BISHOP LAFLECHE DEAD.

Venerable Dean of R.C. Episcopacy in Canada.

THREE RIVERS, Que., July 14.—(Special)—Bishop Lafleche, dean of the R.C. Episcopacy of Canada, died today. He was 80 years old.

The home of Mrs. Donald McFarlane, Sea Cow Head, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last Wednesday evening when her daughter, Miss Annie McFarlane and Mr. Rufus Bagnall, General Bedeau, were united in marriage by Rev. R. S. Whidden. The bride was handsomely attired in green and white with white silk and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss Katie McFarlane, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and was nicely dressed in pink and white and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Pansie McFarlane acted as maid of honor and was becomingly dressed in white with blue trimmings and carried a bouquet of forget-me-nots. The groom was supported by Mr. Alpheus Leard. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Schurman. After the ceremony was performed the guests, of whom there was a large number, sat down to a sumptuous repast and enjoyed the things that had been provided for them. The beautiful and costly presents that the young couple were the recipients of is a proof of the high esteem in which they are held by their many friends. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Bagnall every happiness in their new home to which they drove during the small hours of the morning.—Com.

WORLD WIDE ENDEAVOR

Annual Meeting at Nashville Tenn. a Splendid Success

Nashville, Tenn., July 11.—The great international convention for 1898, which opened on Wednesday will, on Monday night, be a thing of history. The Rev. F. E. Clark, president, presided at the opening meeting, when fully seven thousand people were present.

CANADA'S RESPONSE.
The response for Canada was made by Mr. G. Tower Ferguson, of Toronto, chairman of the Dominion Council of Christian Endeavor. Dr. Clark, in inviting him to speak said: we are to get a welcome from our friends in Canada—and at the close of his address the audience rose en masse and sang "God Save the Queen," and it was sung heartily, especially as it was printed on the programme.

Mr. Ferguson spoke as follows: "Canada greets the south and thanks you for your kind welcome."

"Although serving under a different flag, a flag which we dearly love, we nevertheless in Christian Endeavor work have learned to feel at home under the Stars and Stripes."

"Latterly feelings of good will and amity between the two great Anglo-Saxon nations have been common in the public press."

"The Hon. Joseph Chamberlain has voiced the sentiments of many British hearts when he said, in speaking of closer alliances: 'I do not know what arrangements may be possible with us, but this I do know and feel, that the closer, the more cordial, the fuller and more definite these arrangements are, the better it will be for both and for the world.'"

"This we do know: That international conventions have been a factor, a powerful factor, in fostering such a feeling between these two peoples as alone will make such an alliance effective. Those representing hundreds of thousands of young people have met. We know how much in common we have. History has taught us our common ancestry. This accounts for similar traits not the least of which is love for liberty."

"You sing 'Sweet land of liberty.' We re-echo 'Britons never shall be slaves.' Nor is this mere sentiment. England has given her best sons and has spent millions of sterling 'in the cause of liberty.'"

"To-day your government is in a hand to hand struggle in the same cause. Your sons are on foreign soil for the cause of the down-trodden, and with the determination that the 'oppressed shall be free...'"

"Whatever may come in the way of closer relations between the United States and Britain, let us not forget the part, the important part, such conventions as these have played in making such an alliance possible or effective."

"I again thank you in the name of Canada."

THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.
Secretary Baer, in his annual statistical report, gave the number of societies in the United States as 41,222. This does not include the junior, intermediate and other societies.

So far as we know, Russia is the only country in the world without its Christian Endeavor Society. England has 4,047; Canada, 3,456; Australia, 2,284; Scotland, 535; India, 433; Wales, 331; Ireland, 213; China, 138; Africa, 110. The list is too long to be reported fully here and at this time. The total enrollment from within the United States is 11,775 societies. The increase in South Africa, India, China, Germany and throughout Great Britain has been large.

The constitution for local Christian Endeavor societies has been translated and printed in thirty-seven different languages.

The total enrollment of world-wide Christian Endeavor is 54,191 societies with an individual membership of more than three and one-quarter millions.

In England the Baptists and first in Christian Endeavor; in Australia the Wesleyan Methodists; and in Canada the Methodists.

In the United States the Presbyterians lead, with 5,065 Young People's Societies and 3,109 Junior; the Congregationalists are next, with 4,165 Young People's Societies and 2,469 Junior; then follow the Disciples of Christ, with 3,268 Young People's Societies and 1,483 Junior; the Baptists, 2,629 Young people's Societies and 1,130 Junior; the Methodist Protestant, 1,095 Young People's, and 364 Junior; the Cumberland Presbyterians, 889 Young People's and 414 Junior; the Lutherans, 891 Young People's and 355 Juniors; and so on until more than thirty different evangelical denominations have been listed.

The banner of the greatest proportionate gain in number of societies is taken by South Africa, the home of Dr. Andrew Murray.

The banner for the largest absolute gain in number of societies has been in England's possession for four years. England has this year increased her roll by more than seven hundred societies.

During the past year 27,686 Juniors have become members of the Church. From the intermediate societies, 1,518 have joined their home churches, and 196,550 from the people's societies, making a total reinforcement of church membership during the year amounting to 225,754.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.
Dr. Clark took for his annual message the topic, 'More fruit.' He said the one and only purpose of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor is to bear fruit. Let us hear our divine commission, fellow laborers: 'I choose you and appointed you, that ye should go and bear fruit. The test is for each one. 'By their fruits ye shall know them.'"

Does any elder in Israel say our Endeavor Society is not what it should be? Before you blame the seed or curse the fruit, consider the soil in which the society grows. Is it a warm, sunny evangelical, evangelistic? Then we may well be surprised if the fruit is not large and fair. Is the soil of the Church and religious community worldly, cold, sour, critical, formal? The Christian Endeavor fruit will be niggardly in quantity and meagre in quality.

'Twelve manners of fruit for 1898.—

1. A revived prayer meeting.
2. A new sense of consecration.
3. A renewal of the covenant idea.
4. A new range of work by young people for the church by our committees.

5. A new love and loyalty for the Church of God.
6. An aroused patriotism and sense of Christian citizenship.
7. A new type of interdenominational brotherhood.
8. A new type of international brotherhood.

9. A quickened missionary zeal, including a quickened love for the prisoners and the outcast at home, as well as for the heathen abroad.
10. A new interest in the sailor and soldier and the brave life-saver on our coast.
11. Systematic and proportionate giving to God.
12. The practice of communion with God in the Quiet Hour.

Every Christian Endeavor Society has peculiar relations.

First.—To all the young people who composed it.

Second.—To the church of which it is a part.

Third.—To the country to which its members owe allegiance.

Fourth.—To the world; for the movement has now found a footing and welcome in almost every land beneath the sun.

It is this so, God is saying:

More fruit from every member of every society in 1898.

More fruit for the Church in 1898.

More fruit for the nation in 1898.

More fruit for the world in 1898.

More fruit from all Endeavorees, more fruit for the Church, more fruit for the nation, more fruit for the world.

PERSONAL MATTERS.

A joint rally of the American Presbyterian and Canada Presbyterian churches was held in the First Presbyterian Church, and the church was full of Endeavorees. The Rev. William Patterson, representing the Canadian Presbyterian, from Toronto, made a grand speech, one of the best yet heard here.

He spoke for unity among all Presbyterian churches, that the army be not divided. The success of this union in Canada has been signal. He reviewed the past history of the church, the part it played in history, as illustrations of God's pleasure in the Church; that it has survived the ravages of centuries.

The Methodist Episcopal churches of the United States and the Methodist churches of Canada met in the auditorium of the McKendree Church. Dr. W. H. Withrow, Canada Sunday-school editor and ex-secretary of the Canadian Epworth League was introduced. He said he wanted to give a word of greeting from the Northland. He said in Canada they have United Societies of Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Societies. He spoke of the good work being done by both the league and societies in his country. The conference then closed with the singing of 'Blest be the tie,' and a brief testimony meeting.

At the conference of Protestant Episcopalians of Canada and the United States, held at St. Ann's Church, the Rev. Canon Richardson spoke on behalf of Canada. His remarks were mostly to the young people.

One of the features of the convention is the presence of the Jubilee Singers from Fisk University, whose delightful singing is thoroughly enjoyed by the audiences at each session of the convention.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(Special)—Generally fair south westerly winds.

SANTIAGO SURRENDERS

Garrison Will Return to Spain.

ENGAGE TO CEASE FIGHTING

One Fourth of Cuba's Area Surrenders With Santiago—Germany Will Insist That Spain Keep the Philippine's Clying Uncle Sam One Coaling Station—Blanco Attempted Suicide—Spain's Finances Are Exhausted—Watson's Fleet to Be Strengthened.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(Special)—General Shafter has been notified that Santiago surrendered today on a basis of troops being returned to Spain and not to fight again.

This morning Shafter telegraphed that Spain had proposed a conference to discuss terms and he was given power to settle the question on the basis of immediate surrender and agreed to the terms above stated.

Had the city not surrendered by noon General Shafter would have renewed the attack.

LONDON, July 14.—(Special)—German papers continue to discuss the conditions in the Philippines and the assertion is made that Germany has promised Spain to take the lead among European nations in endeavoring to restrict America to a single coaling station, securing the remainder of the islands to Spain.

It is understood Blanco was ordered to tell the troops at Santiago to resist to death.

Manila reports slow continued fighting between the Spaniards and rebels, but Americans dare not intervene till they have a force ample to cope with both.

Spain is making great repairs to her fortification at Ceuta, Faira and Algeciras.

Camara's squadron is returning. Spain has exhausted all her available funds and bank advances and must now stop payment on her debt interest and sinking fund and issue treasury notes to meet expenses.

The governors of Cuba and Porto Rico report provisions scarce.

PLAYA DEL ESTE, July 14.—(Special)—The American troops are in good health, although a few cases of fever exist.

The surrender of Santiago takes in the whole province, including Manzanillo, Haguin, Guantanamo and Blanco. The province contains one fourth of the area of Cuba.

It is understood that Blanco tried to suicide when he heard of the destruction of Cervera's fleet.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(Special)—It has been decided to considerably strengthen Watson's fleet to Spain.

All the wounded that it was possible to move have left Cuba. Their landing at Fort Munro created great enthusiasm.

LYING IN WAIT

Spanish War Vessel After Klondyke Treasure Ship.

VANCOUVER July 8.—Rumors are very persistent and partially confirmed that an armored cruiser flying the Spanish flag is hovering around the northern part of Vancouver island in waiting for the St. Michael's treasure steamer's Roanoke and St. Paul, due from St. Michael's.

Information has been received at the United States consulate that a pilot in Victoria was offered a large sum to pilot a cruiser in this direction, while it is known that a Vancouver pilot was offered $10,000 for similar services for one month. Besides this one week ago foreigners, supposed to be agents of the Spanish government, have been attempting to buy small, fast steel steamers here and said to have been aided by Spanish Consul Mullion.

To-day the British warship Amphion and Icarus sailed early in the morning—days before their sailing dates—and it is thought that the vice admiral of the Esquimalt fleet has considered the rumors of sufficient importance to give chase to the privateer.

Victoria, B. C., July 8.—United States Consul Smith notified the department at Washington that Pilot Westerley, who had been engaged to take the steamer Alpha north had abandoned the engagement, having received a contract to take a tug boat to privateer lying hidden in Queen Charlotte Sound, and to act as pilot.

The pilot has been paid $2,000 cash, the contract price being $8,000. Consul Smith is very reticent.

SENOR CARRAUZA.

Believed to be Still Hiding in Montreal.

MONTREAL, July 14.—(Special)—Carranza is believed to be still in hiding here. The man who went away was a dummy made up to deceive.

Parker Pillsbury Dead

Concord, N. H., July 8.—Parker Pillsbury, the associate of Garrison, Phillips, and others of the great anti-slavery movement of the first half of the century, died at his home here this afternoon. He was eighty-nine years of age.

A Dominion Election

OTTAWA, July 14.—Rumors of a Dominion election in the late autumn or early winter are again rife.

Several ministers are urging this, especially if a reciprocity treaty is made with States.

Tariffs left for the Maritime Provinces last night.
