"Tune In"

By G. A. K.

I know a certain neighbor,
Who, until a month ago,
Had never told a falsehood—
Then he took up Radio.

Now with Singapore he chatters—
Every night, to hear him say;
And stations in Calcutta
Call him almost every day.

He even heard a concert—
Sung in Celtic from Thiber
When I told him I had listened
To Miami with my set.

"Why, man alive!" he chortled,
That's a piker dump for true;
Last night I talked to Dublin—
Old Kilkenny Castle, too.

"Vienna spoke me early,
London said they had a fog,
Paris' boulevards were crowded,
Vamps were puttin' on the dog.

"Berlin said the riots
In Mulchenhausen Square
Were making markets nervous—
Even marks were in the air."

He mentioned other stations—
Constantinople and Cairo—
He who never told a white fib
Till he took up Radio.

By William Harvey Bradfield.

There is a mistaken idea abroad, that radio reception is not up to the usual standard in summer, notwithstanding the experience of countless fans to the contrary. As a matter of fact, summer reception, with the exception of the few evenings in which a thunder storm is in progress, is not affected by summer weather to the extent that it is supposed to be and any weakness in signals is obtained by the fact that the engineers in charge of the broadcasting stations increase their power simply to overcome this difficulty. Some of the most apparent reasons why radio can be utilized for the pleasure of the family during the vacation are, that portable sets (and most sets are easily moved) can be taken to the summer cottage where the dance programs, current news, operas, etc., would be even more welcome than they were during the winter. Then there is the matter of the church services, which now that we have a regular broadcasting service, are bound to be of great credit to radio owners this coming summer.

Many of us who listen in to the plays broadcast from station WGY Schenectady, may not be aware of the fact, that Mr. Frank Oliver, a former Charlottetown boy and his brother-in-law, Mr. Courland Hopkins, also very well-known here, are both members of the WGY players. In a recent radio publication, in which a group photograph of this Company appeared, they were very easily recognized.

Strange as it may seem, on some practically "silent" nights, the radio station at Havana, Cuba is the only one which is received with any degree of volume in Charlottetown. This station broadcasts a high-class program with an interesting mingling of Spanish and English speech, that is rather interesting, if not always intelligible.

Who has not received a thrill, when in the midst of a program, the announcer suddenly breaks in, with the words, "we are standing by for S.O.S. distress signals?" In the enjoyment of the broadcast programs, one is apt to forget the greatest of all uses of radio, that of locating sinking ships on the high seas, and the immense saving of human lives, for which radio is responsible.

By the way, don't those announcers "voices in the night" as they are sometimes so aptly called, excite one's curiosity? That so much personality can be injected into a mere voice, is one of the many wonderful things about radio.

Philathea Concert

An excellent and enjoyable concert was held in the Sunday School Room of the Charlottetown Baptist Church last evening. All who performed were artists in their line and the loud applause which greeted each number showed the hearty appreciation of the audience. Those who accompanied the performers on the piano were Mrs. Gordon Baker of Summerside, Miss Lilian Earle, Professor Hiram Ball and Prof. Tanton while Miss Beatrice Judson who is a pupil of Miss Stultz played the violin in the final chorus. It is evident that Charlottetown will soon have another star in this talented young lady.

The Philatheas wish to thank all who assisted so acceptably in this very successful entertainment. Following is the program: Piano duet—Liz Carleton, by Leon Ringuet—Misses Watson and Sterns

Solo—"The Brook"—Mrs. Leigh Warren
Reading—"National Characteristic"—Dr. Green
Violin selection—"Meditation"—Miss Stultz

Solo—"Thank God for a Garden"—Mrs. Frances Holl Tranor

"We have used Dry Yeast for the past six months and our foxes have never been in better condition."

Makes Foxes healthy—Keeps them so

WHEN a fox is run down, lacks appetite, or is actually sick, the cause can usually be traced to digestive trouble.

Skin diseases, constipation, paralysis, malnutrition, and other common ailments are due to this one thing—improper digestion.

That is why fox breeders everywhere are now adding a small amount of Fleischmann's Pure Dry Yeast to the regular feed they give their foxes. Yeast acts on the food in a way much like digestion itself—prepares it for quick absorption—then the animal's system can digest and assimilate it easily and completely. New health and vitality are reflected in turn in a remarkable lustre and evenness of fur.

Test for yourself the amazing results of Fleischmann's Pure Dry Yeast—you can get it right here in town. Ask for a free booklet—and get a package today. It will boost your profits too!
