"THE TWO MRS. CARROLLS" AT CAPITOL, SUMMERIDE

The Two Mrs. Carrolls, Warner's exciting new mystery melodrama starring Humphrey Bogart, Barbara Stanwyck and Alexis Smith, opened at the Capitol Theatre last night. The film also features a fine cast of supporting players including Nigel Bruce, Isabel Elsom and Pat O'Moore. The screenplay based on the stage success of the same name has been made into a top grade film. It is a suspense-laden story of the terrifying effects of one man's love for two women.

Geoffrey Carrol (Humphrey Bogart), an American artist living and painting in England, falls in love with Sally Morton (Barbara Stanwyck). When she accidentally discovers that he is married, he explains that his wife is an invalid and he is getting a divorce.

First Wife Dies Some two years later, his first

New Ministers For West Prince

The United Church pastors, charges of Alberton, Montrose, Bideford and West Cape in the West Prince district will have new ministers this year. At West Cape the new Minister will be Rev. Blair Colbourne B. A. of Sydney, N. S., one of this year's graduates and who was ordained to the Christian Ministry on Sunday, June 13th. In Sackville, N. B., by the Maritime Conference of the United Church. He will be inducted at the Glenwood Church on July 2nd. by Rev. Roy Vessey of Murray Harbour, chairman of the Prince Edward Island Presbytery assisted by Rev. J. H. MacCallum of York and Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary. Rev. Mr. Colbourne succeeds Rev. H. A. Baghall who has accepted a call to Townsend, Ont.

On July 1st, Rev. John M. Sheen of Shediac, N. B., will be inducted into the Montrose pastoral charge by the above Ministers of Presbytery. Rev. Mr. Sheen succeeds Rev. Ira MacDonald who has accepted a call to Reserve, Cape Breton. He and his wife are former residents of O'Leary and he is a former pastor of the West Cape pastoral charge. Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick of Windsor, N. S., will be stationed at Alberton. He will be inducted about the last of July. He succeeds Rev. J. M. Fraser who left in April for Brooklyn, N. S., where he accepted a new charge. Since April Alberton has been supplied by a veteran Minister of the Gospel, Rev. L. J. Leard of Canning, formerly of Alberton. Rev. Mr. Leard was one of five Ministers honored by the Conference in Sackville on completing fifty (50) years in the Christian Ministry. Rev. Mr. Leard is still hale and hearty. Another Island Minister who was honored on serving 30 years in the Ministry was Rev. A. D. Stirling. Rev. R. H. Baxter of Point de Bute, N. B., will serve on the Bueford pastoral charge succeeding Rev. S. M. MacDowell who has been called to Glassville, N. B. Rev. A. C. Fraser of St. Ann's, Cape Breton will be stationed at Valleyfield, Charlottetown and Winslow were given time to call.—O.

Sally dead, Geoffrey is married to Sally and living with her in an English country house with his eight-year-old daughter Beatrice (Ann Carter). They entertain Charles Fenington (Pat O'Moore), a former suitor of Sally's and two of his clients, Mrs. Latham (Isobel Elsom) and her attractive daughter, Cecily (Alexis Smith). Cecily is attracted to Geoffrey and asks him to paint her portrait. Geoffrey begins being black-mailed by a chemist who sold him poison, shortly before his first wife's death. Distraught with the blackmailer, Geoffrey's problems become worse, when after seeing Cecily quite often they discover that they are in love. She tells Geoffrey that she wants him to go to Rio with her, since she will not continue the clandestine relationship they have been having. Geoffrey consents and sends his daughter off to a boarding school, just as he did prior to his first wife's death.
