A Journalistic Jibe.

Hot criticism of Canadians and Canadian civilization has just been handed out by one of the old country journalists now touring the Dominion under the guidance of the Immigration Department.

The critic is Mr. H. H. Baird, hailing from Belfast, Ireland, where he owns seven papers of large circulation.

In his remarks, Mr. Baird evidently wishes to depart from a custom of joy-riding newspapermen who sometimes are inclined, perhaps, to flatter Canadians with eloquent tributes to the natural scenery of the Dominion.

Mr. Baird hits at what he regards weak spots in ourselves. One of his sharpest attacks is directed against the Canadian husband, of whose virtues he entertains no very lofty opinion.

A British Columbia paper thus summarizes his sentiments on Canadian married life:

"According to Mr. Baird, who had talked with many housewives on the prairies, they were treated to much more harshness by their husbands in Canada than in England and Ireland. The average Canadian was surly and uncivil, and not inclined to give any information, and when a young Englishman has lived here several years, he easily and rapidly fell into the ways of the Canadian, and treated womenkind and men with the same measure of surliness as his Canadian confere."

The Beaver.

The beaver is really a sort of portable pulp mill, grinding up almost any kind of wood that comes his way, says a writer. I once measured a white birch tree twenty-two inches through cut down by a beaver. A single beaver generally, if not always, amputates the tree, and when it comes down the whole family fall to and have a regular frolic with the bark and branches. A big beaver will bring down a fair-sized sapling—say three inches through—in about two minutes and a large tree in about an hour.

Enterprising Climbers.

A. L. Mumm, mountain climber, and his companion, Dr. N. Collic, have been at it again. Mount Robson, in the Rocky Mountains, was this time the scene of their upward plodding.

Their field glasses revealed some extraordinary features. They encountered two of the largest glaciers ever seen in the Rockies, one of which was fifty miles long and eight miles across. They took observations of a peak even loftier than Robson, which itself is 13,700 feet above sea level.

SUREST TONIC IN THE WORLD IS "FRUIT-A-TIVES" THE GREAT FRUIT MEDICINE

Like fruit juice, "Fruit-a-tives" acts on the great blood purifying organs of the body—namely the liver, bowels, kidneys and skin, and stimulates all these parts to increased activity. The splendid nerve tonics and intestinal antiseptics, combined with the intensified fruit juices, make "Fruit-a-tives" the finest of nerve tonics.

On the stomach, "Fruit-a-tives" acts as a soothing tonic and allays all irritation. By purifying the blood—strengthening the nervous system and regulating kidneys, bowels and skin—"Fruit-a-tives" builds up the whole system as nothing else will.

"Fruit-a-tives" is a really wonderful medicine—being made directly from fresh fruit—and is the intensified juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit. It is mild in action—pleasant to take—and is a tonic of inestimable value. 50c. a box, 5 for $2.50, or trial size, 25c. At all dealers, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Modernizing Province of Quebec.

Events, which have lately transpired, seem to indicate that there is a plot on foot to modernize the Province of Quebec. For instance, just this fall, Quebec enrolled her first law student. At McGill University Mrs. A. Langstaff takes her seat among the acute young men who until now have monopolized the law course. Mrs. Langstaff, in her legal ambitions, undertakes an unusual role. She is the first woman ever to enter upon the study of law in the regular way in the Province of Quebec.

In Quebec there never has been a woman lawyer. At the Bar of other provinces women have pleaded cases. The Ontario Bar has a rather prominent member in the person of Miss Clara Brett Martin, a lady who has enjoyed political distinction on the Toronto Board of Education.

Mrs. Langstaff is not a Quebecer. She is a native of Prescott, Ont. Five years she has been plugging at the law in the Montreal office of Jacobs, Hall & Garneau.

Faddist this courageous lady is not. She is not studying law for her health. But though not a woman's rights champion, Mrs. Langstaff's legal ambitions may gain her a place upon the scroll of fame; for, after she graduates from McGill, Mrs. Langstaff's first professional problem will be to reverse the ancient legislation in Quebec, which excludes woman from the avenue of the law as a road to a livelihood.
