THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

C. H. S. Sterns, Souris, is in the City.

The schooner Victoria bound from this province to New York, left at Vineyard Haven, and Saunders-town, Mass., on the twenty-first.

The plan for Christopher Jr., opens this morning at 10 o'clock in aid of the Anti-Tuberculosis.

Miss Maud Callaghan, City, is spending her vacation at Emerald the guest of Mrs James McKenna.

L. M. Ferguson of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Telegraph Co. is spending his holidays at the home of his mother in French River, New London.

There were no cases before the Police Court in this city yesterday.

C. L. and Mrs Grant, City, were passengers returning to this city yesterday on the Earl Grey.

Harold Smith, Alberton, is spending a few well earned holidays at his home in North Rustico.

Miss Sadie M. Wyand, Mayfield, is visiting friends in this city and North River.

Anyone with horses for sale should look up the ad of Thos Robinson which appears in this issue.

A rule nisi for a new trial in the case of Dr Gallant vs Dr McKenna was refused yesterday.

Mrs Harry D. Lowther, North Carleton, has returned home after spending a few days with her parents at James and Mrs Laird, Cavendish.

Everyone should attend the lecture in the basement of the Cathedral to-night and hear the opening chorus by the College boys and also Miss Lucy Blanchard in song.

L. J. Miller, Charlottetown, has contributed to the Toronto Globe a lengthy and finely illustrated article on "Fishing for the seductive Malpeque."

Owing to the big Saturday Guardian, and the large number of advertisements therefor, it is necessary that all "changes" of matter reach this office not later than ten a.m. Friday, to insure insertion in the next following issue.

The Rev H. Rice, Hampton, preached at Titusville, next Sunday morning and the Rev Geo Howard, pastor of the Hampton Station Baptist church, takes the service in the Methodist church here.—St John Telegraph.

Masters Malcolm Irwin and Ronald Stewart, City, are the owners of a fast and well-built ice-boat, constructed by their own hands. The boat was given a try-out the other day and proved to be a speedy one. The boys are to be congratulated on their workmanship.

Dr John H. Elliot has been laboring in Rockland, Me., with remarkable success. He is accompanied by Mr Natzger and late papers from that State report at length the different services, and tell of the crowded meetings and the wonderful effect the Doctor's sermons are having upon the people there.

Yesterday the Guardian received a small box through the mail which contained a perfectly healthy caterpillar. It was sent by Miss Florrie Arling who stated that she had found it on Monday last on the Railway track. Caterpillars in large numbers are generally to be found after such prolonged mild weather as this province has been treated to lately.

Yesterday city dealers were paying from twenty-three to twenty-eight cents a lb for butter and from twenty-five to twenty-six cents a doz for eggs. No quotations were to be had in produce or pork, as owing to impassable roads, none reached the City. The retail market price on butter was twenty-four to twenty-six cents per pound and for eggs twenty-eight to thirty cents per dozen.

Premier Hazard, City, returned on the Earl Grey yesterday morning from Ottawa. He stated that the work of the Conservation Commission at the recent session consisted mainly in the reading and discussion of papers on important subjects, and in the appointment of committees. These committees will report on their work at the next meeting of the Commission which will be held in June next.

The Scotch celebration at New Wonderland last night was simply grand. The motion picture for the occasion "Sandy the Poacher" was realistic redolent of the old land of the heather, the rest of the pictures were fully as interesting. J. Austin Trainor, always a favorite, and always warmly welcomed, received a perfect ovation in his impersonation of Harry Lander and in his rendering of "I Love a Lassie." Recall after recall was given him, until he simply could not respond and he has added another to the many laurels already won, of being one of the cleverest entertainers and one to be proud of anywhere.

The Charlottetown Concert Co., comprising the Messrs Blanchard, Stover, Mellish, Prof. Earle, Messrs. Ritchie, Hooper, Ives and other good talent, will give a concert in Georgetown Hall, Feb. 8th. Full particulars later. 1-25d31.

Entire change of program at Bijou tonight. 1-26d11

Lady Davies, Ottawa, gave a house-ance for young people last week.

Will Sentiner, Hunter River, spent Sunday in Rustico the guest of Jas. Snowie.

W. E. Calbeck, of Tryon spent Sunday in Hunter River the guest of John and Mrs Waye.

John McMillan, Asst. Station agent at Kensington spent the past week at his home in Hunter River.

Frank Pooley, Hunter River, who had his ankle badly fractured is able to be about again to resume his duties in the Grist Mill.

The many friends of John Waye, B. A., Hunter River, will be pleased to learn that he is slowly improving after his severe illness.

The many friends of Theo Wood, teacher of Hunter River are pleased to see him out again after a slight attack of LaGrippe.

Rev Jas McDougall will preach on Sabbath, the 30th, at Canoe Cove at 9.30, DeSable at 3 and Hampton at 7.

The schooner Protector, from Carleton Place, P. E. I., bound south passed City Island on the twenty-first instant.

Everybody is looking forward to the grand concert in Hunter River which is to come off in the near future.

J. A. Matthews, City, has kindly consented to nominate as a candidate for Ward Five at the coming civic elections. His card appears elsewhere.

Many who have already purchased editions of the late Dr Dobson's sermons speak of them most highly. A few copies are still for sale at the bookstores.

The highest temperature recorded yesterday was thirty-four degrees above zero and the coldest was thirty-two above up till nine p. m. The lowest recorded the previous night was thirty-four above.

Mrs W. E. Bagnall, Ottawa, well known here, gave a very large tea on Wednesday afternoon last and on Thursday afternoon and evening Miss Bagnall entertained at bridge parties.

Among those who came to the city on the special from Vernon last evening to attend the Burn's Concert were: Amos McLeod, John McLeod, John Gillis, Duncan McDonald, Ernest McLeod, Arthur Gillis, William J. Gillis, all of Orwell Cove.

The Earl Grey returned to this port yesterday morning bringing over fifty-five passengers and one hundred and twenty bags of mail. No difficulty was encountered on the way, the trip being made in four hours and fifteen minutes. The cargo included three carloads of way freight and a car of building materials for Rhodes Curry Co., City. The Earl Grey will leave this morning at seven thirty for Pictou. The Minto crossed to Pictou yesterday arriving there at ten fifteen, taking over twenty passengers and thirty bags of mail.
