Carleton and Vicinity

Mrs. Frank Muttart, Carleton, has had as her welcome guest for the past few days Mrs. Wilfred Inman, Acorn Tryon.

Mr. Wilton Gardner left Saturday morning on return to Trenton, N.S., after spending several days at his home in Cape Traverse.

Her many friends regret the illness of Mrs. (Dr.) Everett A. Bell, Cape Traverse, and hope for her early recovery.

Mrs. Wendell MacWilliams, Carleton, arrived home from the Prince Louise Hospital on Thursday night, with her fine young son, Wendell Earl.

ACJ John MacDonald of the R.C.A.P. is spending fourteen-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell MacDonald, Carleton.

Mrs. A. E. Chilcott, Summerside, spent Thursday with her mother, Mrs. Edna Howatt, Carleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cameron, Augustine Cove, returned Monday night from Summerside where they spent several days. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Lowther, Carleton, until Friday.

Mrs. J. D. MacParlane, Desable, attended Presbyterian in Kensington last week. She stopped off at Carleton on the return trip, to visit her sister, Mrs. Helen Bell.

Miss Mary Muttart, Carleton, attended Presbyterian in Kensington, remaining until Saturday to visit her aunt, Mrs. William Toombs.

Mrs. Lester MacWilliams, Augustine Cove, returned Monday morning from a pleasant visit with relatives in Charlottetown.

The many friends of Mrs. J. H. Bishop, Carleton, are sorry to learn that she suffered a dislocated shoulder when she slipped and fell on the icy steps of car at Emerald Friday evening.

Mrs. Melbourne Howatt, Cape Traverse, returned Thursday from a most enjoyable visit with her sons, Vernon of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Dartmouth and Austin of the R.C.N.

A social evening in aid of the Red Cross was held at the home of Mrs. and Mr. Eric Thomson, Carleton, last Friday was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Quigley. The evening was spent in games and conversation. A small fund was changed and the nice sum of $65 was realized for Red Cross work.

On Tuesday evening, Jan. 19, a number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart MacDicken, Carleton, to tender a post-natal shower to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur MacDicken. The living room was prettily decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers and a white marriage bell. Miss Mildred Lowther opened the parcels, Miss Mary Quigley read the verses and cards and Mr. John Quigley arranged the presents on a table. After the lovely gifts had been opened and admired, Arthur made a nice little speech of thanks, on behalf of his wife and himself, following the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows" the groom was pronounced. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

The Carleton Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Eric Thomson on Thursday, Jan. 14, with the president in charge. The meeting opened with the Institute and the Creed repeated in unison. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Nine members responded to roll call. Two new members paid their fees. Collection amounted to 40 cents. Correspondence was read. It was moved by Mrs.
