SUPREME COURT—The appeal cases of the King vs. Wilfred Affleck of Mount Stewart and the King vs. Patrick Casey of the 7 Mile Road, were argued before Mr. Justice Saunders at yesterday's sitting of the Supreme Court. The cases were heard jointly, C. St. Clair Trainor appearing for the Crown and J. J. Johnston, K. C. for the appellants. Mr. Johnston asked that they be allowed on the grounds that the seizure took place on July 1st, and according to the summonses the offense was committed sometime "between July 1st and July 15th." This wording, he claimed, would exclude the 1st. of July. The Court agreed and granted the appeal with costs. The court was then adjourned until 11 a. m. Friday when argument will be heard in the case of Wallace Pursey, appellant vs. Joseph MacDonald, respondent. This was an action for damages arising out of a car collision.

The third service of the Week of Prayer was held in Zion Presbyterian Church last evening. The minister, the Reverend G.C. Webster conducted the service assisted by various ministers of the city Churches. The choir led the congregation in worship as they sang the anthem, "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" by Shelley. The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Branch of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held. Mr. William Hogg, the President, presided and gave an encouraging report. The Secretary Treasurer, Mr. James Haslam gave his report and it was gratifying to learn that the offerings this year were considerably larger than those of the previous year.

The election of officers took place with the following result: President—Mr. J. A Haslam, Vice-President, Mr Warren Lord, Sec'y, Mr. J. P. Crockett. Executive: Messrs. M. C. Stewart, W. L Henry, A. MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE LAID—A charge of manslaughter was laid yesterday against Reuben Higgins and Harold Currie Johnston's River in connection with the recent sudden death of James Dunphy of Johnston's River The charge was laid before Magistrate Tweedy. Mr. Dunphy was found dead on his bed by a neighbor on the morning of Dec 22nd. last. He was fully clothed and examination disclosed that he came to his death as a result of a fractured skull. An inquest was held last week and it was learned that Higgins and Currie were the last to be seen with the deceased on the night of Dec. 20th in Charlottetown. Both men claimed that Dunphy had jumped out of the truck, in which they were driving, on the way to the wharf at the foot of Queen Street. According to their evidence they picked the man up and took him home, placing him in bed, where he was later found dead. Both men stated they thought the deceased was only knocked out. The verdict brought in by the jury at the inquest was "that on the night of Dec. 20th, 1939, the deceased came to his death in Charlottetown by a truck passing over his head driven by Harold Currie accompanied by Reuben Higgins, and by negligence in not summoning medical aid."
