IN MEMORIAM
FLORENCE ANN MYERS

On the thirteenth of last month there passed away at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Harold Huggen, Cherry Valley Florence Ann Myers, six months old daughter of Clifford Myers and the late Mrs. Myers, Mount Albion. The latter dying at the P. E. Island hospital a few weeks after little Florence was born, the infant was taken by her aunt, Mrs. Huggen who lavished on it the wealth of a loving mother's tender nursing and care. But that dread disease, double pneumonia came, and sweet, pretty and lovable Florence Ann was called to go up yonder, and join her dear mother in the glorious Paradise of God.

THE LATE MRS. HANNAH REID

After 25 years of suffering Mrs. Hannah Reid, wife of David Reid of Montague, P. E. I., passed away to eternal peace on Monday evening, May 19th, at her home on Queens Road. Mrs. Reid was the daughter of the late Stephen and Annie Squires of Clyde River and was born 58 years ago. During her long illness and in the midst of much pain, she manifested a wonderful courage and faith, and even her suffering never destroyed her cheerful spirit or marred her hospitable nature. She was always ready with a smile and a word of welcome for all who called upon her, and one always came away after visiting her feeling that she had shown a great example in bearing the cross.

She leaves to mourn her loss a devoted husband, a son Samuel, at home and two daughters, Sadie, Mrs. Charles Walker, Alberry Plains, P. E. I. and Emma, Mrs. Arthur Sanderson, Greenwich, P. E. I., also two brothers, William Squires, Charlottetown, and Frederick Squires, Halifax, N. S., and one sister, Mrs. W. A. Hawbolt, Bristol, P. E. I. Sharing in their sorrow are the following stepsons and stepdaughters, Edwin Reid, Rollo Bay, P. E. I., Alex Reid, Los Angeles, Cal., Gavin Reid, Victoria Cross, P. E. I., Sinclair Reid, Fredericton, N. B., and Margaret, Mrs. Charles E. Smith, Terry, New Hampshire, Frances, Mrs. Ed. A. Hickson, Atlantic City, Beth, Mrs. Wiseman, Boston, Lydia, Reid, Edinawick, Maine.

Much loved by her daughter in law, Mrs. Samuel Reid, who, together with Mrs. Hawbolt, nursed her during the last weeks of her illness, also by her daughter Sadie, who unfortunately was confined at the hospital at the time of her mother's death.

The funeral service was held from the home and conducted by her minister, Rev. T. Owen Hughes on Tuesday, May 18th, at 10 o'clock. The interment took place at Union Road Cemetery on Wednesday, May 19th. The large gathering on this occasion testified to the high esteem in which Mrs. Reid was held and expressed the deepest sympathy with the bereaved husband and family.

SISTER SERIOUSLY INJURED
—Mrs. James Irving went over to Charlottetown Saturday to see her sister who is ill in the hospital there. Her mother coming from her home to meet her there fell fracturing her hip and is also a patient in the hospital. Her injuries are quite serious.—New Glasgow News.

MAKING RECOVERY — Captain James A. McDonald of Oakland, master of the freighter J. L. Luekenbach, who was stricken suddenly just after docking his vessel in Boston harbor some weeks ago, is improving in health, according to word received from the Marine Hospital in the eastern city. His condition at first was critical, says the Oakland Maple Leaf.—Two years ago his brother, Donald McDonald, commanding the same ship, was fatally stricken on board the vessel in Seattle. Captain J. A. McDonald and his late brother were natives of Georgetown, Prince Edward Island. His home is at 540 Wesley avenue, Oakland, where he lives with his wife, Mrs. Ellen McDonald, and his daughter Miss Florence McDonald.

FORMER RESIDENT — Mrs. Gerald Strong who has been a patient for six weeks in the Hospital at St. John, N. B., arrived home Wednesday afternoon via Digby. While in St. John, Mrs. Strong has been under the care of her brother-in-law, Dr. George M. White who is motorizing with Mrs. White to Windsor on Saturday to spend the week end with Mrs. Strong. Before leaving home they will be joined by Mrs. White's sister, Mrs. Melvor Smith, formerly Miss Elsie Bissett, who came to Windsor for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Strong. On Monday Dr. White will proceed to Halifax to act in his official capacity as one of the Examiners on the staff of the Dominion Medical Council. —Windsor Tribune.

HAMILTON WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Mrs. Everett Ramsay entertained the members of the Hamilton W. I. at her home on Wednesday evening May 19th.

The President occupied the chair during the business period. Meeting opened by singing "The Institute Ode" followed by repeating the Creed in Unison.

After the adoption of last month's minutes, the Roll was called and answered by fourteen members.

It was decided to leave the matter of canvassing for the Red Cross to the school children.

The treasurer reported that proceeds from the Variety concert amounted to $32.13 also that $16.40 was amount received from presentation of the Indian River Play staged in Hamilton Hall.

A vote of thanks was extended to all those who helped make the concert such a success.

The hall committee reported placing new gas lights in the hall.

New committees were then appointed for a period of three months. Sick, Mrs. Ray Lockerby and Mrs. Leslie Ramsay. School, Barbara Woodside and Mrs. Winfred Ramsay. Entertainment, Mrs. Major Taylor and Ina Phillips.

Annie Phillips invited the members to her home for the June meeting. Roll call to be answered with "What women dislike most in Men."

After the program, a dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Charles Stewart and Mrs. John Simpson.

The National Anthem closed the meeting.

ST. IGNATIUS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The regular monthly meeting of the St. Ignatius W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Gallant, Mayfield, on Tuesday, May 18th, with twelve members present. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and Creed. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. Roll call was answered with a joke. School committee reported that a flag had been bought and put up at the school on Coronation Day. The sick committee reported that fruit had been brought to two sick persons in the district. The following new committees were appointed: School, Mrs. Robert Gallant and Mrs. Jeremiah Peters. Sick, Mrs. Gilbert Richards and Miss Alma Dolron. Program, Mrs. J. M. Edgar Dolron. Mrs. Earl Gallant and Miss Lucy Gallant. Lunch, Mrs. Robert Arsenault, Mrs. Earl Gallant, Mrs. Peter Gauthier, Miss Lucy Gallant and Mrs. Dornice Pineau. Mrs. Earl Gallant and Mrs. Jeremiah Peters gave a report of the meeting at New Glasgow re-district convention. The program consisted of songs and two recitations. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Arsenault. Meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Seminole Indian Makes Living Putting Head in Perilous Spot

Yeholee Osceola probably has other places to put his head, but for carnival crowds at Alexandria, Va., the Seminole Indian chose the mouth of an alligator, as shown above. He did hold the 'gator's jaws rather carefully as he showed the crowd tricks his Florida ancestor, learned centuries ago.

MISS HANNAH DODD

In the recent passing of Hannah Dodd, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dodd, Cherry Valley, one of our most highly respected citizens has gone from our midst. Miss Dodd had been in failing health during the last few years of her life. She made her home during those years with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm McRae, Waterside, who did every thing humanly possible to relieve her suffering and make her declining years as comfortable as possible. The deceased was a life-long faithful member of the Church of England, and was honored and respected by all for her many admirable qualities of mind and heart.
