—TOWNSEND-LINKLETTER.—A wedding which has been looked forward to with much interest was solemnized last Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Linkletter, Central Street, Summerside, when their eldest daughter, Amy Wilma was united in marriage to James Claude Townsend, of Saskatoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Fraser, minister of Trinity United Church in the presence of a large number of friends. The bridal party stood under an arch artistically made up of autumn leaves, ferns and Rowan leaves. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of powder blue georgette, with crystal bead trimming, and carried an arm bouquet of roses and maiden hair fern with a sprig of Scottish white heather—for luck. Miss Irene Linkletter as bridesmaid wore peach crepe de chine while Miss Zilpha Linkletter and Miss Margaret Townsend, sisters of the bride and groom respectively, were very charming little flower girls. Mr. Frank Townsend, brother of the groom, was best man. Miss Jean Gordon was the pianist and played the wedding march, and during the signing of the registrar, Miss Helen McKay, sang "Because" very sweetly, after a buffet luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Townsend motored to Borden where they entrained for Montreal and Toronto. On their wedding trip they will visit Niagara Falls, Detroit, Chicago, and other American cities, after which they will go to their new home in Saskatoon. For travelling the bride wore a dress of fawn and blue taffeta, wool her coat was fawn Swede cloth with racoon trimming and hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid, a bracelet, and to each of the flower girls, the pianist and best man, appropriate gifts. The bride was one of the most popular girls in Summerside, after gradu-

Everything was in readiness for the marriage ceremony, and both groom and best man had arrived at the church in plenty of time. The former however, was uneasy. "What's worryin' ye, Tamson?" asked the best man, tiptoeing up the aisle. "Ha'e ye lost the ring?" The other gazed at his friend's immaculate attire and general air of bachelordom. Then he heaved a woeful sigh. "Na", he answered rather depondently; "the ring's safe enough, receive news items, advertising, news and renewal subscriptions." London Answers.
