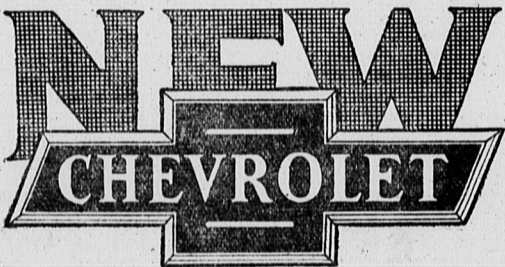

- New design radiator, honeycomb type; New disc clutch, requiring no lubrication; New rear axle with larger, stronger gears and banjo-type housing; New springs of chrome vanadium steel, semi-elliptic with rear springs underslung; New frame, longer and stronger of deep channel steel construction; New bodies, roomier, more comfortable, of modern design—closed models have beautiful Fisher bodies; New windshields, open models with very low bottom glass panel, closed models with one-piece V V type; New finish, lustrous, durable Duco in beautiful colors; New motor refinements, heavier crankshaft, improved construction for carburetor and manifold.

- Touring - $735
Coupe - $735
Roadster - $995
Coach - $1015
Sedan - $1165

All prices at Factory

Low Pressure Tires standard on closed models, optional at slight extra cost on open cars.

VISITS WEST KENT.—Yesterday Rev. Dr. Moore, President of King's College visited West Kent School accompanied by Mr. C. H. B. Longworth and addressed the pupils of the senior grades.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late John Crooke was held yesterday morning from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Leslie Henry, 300 Fitzroy Street, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Maurice McDonald. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Daniel Steele, Samuel Craig, John T. McKenzie, Chas. Ross, Martin Walsh and John Callaghan. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. A. L. Sinnott.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—There was a large attendance at the funeral of the late William McDonald which took place from his late residence King Street yesterday afternoon to the People's Cemetery. Services were conducted by Rev. W. O. Mulligan who gave words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved. There were a number of beautiful floral tributes.

TRYON AND VICINITY.—The many friends of Mr. William Calbeck will be sorry to learn of his severe illness and hope to see him better in the near future. The sport lovers of Tryon were very sorry to learn that the rink has been removed which was necessary owing to the recent mild weather. Much credit is due the Wood brothers for the splendid opportunities which they offered to the skaters and hockeyists. The patrons of the Tryon Roller Mills will be glad to learn that Mr. Percy Delaney is reinstated as miller. It is rumored that several of the young men of Tryon are playing checkers for the championship of the community. It is hoped that all the young men will take an interest in this game, as it is a splendid one to develop mental powers. Miss Ruth Mullins, Tryon is visiting friends in Charlottetown. Miss Amy Howatt, Mr. Harold Mabey and Mr. Charles Bacon have returned to Charlottetown to resume their studies at Prince of Wales College. Mr. Victor Howatt, Sandy Point spent the weekend in Tryon, the guest of Miss Margaret Bell. Mr. Stanley Howatt, recently returned to his home in Tryon, after spending an extended vacation in Hampton.

Dr. R. S. Coepit, Osteopath of Moncton is in the city guest of the Revere Hotel.
