CONDITIONS OF BIBLE STUDY CONTEST

1. Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is however desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

2. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a subscriber to the Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and this time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is however desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

3. Each contestant in this Local Club, must answer each of the written questions, for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, Aug. 23rd, 1908, and the answers must all be in the possession of The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and this time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions to qualify for the prizes. It is however desirable that the questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

4. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must exceed two hundred words in length and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper, about 8 1/2 by 11 inches, and address the writer at the bottom of the answer, so it can be identified, given a number the close of the contest, and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this Local Club will be given out from this office.

5. Each answer must be registered and the name cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.

6. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this, the lesson text must be read and especially the verse, or verses, upon which the question is based.

7. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to this office, and they will be collected, at number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper

Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Cough, Grip, Asthma, Diphtheria

Resolene is a boon to Asthmatics

Does it not seem more effective to breathe in a remedy to cure disease of the breathing organs than to take the remedy into the stomach? It cures because the air rendered strongly antiseptic is carried over the diseased surface every breath, giving prolonged and constant treatment. It is invaluable to mothers with small children.

Those of a consumptive tendency find immediate relief from coughs or inflamed conditions of the throat.
