The ladies of the Mayfield Missionary Society held a chicken supper at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Andrew Thursday evening Oct 29th, the house was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and the table which held so much delicious food made it very inviting. The house was comfortably filled but on account of the wet weather of late it was a set back to a great many who otherwise would have attended. A fishing pond was an amusing attraction for the evenings fun and everyone took advantage and tried their luck, and after the programme the evening was spent in Community singing and social intercourse. Much credit is due Mr. and Mrs. Andrew, who are noted for their hospitality and always so willing to give their home for a good cause. An interesting programme was carried out. Rev. H. S. Bishop acted as chairman. Special mention may be made of a humorous reading which was given by Mrs. H. S. Bishop and was greatly appreciated by all. The following was the programme. Opening Chorus, Battling for the Right, by the Missionary Society. A short address was then given by Rev. H. S. Bishop. Recitation by Thelma Johnston, Solo, Richard Dickieson. P'no Solo, Lewis Woodner. Recitation, Mrs. Harold Toombs. Dialogue entitled, Aunt Nancy and the Missionary Meeting by Mrs. Blair Andrews. Miss Evelyn Houston, Misses Thelma and Jennie Smith and Erwin Andrew. Solo, Blanche Wyand, Reading, Mrs. H. S. Bishop. Piano Duet, Mrs. George and Miss Ruth Dickieson. Quite a large sum was realized which goes to the Mayfield Missionary Society.

For several years the Ottawa Technical School has been conducting night classes for all-comers, and such is the thirst for knowledge that in 1931 more than ninety subjects are on the curriculum, and the enrolment of classes is well over two thousand. So ambitious are many of the "Gardeners" that they must needs be digging and pruning long after regular working hours. Messrs. Jean Montgomery, Ruby Moore, Hilda Oaks, and Alma Mason, and Messrs. Hugh MacDonald, Arthur Jardine and Jack Boyer are taking advantage of these classes of which shorthand, typing and Conversational French seem to be most sought after.

The far-reaching tentacles of the Economic Depression monster have ferreted out at last two fair Islanders in Ottawa. These two young ladies had been entertaining and such was their pressing generosity, and such the willing compliance of their guests, that at midnight the pantry was like unto Mother Hubbard's cupboard. "Les Miserables" sallied forth to give to the wolf who stalked about their door, and with the aid of Miss Mutch, Miss M'son, and a large piece of gingerbread, the beast was temporarily shooed!

Mr. Robert Mutch of Mount Herbert, and his wife (nee Helen Mallett of Union Road), have been enjoying a honeymoon tour embracing the leading cities of Eastern Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Mutch are making the trip in their car and are charmed with the autumn scenery in the hinterland provinces. Mr. Mutch, however, says he will return to the little province with a renewed feeling of gratitude after having witnessed so many unemployed persons even in the towns of Northern New Brunswick. Mr. and Mrs. Mutch stayed two days in Ottawa with the former's sister, Miss Lois Mutch.

G. B. Shaw "Bossed" By Wife

While George Bernard Shaw is loudly criticizing the world and telling it what to do and what not to do, he is being "bossed" by a mild-mannered woman. That woman is his wife. This has just been revealed, and with it is the statement that Mrs. Shaw is a real power behind the scenes. Actually, she is the great man's business manager, super-secretary and, on occasions, nurse. She sees his new books and new editions through the press. She also tackles his business correspondence, which in itself is almost a whole-time job. This quietly efficient and unassuming woman also is always willing to encourage new writers.

His friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. Chester MacPherson is now regularly at work again with the Department of Pensions and National Health after a somewhat protracted illness.

Dr. Murchison of Bonshaw and his daughter, Miss Katherine, who is nursing at the Victoria General Hospital in Montreal, recently returned from a brief visit with relatives in California and spent a few days here last week the guests of Miss Irene Murchison. After a pleasant holiday the Doctor will resume the arduous duties of his practice greatly refreshed.
