How Many Objects in This Picture Begin With the Letter "C"

The above picture contains a number of objects beginning with the letter "C". Just take a good look at it—there are all sorts of "C" words. Nothing is hidden; it isn't necessary to turn the picture upside down. Make a list of all the visible objects in the picture, the names of which begin with the letter "C". You can easily see such objects as "car", "cow" and "chickens." The others are just as easy. Have the whole family join in—see who can find the most. Fifteen cash prizes will be awarded for the 15 best lists submitted. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of visible objects shown in this picture starting with the letter "C" will be awarded first prize; second best, second prize, etc.

JOIN IN THE FUN

This Picture Puzzle Game is the most profitable and educational game known and can be enjoyed by everybody—young and old alike. Fathers and mothers, uncles, aunts, grandmothers and grandfathers all join in with the children in playing this game. It's a game that's equally interesting to all. You're not too old and it's not too easy for you. You'll find that out after you tried it for a few minutes. In fact you are apt to be surprised to find the children spotting "C" word objects much easier than you do. It's a delightful game—a carnival of fun. The fun comes when a number are playing and you are trying to see who can find the most. Now remember, no one is too old—it's a game for everyone—for it makes no difference whether you are seven or seventy, you can enjoy this game. Here's a chance for you to earn $1750. Miss Corbin, of Dartmouth, won $1000 and Mr. C. L. Baker, Kenville, N. S., won $1500 in our previous word puzzles. It's interesting, educating and fascinating. Nothing hard—a little effort, that's all. Look it over, talk it over and then you get out your pencil and paper and have the time of your life.

Open to All—Costs Nothing to Try

The Morning Chronicle and The Evening Echo invites you, Mr. and Mrs. Reader and family, and all your friends, to join in this puzzle game. It doesn't make a speck at all difference how old or how young you are. Here's your chance for some great fun. Wait until you have tried it and you'll say it's "GREAT!". The more fun you have had in a long time. Write down the "C" words you have in mind right NOW! Then study the picture for more and when your list is made up send it to The Chronicle Publishing Co. Ltd., "Puzzle Manager" and try for the big cash prizes.

OBSERVE THE RULES

- 1. Any man, woman, girl or boy, residing in the Maritime Provinces, who is not an employee of the Halifax Morning Chronicle or Evening Echo, or a member of an employer's family may submit an answer. 2. All answers must be mailed by May 24th, 1924. 3. All subscriptions must be in by May 31st, 1924. 4. Answers must be written alphabetically on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively 1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address in each case in the upper right hand corner. 5. Only words found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Do not use hyphenated, compound or obsolete words. Use either the singular or plural, but where the plural is used the singular cannot be counted and vice versa. 6. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, however any part of the object may also be named. 7. The answer having the largest and nearest correct list of names of visible objects shown in the picture that begin with the letter "C" will be awarded first prize. Nearest style or handwriting having no bearing upon deciding the winners. 8. Candidates may not cooperate in preparing the puzzle and only one prize will be awarded to more than one household; nor will prizes be awarded to more than one family group outside the family, where two or more have been working together. 9. All answers will receive the same consideration regardless of whether or not a subscription for either, The Morning Chronicle or Evening Echo is sent in. 10. There will be three independent judges, having no connection with The Morning Chronicle or Evening Echo who will judge the answers submitted and award the prizes at the end of the puzzle game and participants by sending in their list, agree to accept the decision of the judges as final and conclusive. 11. The judges will meet on June 12th, 1924, and the names of the prize winners and correct list of words will be published in both The Morning Chronicle and The Evening Echo as quickly thereafter as possible. 12. Subscription (both new or renewal) by mail or carrier will be accepted. However, in qualifying for the Big $1750.00 Prize at least one NEW subscription must be sent in. A new subscriber is one who has not been receiving The Morning Chronicle or The Evening Echo since April 15, 1924. 13. No subscription for less than the regular advertised rates of The Morning Chronicle and The Evening Echo will be accepted to count in the Puzzle Game. No commission allowed to agents.

You Can Win $1750

Easy to Win—Here's the Way It costs nothing to take part and you don't have to send in a single subscription to win a prize. If your list of "C" words is awarded FIRST PRIZE by the judges, you will win $1750, but if you would like to win more than $1500 we are making the following special offer, whereby you can win bigger cash prizes by sending in yearly subscriptions with remittance in cover, to either The Morning Chronicle or The Evening Echo, Halifax, Nova Scotia. This is the plan: Should the judges award your answer to the "C" word picture puzzle first prize, and you have sent in NO subscriptions to either The Morning Chronicle or The Evening Echo, you will win $1500. (See first column in prize list.) If your answer is awarded FIRST PRIZE by the judges and you have sent in ONE yearly subscription to The Morning Chronicle (new or renewal), you will win $5000. (See second column in prize list.) Or, if your answer is awarded FIRST PRIZE by the judges and you have sent in TWO yearly subscriptions to The Morning Chronicle (two new or ONE new and ONE renewal), you will receive $15,000 instead of $1500. We will give extra amounts on all prizes in the same manner. If your answer is qualified by TWO yearly subscriptions (ONE new and ONE renewal) and you win second prize, you will receive $7500, and so on down. (See third column in prize list.)

Subscription Rates—Payable in Advance

Table with columns for 'By Carrier in Halifax or Dartmouth' and 'By Mail'. Rates for The Morning Chronicle and The Evening Echo for one year and two years.

This offer applies to rural route patrons, as well as subscribers in cities and towns. If you are already receiving The Halifax Chronicle or The Evening Echo, your subscription will be extended from its present expiration. Send in a NEW subscription with your renewal, or two new subscriptions, and qualify for the big prize. This is an easy way to earn $17500.00.
