Four Players Banished Following Fistic Battle As Cubs Defeat Pirates

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, April 29.—Six home runs, two fist fights, banishment of four players, a 10-run Chicago rally in the eight and a parade of 10 pitchers marked riotous proceedings today as the Cubs and Pittsburgh Pirates, meetnig for the first time this season, battled figuratively and literally through two hours and 41 minutes at Chicago before the Cubs won a 12-11 decision.

In between a barrage of homers, including two by Gus Suhr and one by Arky Vaughan of the Pirates, and one each by Fred Lindstrom, Phil Cavaretta and Captain Woody English of the Cubs, the players engaged in a fistic encounter that led to the banishment of shortstop Bill Jurges and pitcher Roy Joiner of the Cubs and second baseman Harry Lavagetto and pitcher Guy Bush of the Pirates. All except Bush were participants in the game at the time.

TANGLED AT SECOND

The trouble started in the fifth when Lavagetto, doubling to score Manager "Pie" Traynor and boost Pittsburgh's early lead to 6-2, got entangled with Jurges' spikes as the latter covered second. Lavagetto got to his feet with fists flying.

Umpires and players of both teams swarmed on the field but before the situation was under control, Bush, who was traded to Pittsburgh by the Cubs last fall, engaged in a short verbal battle with Joiner and then rushed him, knocking the Cubs' hurler to the ground with several rights that brought blood to Joiner's nose and left a six-inch scratch on his left jaw.

The Pirates, with Waite Hoyt pitching steady ball, apparently had the game well in hand until the eighth, holding a 9-3 advantage. The Cubs then put on their 14-batter, 10-run, seven-hit rally in the eighth, getting to Hoyt and his successors, Johnny Salveson and Bill Swift with equal vengeance. During the course of the rally English hit his home run and Salveson walked three men, which led to his being charged with the defeat.

BRAVES WINNERS

Philadelphia Nationals outhit Boston Braves 13-9 at Boston but suffered their eighth consecutive defeat as they lost the ball game 7-5.

The game was all even at 5-5 in the sixth inning when the Braves captialized on an error, a walk and two singles to put across two runs—their margin of victory.

Paul Dean rang up his third victory of the season, holding the Reds well in check at Cincinnati while his St. Louis team-mates battered out a 7-2 decision.

Pepper Martin led the attack on Brennan and Freitas with three hits, one a triple, in as many times at bat.

Hitless until Bottomley scratched a single in the fourth, the Reds never effectively solved Dean's delivery.

New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers were not scheduled.

MT'L. BOXER SCORES ONE ROUND KAYOE

Thomas Osborne Takes Boston Gridiron Star In Opening Round.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

BOSTON, April 29.—Thomas Osborne, muscular Montreal heavyweight, provided an early feature for an international amateur boxing carnival here tonight by scoring a one-round knockout over his American opponent.

Montreal boxers vied with mittmen from Ireland and New England for honors in the Boston Garden ring.

Osborne scored his victory over Paul Flaherty, Boston College gridiron star, with a right-hand full of dynamite. The Canadian slammed Flaherty on the head soon after the start and down he went for a seven count. As the American arose, Osborne uncorked another blow of the same variety and the referee stopped the bout with the football player draped over the ropes.

Wally Cave, Montreal, 126-pounder, gained a three-round award over Albert Solori of Somerville.

Harold McLeod, Montreal, put on a blazing third-round rally to gain the decision from Alex Deangilo of Boston, in the first bout of the 135-pounds division.

Angelo Caparell, Boston, bested Nick Nicklo, Montreal, 147-pounder, in another three-round contest.

Then Roy Kelley of Brookline, opened the 160-pound warfare by outpointing Art Worrell, Montreal negro, all the way in three rounds.

Yankees Win Fifth Straight Victory By Blanking Washington Senators 2-0

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, April 29—Vernon ("Lefty") Gomez, who had not taken his turn on the mound in more than a week because of a mild attack of the grippe, returned to action today and shutout Washington Senators with four hits as New York Yangees won the first game of the series 2-0 at Yankee Stadium for their fifth straight victory.

In accounting for his second triumph of the season, Gomez was forced to give his best all the way for he was given a close fight by Bob Burke, who held the Yanks to eight hits and made them work for their two runs.

A'S LOSE 4TH STRAIGHT

Bing Miller's pinch single with three men on base and two out in the 11th inning gave Boston Red Sox a 10-8 victory over the Athletics at Philadelphia. The defeat was the fourth straight for the A's.

Cronin and Solters scored the deciding runs on Miller's hit, breaking the 8-8 tie of the eighth inning. The A's had the game in hand by a score of 8-5 until the eighth. Then Moses, Athletics' right fielder, muffed Bill Werber's line drive and two runners scored. The third run was scored on Roy Johnson's double.

TIGERS TROUNCE BROWNS

Detroit Tigers opened a four-game stand at St. Louis by handing the oft-beaten St. Louis Browns their worst drubbing of the season, 18-0, before a crowd numbering less than 1,000. It was the seventh consecutive loss for the Browns.

The veteran Buck Newsom held the American League champions to four hits in seven innings, but the Tiger bastmen drove Walkup, his successor, to quick cover during a nine-run onslaught in the eighth and garnered six more hits off Weiland before the game ended.

Two Dead One Injured In Car Crash

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

SIMCOE, Ont., April 29.—Hospital authorities tonight described as critical the condition of Mrs. Charles Borbridge, whose husband was killed early today in a motor accident along with his uncle, Harry C. Borbridge, prominent St. Thomas merchant.

The two men met death when their car left the highway a half-mile east of here, ran 50 yards in the ditch before crashing into a tree. The car was almost demolished and the men were dead when taken from the wreckage.

Mrs. Borbridge who had been married only two months, was found walking along the highway in a daze and was taken to hospital where she was found to be suffering from a fractured skull.

A coroner's jury viewed the bodies and adjourned the inquest for a week.

TORONTO TEAM WINS HOOP CH'SHIP

Broadview Y. M. C. A. Defeats Saint John Intermediates To Take Round 54-31.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

SAINT JOHN, N. B., April 29.—Toronto Broadview Y. M. C. A. flashed top form and won the Canadian Intermediate Basketball title when they defeated Saint John Basketball Association Intermediates 30-21 tonight in the second of a two-game total series for the Dominion championship. With a 24-10 victory to their credit in the first match played Saturday night, Broadview's win tonight gave them the round 54-31.

Play went back and forth from the opening face-off as both teams started cautiously, and Toronto produced the opening basket when Breadon flipped the ball through the hoop from close in after taking a pass from Breathett on the foul line.

Tommy Corbett, husky Saint John forward, tied the score on a long shot little more than one minute later, but Martin put Broadview into the lead again when he scored from the face-off.

SPEEDY TORONTO ATTACKS

Speedy attacks by Martin, Breadon and Samme netted Toronto 17 points in the next seven minutes of play, while Saint John tried vainly to break up the scoring rushes. Two of Broadview's points were made by Martin on penalty shots.

Slight George Turner, Saint John forward, counted a penalty shot, and Tommy Corbett a long one just before th bell ended the first session. Saint John saw their title hopes disappearing as they repaired to the dressing room on the short end of the 17-5 count.

Staging a last desperate bid for the vanishing title, Saint John opened aggressively in the final half, and George Turner, who shone for Saint John in the first match became the spearhead of a driving attack which gave the Maritimers 12 points to tie the score before the period was half over. The desperate offense set Broadview back on their heels and kept them scoreless for 11 minutes.

MARTIN STARS

Martin, dark Toronto forward and star of the match, put Broadview in the lead again with a cool basket from the foul line. His goal disrupted the Saint John squad's attack and gave the Queen City players the upper hand once more.

Playing cooly until the end of the game Toronto dominated the remainder of the session and scored 11 more points to Saint John's 4 making victory certain.

Martin, stellar Broadview player, was high scorer of the match with 12 points, while Breadon, Moores and Samme were also outstanding.

For Saint John George Turner, slippery forward, McAlpine and Corbett were always dangerous.

"Ab" Rennick, coach of the title-holders' team, started after it was all over: "It's the first title we ever won on a stage."

The title series was played on the stage of Saint John School auditorium.

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

MONTREAL, April 29—Connecting with 13 hits off three hurlers at Newark, Toronto Maple Leafs today turned back Newark Bears 10-4 in an International League game.

The Leafs first drove Cliff Melton from the mound, sent Frank Makosky to the showers in the eighth and continued their heavy hitting at the expense of Bob Miller. "Junie" Barnes was hit hard but went the route for Toronto, keeping the Bears' 11 blows well scattered.

Hy Vandenburg pitched four-hit ball to shut out Montreal Royals at Syracuse, and the Chiefs took advantage of scratch hits and errors for most of their scoring in a 5-0 victory, their first in three games with Montreal.

Ben Tate, Montreal catcher, got three of Royals' four hits, including a double, but Vandenburg, who fanned six and walked five, was invincible with men on bases.

Syracuse scored twice in the second on a walk, an infield hit, an eror and an infield out, added another run in the third with a scratch hit, sacrifice and error, and then put together another infield hit and two doubles for the last two runs in the fifth.

St. Louis Cards Boycotted By Labor Union

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

ST. LOUIS, April 29—Leo Durocher, captain and shortstop of St. Louis Cardinals, today denied participation in alleged anti-union activities which resulted in a boycott of the baseball club by organized labor.

The Central Trades and Labor Union of St. Louis voted unanimously yesterday to request the 75,000 members of its affiliated unions to stay away from Cardinal games until Durocher is removed from the lineup.

The boycott grew out of an incident last Feb. 22 when Miss Doris Smith, a garment worker, was arrested for disturbing the peace near the Forest City Manufacturing Co., where garment workers have been on strike several months.

Durocher's wife, Mrs. Grace Durocher, is a dress designer for the Forest City Company, and he was taking her to work at the time. Durocher gave testimony in police court on the basis of which Miss Smith was fined.

Carey Accepts Presidency Of Boxing Club

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, April 29—William F. Carey, former President of Madison Square Garden, today accepted the presidency of the 20th Century Sporting Club, the Garden's formost rival in the promotion of outdoor boxing here.

In circles close to the situation, the move was considered a direct step toward Carey's return to power in the Garden, where he resigned a year ago and was replaced by Col. John R. Kilpatrick. As head of the 20th Century Club, Carey is expected to arrange a deal whereby the club, formed by Mike Jacobs, former associate of Tex Rickard, will lease the Garden for boxing shows during the winter.

The 20TH Century Club has both New York ball parks under long term lease, but has no indoor arena.

SCHUMACHER PITCHES ONE HIT GAME

Scratch Single In Third Prevents Giants' Right Hander From Entering "Hall of Fame."

(By Edward J. Neil Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, April 29—The condolences were on Hal Schumacher today, and though everyone wished he could do something more about it, it was possible only to chalk up another stumble on the doorstep of baseball's no-hit hall of fame, and add "one more for the book."

The Giant's big right hander burned down the Phillies yesterday 3-0. Everyone on the field thought he had pitched the no-hit game that is the goal of every hurler. The big crowd in the stands suffered with every pitch as the game wore on, and Schumacher, working with infinite care, finally got the 29th man who faced him for the final out in the 9th.

But up in the press box, perspiration was streaming and faces were long. Orville Jorgens, Philadelphia pitcher, had hit one questionable ball in the third. It scorched through the box, bounced off Schumacher's hand to Dick Bartell, at shortstop. Bartell, tearing in on the play, off balance, threw wide to Bill Terry at first base. Jorgens went all the way to second.

"Hit, and an error on the throw," ruled Dick Vidmer of the Herald Tribune, the official scorer. That was all that stood between Schumacher and his no-hitter as Bartell, making up for his earlier failure, made a phenomenal play to throw out the final batter and came tearing in with the rest of the Giants to congratulate the pitcher.

Vidmer today had the unanimous support of his press box colleagues. There could be no official protest of the scorer's decision, even if there had been a serious disagreement.
