Manitoba Sends Good News to all Sick and Suffering Ones the World Over.

OAKVILLE, Man., Oct. 28.—(Special).—Since the publication of the story of Frank Colleaux, of Oak Lake, much attention has been directed to some similar cases in this neighborhood.

One of the most striking of these is that of William Lloyd who for months past has had Diabetes. All the dangerous symptoms were present. He lost over thirty pounds in weight in less than three months.

He heard of the good work Dodd's Kidney Pills were doing and started to use them.

Very soon he began to recover. His thirst left him, he gained in weight and one by one the unpleasant symptoms were forgotten till now he is well as ever.
