PRISONERS IN MULLINS CASE CONVICTED

BOSTON, Nov 20—Dionysius Spiroponios, alias James Mantir, the young barber from Manchester (N. H.), was found guilty yesterday of murder in the second degree by a jury in the East Cambridge court for killing Annie Mullin's, the Newfoundland girl, in Squire's Field, Arlington, on the night of March 27, 1908, and his accomplice, Peter C. Delorey, the Somerville meat cutter, was convicted of manslaughter.

The prisoners are each nineteen years of age. The penalty in Mantir's case is life imprisonment, and the maximum punishment under Delorey's conviction is twenty years. Sentence will be passed later. Counsel for the defendants were allowed thirty days to file exceptions, which will make a voluminous bill. They said last night they had not yet decided on their course of action, but it is thought probable that they will carry the case in the full bench of the supreme court.

MCALPINE'S P. E. ISLAND DIRECTORY

This Directory is now being delivered to subscribers and patrons by H. F. Sharp and his assistants for the McAlphine Publishing Company, Ltd Halifax. It appears to have been carefully compiled and is admirably arranged while the mechanical work has been tastefully and correctly done. It makes a neat volume of 535 pages, and is up to date in all particulars.

First in the table of contents is a classified business directory of the entire Province, alphabetically arranged by callings and names. Next in order comes the directory of Charlottetown, the list containing 4,182 names, and indicating some growth in the city's population, now estimated at 12,546. A street directory follows, with a list of the streets, the points where they intersect, and the residences, offices and business places thereon, given by street numbers.

King's County comes next, beginning with separate tables for Georgetown, Montague and Souris, and these followed by the names of residents in the rural districts of the county, arranged alphabetically. Queen's county, outside of Charlottetown, is similarly treated. Then a full directory of the Town of Summerside is given, followed by the names of residents of Prince County, outside of the western capital.

Lists of post offices in the three counties are also included, distinguishing those that are authorised to issue and pay money orders and postal notes, also the savings banks offices. There is much other information including the names of Members of the Executive Council, the Members of the Legislature, the Corporations of Charlottetown and Summerside, the Judges of the Supreme and County Courts, Stipendiary Magistrates, the dates of court sittings, the names of staffs of educational institutions, hospitals, the Post Office, Finance Department, Customs, Marine and Fisheries, Island Revenue, Land Surveyors, the Consular Service, &c, &c. The above partial outline of the contents of the Directory affords sufficient evidence of its utility as a work of reference.

HORSE NOTES.

It is interesting to note how prominently the blood of Nutwood, 2:18¾ comes to the fort as the examination of 2:10 performers are investigated. Jack McKerron 2:07¼ has him on both sides of the line. His sire was Nutwood Wilkes, whose dam Lida W., 2:18¾ was by Nutwood 2:18¾ while the dam of Jack McKerron was Ximena by Nutwood. Frazee 2:07¼ was by Arion, whose dam Mannette was by Nutwood. Kid Wilkes, 2:09¼, who on the dam's side is almost thoroughbred is by Stanton Wilkes, a son of Nutwood Wilkes. Emily W. 2:10 has for her dam Cornelia Ross by Cornelius, a son of Nutwood. These are only a few examples. George Ganos 2:03¾ dam is Credition by Nuthurst, a son of Nutwood, which again draws attention to the fact of the large number of pacers which have the blood of Nutwood in their veins. Moortrix (4) 2:07¼, one of the fastest of the new California pacers, has for his dam Trix by Nutwood Wilkes, and the two year old pacer Sireno Pointer 2:18 is out of the same dam. In both gaits, from generation to generation, the blood of Nutwood is continually proving its speed producing ability. It is also more worthy of note that each generation not only has the speed but also the stamina, and crossed in good lines, is always to the fore. The Nutwood family prove the laws of heredity and developed ancestry. The trotting stallion Aquiri, owned by J. M. Nicholson, Charlottetown, inherits the blood that produced the great sire Nutwood as his dam Eutaxia is by Expedition 2:15¾ whose dam was the great brood mare Lady Russel, full sister of Maud S., 2:08¾ by Harold 413, second dam the great brood mare Miss Russell (dam of Nutwood 2:18¾) by Pilot Jr., 12 and third dam Sally Russell, a thoroughbred daughter of Boston, the greatest long distance race horse that America has ever produced.

CANADA AND U. S. SIGN FISHERIES AGREEMENT

NEW YORK, Nov 20—According to the announcement made in New York tonight the agreement between the United States and Canada for the protection of the waters lying between the two countries from conditions endangering the fisheries, has been signed, and will probably become operative within a fortnight.

The announcement was made by Dr David Starr Jordan, the American member of the International Fisheries Commission, which has been engaged for more than a year in making up the statute.

Dr Jordan declined to make public the text of the agreement in advance of its promulgation by the President, but he said that the terms would furnish adequate protection to fish life in the waters affected. The regulations it is understood, will become law upon their promulgation by the President without additional legislation.
