to a chair, she herself caught up the well-frosted shaker and poured two bubble-thin glasses, offering one to Ann, retaining the other as she sank into a deeply cushioned green and white chair.

growing more and more puzzled, even that for a second Ann did not realize what she was saying. It was evident that Julie was not quite the same as she had been laboring under some suppressed thing. "So you might as well begin excitement; her eyes were fever-thinking of a good, face-saving really bright and behind the deft son for announcing the breaking of make-up her face was unhealthy the engagement."

Ann put down her cocktail glass on the glass-topped coffee table in her chair, one hand dropping and said gently: "I think you'll down to the cushion beside her, the have to explain that, Julie." "Oh I intend to! That's why what's all this bright gossip I hear asked you out here," said Julie about Ann. "You and Lyn Frazier and now that she had broached the subject, she spoke freely, although the formal announcement has been made and the date set—so it's scarcely-bright gossip, Ann answered her quietly.

Coleman

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wallace are spending their vacation at the home of his brother, Mr. G.R. Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are home from Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Margaret MacLean of Berlin, New Hampshire, is now visiting the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. Charles MacLean. Instead of the home-coming of Mrs. MacLean being happy as of other years, it was sad. There was a very dear member missed. Mr. MacLean's wife, who was a sister of Mrs. Margaret MacLean's died in May.

Coleman Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Whittton on Wednesday evening, August 6, with eight members present. There were no visitors. Ways were discussed for making money to pay for the painting of the school in Coleman. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Chester Getton. After all reports were handed in, the meeting was quietly closed.

ELMSDALE & VICINITY

Mrs. McGill, nee Miss Ida Barnett, of Montreal, is spending the summer months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Barnett.

Friends are welcoming Mrs. Lakin in our midst for her annual vacation. Mrs. Lakin and party motored from "The States" recently.

His many friends regret to learn that Mr. Frank I. McKenna suffered a painful injury to his knee recently, and all hope for his speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward O'Holloran of Dartmouth, N.S., are spending their holidays very pleasantly with relatives and friends in Campbellton, Elmsdale, and other parts of Prince County.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brennan, Pook Road, have as their guests their daughter, Mrs. Frank Crow, and granddaughters, Anna and Audrey, of Natik, Mass. Mr. Crow is expected to join his family here next week.

Mr. Peter O'Brien of Roslinville, Mass., has arrived in the Garden of the Gulf to spend his vacation with relatives in Elmsdale and Tngish. He called at Grand River where Mrs. O'Brien and daughter, Anne Marie, are spending their holidays, having come earlier in the summer. Mrs. Morrison was formerly from Grand River where she was Miss Matzie Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Matthews arrived recently from the U. S. A. to visit relatives here. They were accompanied by Mrs. Greenough, (nee Mary Matthews) and daughter, who will visit with her sisters, Mrs. Hugh Williams and Mrs. Stirling Matthews, and her brother, Mr. Arthur Matthews of Alberton.

The Misses Beatrice, Lois, Marion and Angela O'Brien of Toronto arrived last week to spend their holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. O'Brien. It is pleasant to note that Miss Lois, who had been the victim in a motor cycle accident in April, in Toronto, has completely recovered and apparently is none the worse for her mishap.

The Elmsdale Women's Institute held its August meeting on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Lottie Forsythe. In the absence of the president, Mrs. James O'Brien occupied the chair. Meeting opened with the reading of the Creed, followed by the Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by sixteen members and nine visitors were present. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Reports from committees were heard and bills incurred ordered paid. It was decided at this meeting, in response to an appeal from the Red Cross, that the secretary procure materials from the Red Cross in sufficient quantity so that each member and some non-members would make up at least one finished article each to be sent to the needy children of Britain and Europe. It was decided to invite our Campy, and Mr. Frank Dunn invited the committee to her home to make the books. The committee in charge are: Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. George Murray, Mrs. Corry and Mrs. James O'Brien. A motion carried that we pay Mrs. Lloyd Adams the sum of five dollars for looking the nursery over. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge, assisted by the hostess, Mrs. Fraser Rix Kind.
