SECRET DATE IN MURDER HEARING

SYDNEY, October 18.— The interest following the arrest of Mrs. Atkinson and William Maddin in connection with the Haynes murder case, has almost reached its climax, and the session of the supreme court at which Haynes Steeves and the other two should they be committed, is anxiously awaited by the impatient public.

The prelimenary hearing of Maddin and Mrs. Atkinson was commenced this morning, but was adjourned until next week, owing to an order of the authorities. The exact date and hour of the trial was withheld from the general public in order that the office of Magistrate Hearn should not be overcrowded, and the date of adjournment is likewise being kept secret.

Both sides now muster a formidable array of counsel. D. A. Hearn, the crowd prosecutor, is being assisted by D. A. Cameron, one of the cleverest criminal lawyers in the country. J. V. Maddin, chief counsel for the defence, has associated with him Mayor Gunn and Finlay Macdonald, two of the leading lights of the legal fraternity. Both sides are working hard on the case, and a battle of legal wits will surely take place when the case comes up for trial.

POLICE COURT.— At the Charlottetown Police Court this morning, Neil McKinnon, on a charge of drunkenness was fined $5.00 or ten days.

IN NOVA SCOTIA.— Rev. Mr. Martin, of Winnipeg, a native of Prince Edward Island, who is touring the Provinces in the interest of the Young People's Societies addressed a meeting in St. Matthew's Church Inverness, on Friday next, Oct. 17th A branch of the society has recently been organized in connection with St Matthew's Church, and it is under their auspices that the Rev. gentleman will give this lecture.

IN HALIFAX.—Rev. Dr. Pringle of St. Andrew's Church, Sydney, who has many friends in Charlottetown, was the preacher at both services in Fort Massey, Halifax, last Sunday. In the evening a very large body of students were in attendance, the large church being literally packed to the doors. Dr. Pringle's sermons were much appreciated. The pastor, Rev. R. W. Ross, supplied Dr. Pringle's pulpit in Sydney.

RETURN HOME—Rev. J. B. Cropper, who spoke in Charlottetown some weeks ago, sailed from Halifax for Demerara on Thursday night. Mrs. Lockhart goes by the same boat to meet her husband in Demerara. They have the company of Dr. Edwin Smith and Dr. Burrows as far as Bermuda. Mr. Lockhart is finding the climate in Demerara quite agreeable and the work most inviting. 'Miss Blackadder will return to Tranidad shortly as deaconess.

SUCCESSFUL ISLANDERS.—The many friends of Mr. J. V. Carr, formerly in the employ of Auld Bros., Charlottetown, will be pleased to learn that he has met with success in the west, having accepted a position as bookeeper with the Rumby Products Co. of Regina. The many friends of Mr. A. K. Casfard, formerly of Brackley Point, P. E. I., will be pleased to learn that he has met with success also in the west having secured a position with that well known firm of Potts & Smith, Plumbers and Steamfitters of Regina.

FUNARAL HELD.—The funeral of the late Wm. Henry Furneaux, left his late residence, Gaytown, Tuesday afternoon for Cornwall Cemetery The services were conducted at the house by Rev. Mr. Marshall and at the grave by Rev. Geo. Orman and Rev. E. Bell. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Saml. Frizzle, Robt. Boyle, John Wheatley, S. Drake, Wm. Long and Wm. Boyle. The deceased leaves to mourn his wife, Mrs. Furneaux in this city and one brother, Mr. F. F. Furneaux, J. P., and one sister, both in Newfoundland. The late Mr. Furneaux was well known at West River and Cornwall, where he spent most of his life on the farm and was very successful as a farmer.

WANT THEIR PASTOR.—Not for some time has there been such a stir among church people as has been occasioned by the story that Rev. J. A. Ramsay, of St. Andrew's Church, formerly of P. E. I., has received, or is about to receive a call from a large Presbyterian Church in Truro. The townspeople of all the churches, irrespective of denominations, share the hope of those in the immediate church concerned, that Mr. Ramsay will say nay to the message from the sister town. The reverend gentleman has endeared himself to all, without regard to creed, and it would be a signal loss to have him leave. In fact, the town, just at this juncture, cannot afford to lose Rev. J. A. Ramsay. He has won the young man, and having done that providing he couldn't preach a bit, he has done the most essential church work in a town into which young men are flocking so rapidly. But Mr. Ramsay can preach, and preach eloquently, and that is all the more reason why he should remain here. He has made a place in the society life where the young men went; he has won a place everywhere he has gone among us. Withal he is one of the most modest and unassuming of gentlemen. We sincerely trust New Glasgow and the old Kirk will be favored with his continued labors. Every effort should be made to retain him. We believe this is his vineyard, says the New Glasgow Chronicle.

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL.— A special passenger train will be run on Thanksgiving Day, October 20th, 1913, from Charlottetown to Murray Harbor direct connecting with No. 18 at Lake Verde, returning will run around the loop. Train to leave here at 8 o'clock, a. m. and returning leave Murray Harbor at 4 o'clock, p. m. 2108.

(From Saturday's Evening Guardian)

PRAISE WORK.—The trustees of St. Andrew's Church, St. John, at a meeting Thursday evening, passed the following resolution: Whereas; the Reverend Leander G. Macneill, for seventeen years the beloved pastor of St. Andrew's Church in the city of St. John, in the province of New Brunswick, departed this life on the 14th day of October, the twenty-seventh anniversary of his induction into the pastorate of the said church, and Whereas, during the many years of his pastorate, from which position he retired in A. D. 1903 on account of physical infirmity, he ever gave his best efforts to the promotion of the cause of Christ in this community, and Whereas, during his long pastorate, by his strong, manly and courageous conduct, his ready sympathy with those in distress, his faithful attention to the onerous duties devolving upon him, and by his vigorous efforts for the cause of righteousness in this city, he greatly endeared himself, not only to the members of his congregation, but also to the greater portion of the community at large. Resolved, that we, the trustees of St. Andrew's Church, in special session assembled, do hereby record our sense of the great loss sustained both by St. Andrew's Church and by the city of St. John, by the death of Mr. Macneill, and extend to Mrs. Macneill and the other members of his family our assurance of our deepest sympathy for them in this, the sad hour of their bereavement, and Further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family and that they be placed on record in the Minute Book of this church.

U. B. W. M. U. MEETING. —The U. B. W. M. U., resumed its session Thursday morning at St. Stephen, N. B., with the president, Mrs. Hutchinson, in the chair. After devotional excercises, the report of the home mission committee was taken up. Mrs. Manning, speaking for the superintendent, who was unable to be present, spoke of two districts in the Maritime Provinces that have no clergymen of any denomination, and emphasised the need of training young people to be interested in the home work as well as in foreign missions. Mrs. Parsons, of Ottawa, thought it hard to interest the older women in new phases of the work. The right plan was to interest the children in the heathen at our own doors. The reports of missions band supertendents for New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island were then taken up and separately discussed and adopted. Mrs. McIntyre reported for New Brunswick the best year's work yet done; Mrs. Foster, for Nova Scotia, reported personally work in Queens, Shelburne, Yarmouth and Lunenburg counties with gratifying results, and Miss Wadman, Charlottetown, presented the report for P. E. Island. The number of baby bands in the latter province has doubled during the year. The executive recommended a reorganization of the baby band and a new constitution is to be adopted. One delegate enlivened the discussion by reporting the addition to one band of a quartette of babies, whose names are Faith, Hope, Charity and Livingstone. The following officers of the Union were re-elected by unanimous vote: Mrs. Hutchinson of St. John, president; Miss Clara Fullerton, recording secretary; Mrs. G. B. Smith, Amherst, treasurer (this being the twenty-sixth time she has been chosen for the officer); and Miss Elizabeth Gillespie, treasurer of Mission Band.

Farms For Sale

The two farm properties of the late Thomas Glover, Summerside, are now offered for sale.

The homestead contains 38 acres with orchard, all necessary farm-buildings and large dwelling which is in first class condition and hard to equal, with shore frontage.

Also 50 acres west of McEwen Road, almost opposite the Peoples' Cemetary running north with hay barn on same, about 50 chains from house.

These two properties are in the highest state of cultivation, very conveniently situated for a dairy or vegetable farm as it is only a few minutes walk to centre of town. This is a rare opportunity to secure such a valuable property which can be inspected any time.
