ELLEN'S DIARY

By an Island Farmer's Wife

The cream separator to be assembled; the wood and standing to the porch. When I tried to investigate Jamie into gathering a few curls of birch bark from the place where last night's truck load of wood had been removed, he smiled a disarming smile and brushed my suggestion lightly aside. "Some noughty day," he said and armed with a discarded shovel-handled shovel, he headed for the woods. But he gladly fed the fowl their evening meal and laughed merrily at their enthusiasm. Together we made a tour of inspection that we might observe all the vacant robin's nests. We discovered that we hope soon to see a young one. The old bird's nest is unmade—the covers tossed aside and James' and my own pillow plumped up—all my duties left undone in today's rush. I saw shadows them all and an awful omission in James' sight!

Dear tomorrow—Diary—Good night.

In Memoriam

In fond and loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Reginald Rose, South Lake, who passed away on November 6, 1944.

You had no one a last farewell, You said goodbye to none, Their Heavenly voices were opened A loving voice said "Come".

Your life is a beautiful memory Which is our silent grief, You sleep in God's beautiful garden In the sunshine of perfect peace.

So we leave you to God's keeping His love will be our comfort And our own love we loved so well Has only gone on before.

Lovingly Remembered by Her Husband and Son-in-Law and Walter. 11, 6-11.

In Memoriam

ADAMS - In memory of Elmer Adams - passed away November 6, 1944.

Today is a day of remembrance With many sad regrets, When we shall always remember When the rest of the world forgets.

We think of you in silence And oft repeat your name, While we would we give our voice And see your face again.

Inserted by His Friends Keir and John. 11, 6-11.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son, Thomas Elmer Adams, Sea View, who departed this life on November 6, 1944.

Since a year ago dear Elmer Since God called you away, And left our home so lonely, We'll never forget the day.

Remember the times we used to have, Oh! why did you have to go, When we were short of one more angel, That was why he sent for you.

Never Forgotten by Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters. 11, 6-11.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of Elmer Adams of Sea View, who passed away November 6, 1944.

Just when your life was brightest, Just when your years were best, You were called from the world of sorrow, You were called from the world of sorrow.

Inserted by Wallace and Sterling Murphy and Louis Adams. 11, 6-11.

Have You Tried Bran in this Delicious Form?

It provides other Food Benefits, too

YOU'LL know how delicious bran can be when you've tried Post's Bran Flakes. Their tempting, nut-sweet flavor is deliciously different. And they provide other food benefits not found in every bran cereal.

Post's Bran Flakes contain just enough bran to help prevent constipation due to lack of bulk. And because they contain other parts of wheat, you get wheat nourishment with your bran.

Eat Post's Bran Flakes regularly. Eat them for the bran you need... PLUS protein and carbohydrates your body needs with iron and phosphorus for bones and teeth... PLUS a simply grand, appetizing flavor.

And don't forget that Post's Bran Flakes are just as delicious and effective in light, tender bran muffins. Sugarless recipe on both Regular and Giant Economy packages.

Honor Roll Unveiled At Murray Harbor Nth.

On Sunday, October 21st, a service of particular interest was held in the Presbyterian Church at Murray Harbor, North. This was the unveiling of the Roll of Honor containing the names of the men and women of the Murray Harbor North congregation who gallantly volunteered their services in defence of King and Country. The service, held at the regular hour of morning worship in this church, was conducted by the Minister, Rev. C. D. Henderson. In an appropriate sermon for this memorial occasion, Mr. Henderson spoke in tribute to the valiant men and women whose names are inscribed on this Roll of Honor. Many of these are still away from home, on active service, but all who have returned and found it possible to do so, were in attendance at this service. An Address of Dedication was read by Mr. Harry D. Millar. The Roll of Honor was unveiled by Mr. Ernest S. Graham, whose son, Sergeant George D. Graham, died of wounds in Italy, December 13, 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lowther's 57th Anniversary

The beautiful spacious home of Mr. W. S. Mutarr and family, North Carleton, was the scene of a happy event on Tuesday, October 30th, 1945, when the brothers, sisters and quite a number of nephews and nieces gathered to celebrate the 57th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Lowther's wedding.

After all had assembled, Mrs. James Stavert led the bride and groom to seats of honor and Mr. Albert Mutarr read an address during which Mrs. George Calbeck presented them with an appropriate gift to which they joyfully replied. "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung. They have almost reached their 85th and 86th birthdays, so did not bounce them but admired their buoyant spirit and how kindly the years have dealt with them.

A delicious buffet luncheon was served by the ladies and the remainder of the evening spent in social conversation and music. A quartet with Mrs. Blanche Harper at the piano was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. James Stavert, Mary Ann Albert Mutarr, also other singing. Best of The Tie That Binds, a Very Good Save The King, brought a joyous time to a close.

SAVE BUTTER... MAKE BETTER CAKES!

SWANS DOWN CAKE FLOUR

If a cake's worth making it's worth making with SWANS DOWN

CARES made with little butter—or with shortening instead—are outstandingly moist, soft-textured and delicious, when you use Swans Down. For Swans Down's tender gluten and remarkable fineness make every cake velvety-crumbed and meltingly delicious—help it stay moist and fresh for days.

Swans Down is made expressly to make better cakes. Milled from the choice inner portions of good Canadian wheat, Swans Down is sifted again and again through silk, until 27 times as fine as ordinary flour. Gives swirl success every time. See tested recipes on the package.
