

BANKS MEMORIAL TO ITS GLORIOUS DEAD

Sir James Aikins delivering an oration after unveiling of the Union Bank of Canada Memorial.

Commemorating the heroism of 120 officers of the Bank who gave up their lives in the Great War the memorial of the Union Bank of Canada has just been unveiled, at McEwen, to raise from Winnipeg, Sir James Aikins, the Lieutenant-Governor of Manitoba, officiated. Coinciding with the ceremonial W. R. Allan, President of the Union Bank of Canada, gave over the deed to permanent site of the Lakeside Fresh Air Camp for Children as the gift of the Bank; thus "conjoining the memories of the Bank's heroic officers with the highest type of service to humanity."

This memorial is significant as the national recognition of the Union Bank of Canada of its officers' participation in the Great War. The Bank directors in determining the memorial to mark the self sacrifice of its staff, inclined to the view that sacrifice of such a nature should be marked by some corresponding service for the good of humanity and in consequence decided to perpetuate the movement initiated by H. B. Shaw, the Bank's Vice-President and General Manager, in starting a fresh air camp for Winnipeg's needy children. Nearly 1,000 kiddies will be given a holiday at the Association's camp this year.

Six hundred representative persons witnessed the unveiling and took part in the impressive dedicatory services at which His Grace, Archbishop Matheson officiated. Major-General Ketchen, C.B., C.M.G., and staff represented the military.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

SHOP from Holman's Catalogue TO TOUR PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—W. T. Gerald, Mrs. Gerald and family left Saturday morning on an automobile trip through Prince Edward Island. They expect to be back for a couple of weeks, Fredericton, N.B.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND—Rev. D. M. Lamont will preach at Nine Mile Creek on Saturday, July 29th at 7:30 p. m. Canon Cowe, S.S.B. both 20th at 10:30 a. m. and Churchill 2:30 p. m. and at Charlottetown Peoples Church at 7 p. m.

THEY DON'T FORGET—As Bert Bird was standing at the station Saturday, says the Amherst News, watching passengers alight from the train, he heard a voice calling from one of the windows. "Hullo, Bert, don't forget to get your hat." The speaker was, of course, the old comrade across the water, whom he had last seen in the scurrage around Cambria where Bird got his Blythe. Gifts was a 193rd boy, and is now located in P. E. Island. He asked about Bickerton, Murdoch, and a score of more of the other boys and wished to be remembered to them all. The meeting recalled many old memories to the boys and showed that, whatever other may do, the "boys" do not forget.

REMAINS TO ARRIVE TONIGHT—A telegram was received by the Guardian yesterday stating that the remains of the late Mr. Hector A. MacFadyen, formerly of St. Catharines, whose death took place in Toronto should arrive tonight (Wednesday) on the late train. The funeral which is to be held tomorrow (Thursday) will leave his father's residence, St. Catharines at 2 p. m. thence to West River Cemetery.

REPAIRING WHARF—The repair work being done on the Bruce Stewart and Company wharf, is progressing very satisfactorily. The eastern side is now completed, having been repainted and reinforced by crosswise piles. The workmen have already commenced work on the front which will be entirely done over. They will then start on the Western side and expect to finish in a few weeks so that in need of repairs for some time will soon be in a fit condition for the landing of passengers.

SUMMER CAMP AT "NORTH BEDEQUE"—Fine weather and an ideal site are combining to ensure a perfect holiday for the C.G.I.T. girls at Bedeque camp. A land sports officer and a water sports officer supervised the fun, and Miss Myrtle Ross R.N. is in camp all the time, just in case. The "in earnest" part of the programme is in charge of capable group leaders, and Miss Ogden of Sackville, is teaching a class in handicraft. The only day permitted to visitors is Wednesday, July 26th. On that occasion an original programme will be presented and it is hoped many friends and relatives of the girls in camp may make it a point to see for themselves the work that is going on there.

S. S. GASPEZIA—The S. S. Gaspezia, which docked here at 11:30 Monday morning left at midnight Monday for Montreal, via Summerside. This steamer, which plies between Montreal and Charlottetown, has 33 ports of call, the last of which is Summerside. On leaving Montreal this trip she had a list of 50 passengers, 25 of whom carried a large cargo of freight. The greater part being consigned to Charlottetown. On the return trip the Gaspezia will call at Summerside and numerous other ports on the Gaspe and along the St. Lawrence River. This ship, an up-to-date passenger boat in every respect, affords an excellent opportunity to those desiring a short and pleasant vacation and is being taken advantage of by many.

WINE FOR OLD FRIEND.
LONDON, July 25.—Chas. Goddard, of Kensington Park Gardens, W., senior partner in the firm of Messrs. Peacock and Goddard, solicitors, of South Square, Gray's Inn, for some years a member of the Council of the Law Society, who died on May 27, has left a fortune of £59,515. Besides bequests to members of his family he directed:

The executors to purchase six dozen of first-class vintage port wine and to have same delivered within six months of his death to my very good friend and partner, Walter Mantell Woodhouse, in the hope that in consuming it he may often be reminded of the cordial relations that have existed between us for so many years.

He also left £100 each to his clerks, John James Rennie and Frederick John Amery; £50 each to his clerks, Henry George Stockwell and Percy Ernest Perry; £20 each to other clerks who have been in his firm for fifteen years; £10 each to those of eight years; £10 to Mrs. Sudbury, the office house-keeper; and legacies to domestic servants.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WASH YOUR HAIR WITH.
Don't use prepared shampoos for anything else that contains too much alkali, for this is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.
The best thing to use is just plain Mulsified coconut oil shampoo. It is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else out to pieces. You can get Mulsified in any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months. Simply put two or three teaspoonful of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure you get Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

YOUTH'S NERVY TRIP.

HAMMONTON, N. J., July 25.—When a Pennsylvania railroad train from Atlantic City passed through here at high speed last night, there was the motionless form of a man on the front of the engine. When the train stopped at Broad street station, Philadelphia, railroad officials and others were horrified to find a boy 17 years old, lying inert on the front of the locomotive. He was alive, but asleep, and had made the ride, almost seventy miles in this dangerous position, the train sometimes rushing through the darkness of the night at seventy miles an hour. He was Frederick Herbert of Shawnee, Oklahoma, homeward bound without the formality of paying regular rates. The Philadelphia police took the nery lad in tow.

LORD RONALDSHY IN LONDON

LONDON, July 25.—Lord Ronaldshay, lately Governor of Bengal, was the guest last evening of the Central Asian Society at the annual dinner, held at the Imperial Restaurant, under the presidency of Lord Peel.

Lord Ronaldshay said that during his Governorship he had had to deal with two distinct movements aiming at the destruction of British rule in India—the anarchical movement which worked secretly and underground, and the non-violent, non-cooperation movement of Mr. Gandhi. We should be guilty of poor statesmanship in India if we were satisfied merely with quelling disturbances and did not try to understand the underlying causes of such troubles. Indian unrest was a complex thing. It seemed to him that one fundamental thing behind the anarchical and the non-cooperative movements was the revulsion felt by educated Indians against the civilization of the West. The Indian was a contemplative, thoughtful, idealistic person—a spiritual person—and he was desperately afraid that his own distinctive outlook on the universe was going to be crushed out of existence by the successful aggressive, and as he described it, the materialistic civilization that came from the West. That was the root cause of the Indian discontent—the clash of different outlooks on life. The crying need of the day was for India and England to try to understand one another's point of view. So long as we were charged with the duty of governing India, we must unflinchingly compel respect for law and order, but we must endeavor to make it clear that our sole object was the preservation of peace and there was no desire to impose upon the Indian people an outlook upon life than they rejected.

CANADA MAY SUFFER

WASHINGTON, July 25.—According to authorities here, the coal strike unless soon settled, will make it impossible to furnish an adequate coal supply for this winter to New England, the Great Lakes section, and northwestern states, and in addition that parts of Canada will suffer.

This applies especially to those parts of Canada tributary to the Great Lakes, which receive large amounts of coal from the United States. Some experts declare that already so much time has been lost and production so curtailed that it will be impossible, even with the mines running full time through the fall, to mine the quantity needed, and shortage is inevitable.

Grant Fleming, Deputy Medical Officer of Health for Toronto, stated yesterday he did not think these children were suffering from the unknown disease. The condition of wanting or abdominal distention, he said, was not unusual in cases of children violently infected with typhoid milk or food. He thought their symptoms resembled an acute form of sickness common among children in summer.
