THERE'E A CATCH

AUCKLAND, N. Z. —(CP) — New Zealand isn't a land of millionaires, but even the poorest can ride on a road of silver. On Great Barrier Island near here, two miles of road have been graded with silver ore from an abandoned mine. But it is low grade and too scarce to justify installing expensive machinery.

LONDON — (CP) — Britain, the world's largest exporter of bicycles, in 1947 exported 1,449,662 bicycles of an output of 2,489,929. This, on an average, means that the United Kingdom exported 10 bicycles every minute of every eight-hour working day.

Mr. Kingsley Shaw, Charlottetown, spent a few days in Montague, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Nelson.

Mr. Clarence MacInnis, commercial traveller spent the day in Montague and vicinity calling on his regular customers.

Mr. and Mrs. Esdale Burdett, Strathcona, were Sunday visitors to Montague, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Wigginton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Campbell, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacDonald, Cumberland Hill, spent the day in Montague on business.

Messrs. Russell Munn and Jack VanIderstine, Murray River, have left for Saint John, N. B., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Nicolle, and their young daughter, Elaine.

Mr. John O'Connor, Murray Harbour suffered a severe accident in a fall from his wagon necessitating his removal to the King's County Memorial Hospital where his condition is described as serious.

The snow fall of the past weekend caused a great deal of difficulty in travelling conditions in this section which was one of the hardest hit by the storm. Traffic in the town moved very slowly, while cars on Bell's Hill were stalled, unable to make the grade. One section of the main highway was completely blocked so that travellers had to pass through the fields. All dirt roads are in a muddy, slushy condition making it difficult for travellers to move from one place to another. However, it is expected that these roads will be in a better condition before the weight restrictions are removed.

At the close of the regular meeting of Hillside Lodge No. 123, I.O.O.F., Montague, the members of the Acme Rebekah Lodge joined the Oddfellows in a social gathering to commemorate the 123'h anniversary of the Oddfellowship. An interesting address on the Order was given by W. A. Hilchey, P.N.G. A special feature was the presentation of twenty-five year jewels to E. H. Stewart and H. H. Stewart, the presentation being made by a veteran Oddfellow, Ernest Moar, New Perth. Brief remarks were made by the recipients, and also by Mrs. Georgie Hume, Noble Grand of Acme. A special guest was Albert J. Turner, a member of Whittier Lodge, No. 315, Whittier, California. Mr. Turner left Montague in 1889, and has recently returned to reside here, having acquired an apartment in the Hume Building. The entertainment committee, H. L. MacGregor, Harry Higginbotham, and Bruce MacLean, arranged a social hour of progressive auction and prizes for the highest scores were awarded to Miss Sue Hemphill and Bruce MacPhee, with consolation prizes going to Mrs. Irene MacDonald and Albert Aitken. Following a delicious lunch served by the Oddfellows, a jolly sing song was enjoyed with Mrs. Francis Shaw as pianist. The memorable evening was brought to a close with "Auld Lang Syne."

An all time record was set for the Montague rink on Tuesday night when the Prince of Wales Wildcats and the Montague Seniors tangled in an exhibition game with the Wildcats emerging victorious with an 8-6 score. Spectators who had not seen a game for some time were thrilled to see that the boys still possessed the mid season spirit, and they were given everything a hockey game usually connotes, even a fight. The first period opened with fast play on the still smooth ice, and the college squad netted three counters during the 20 minutes of play. The second period started off with things under control, but tempers soon became frayed, and soon there was a general melee in the middle of the ice with fists flying in all directions. As a result of the mixup Nelson was banished to the cooler. In this session during what play there was, Montague netted two counters, while the Wildcats scored one. In the third session, tempers seemed to cool, and the teams began to play hockey. The Montague squad stormed the college net but Roper rose to the occasion, and repelled the attack. However each team scored four goals giving the victory to the college team 8-6. It is usual to close the rink in April with very little ice left, but this winter over a foot of ice had been laid on the rink, and there still remains at least six inches of solid, hard ice. It is reported that plans are being made to have a game on May 1st should the weather be favorable and all are looking forward to it.

Georgetown And Vicinity

The following article is taken from a Bridgeport, Conn., U. S. A., newspaper and will be of interest to Georgetonians and others in the Province. Mr. Herman Lavander of Georgetown is a grand-uncle of the versatile child-star, picture of whom recently appeared in a newsreel at one of the Charlottetown theatres:—Gerard Jennings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jennings of West Rocks Road, who at the tender age of four might already be considered a challenge to Oscar Levant, Gene Kroupa and Xavier Kougat, was one of the star performers who electrified the audience at Bridgeport's Lyric Theatre Damon Runyon Cancer Fund Show Wednesday evening, when his diminutive figure in all the boyishness of a four-year-old, bowed again and again as he acknowledged the plaudits of a rapt audience. It was startled into the reality of his already huge accomplishments, as he alternately went through the roles of his many talents, from a masterly piano performance, including the "Hungarian Rhapsody", "Humoresque", brilliant piano duets with his mother, (who is none other than the former Frances Hayes of Broadway fame, particularly as a premier danseuse in "The Great Waltz") plus a xylophone, drum, tamborine and dance exhibition, in costume; and finally to vie with his versatile musicianship, his rendition of the famous "Gettysburg Address", with inflection and gestures not often even expected from an adult performance. He literally brought down the house with long and tremendous applause. Handsome, precociously brilliant, yet appealing in the preciousness of babyhood recently relinquished, the child is a real prodigy. Norwalkers are proud of an already most "distinguished" citizen, from whom it expects to hear very very much, and for whom is predicted a glowing future. Mrs. Jennings is her son's piano teacher and he has been playing since he was two and one-half years old. His father is with John H. Leonard's real estate insurance and travel bureau and is a graduate engineer.—Geo.

Cabinet Criticised Over Farm Policies

(By The Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, April 28 — Problems confronting Canadian agriculture were aired yesterday in the Commons.

Opposition members charged that Government policies are discouraging food production and preventing farmers from obtaining a fair share of the national income.

Agriculture Minister Gardiner replied that farmers were at least a "little better" off than they had ever been before. He agreed, however, that they are not as well off financially as he would like to see them.

The debate developed as members began their annual study of estimated expenditures for the Agriculture Department. The 1948-49 estimates were set at $41,810,602, compared with $63,178,184 in 1947-48. Mr. Gardiner said the estimates for the current year would be boosted by another $16,000,000 as a result of the Government's recent decision to continue freight assistance on western grain movements until July 31, 1949.

"WISTFUL WIDOW" LOADED WITH LAUGHS, SITUATIONS

Abbott and Costello's rollicking new comedy, "The Wistful Widow of Wagon Gap," will open at the Prince Edward Theatre today.

The picture is one of the popular team's most laugh-packed efforts and has Marjorie Main playing the title role — a widow with seven children who makes romantic passes at Lou Costello.

The story derives from an old Montana law, still on the state's statute books, concerning gun duels. The law provides that a killer be responsible for the family and debts of his victims.

Abbott and Costello are shown as salesmen who come to the western town to peddle housewares, and are forced to take part in chases shootings and a stagecoach holdup.

D. D. Beauchamp and William Bowers wrote the original story, which appeared in Collier's magazine.

There are many riotous routines of the kind that have kept Abbott and Costello one of the screen's favorite comedy teams for many years.

In the supporting cast are George Cleveland as a larcenous old judge, Gordon Jones as a western saloon owner and gunman, and a trio of new faces, including William Ching as a law enforcement official, Audrey Young as a singer and oldest child of Miss Main, and Peter Thompson, Ching's aide.
