Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Beaton of Halifax are visiting at the home of Mr. Beaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Beaton, Peter's Road having accompanied the latter on her return from Halifax, N. S. where she had spent Christmas with her son Lyle and his family.

We regret to learn that Mr. James A. Dewar, Murray River has, though indisposition been confined to his home for some time past.

It is pleasing to note that considerable improvement apparent in the health of Mrs. W. B. Hicken, Alliston, who for a long period has been seriously ill.

A pleasant social event in the nature of a shower party was recently held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. McSwain, Peters Rd. This had reference to the recent marriage of Miss Laura McLeod, Peters Rd., and Mr. Albert Griffin, Albion Bay. A large number of friends of the principals in this happy event with the Women's Institute of Peter's Road, met at the home of the bride, where a most enjoyable evening was spent in various phases of amusement, singing and instrumental music etc. An address was read by the Women's Institute and following this some valuable gifts were donated to the happy couple by the Institute and others present. Tea was served by the hostess Mrs. McSwain during the festive occasion.—P.

BASEL, Switzerland, January 11.—The world knows this little town as the headquarters of its bankers but insists on misspelling the name of a city founded before the year 1000.

It is the seat for the Bank for International Settlements and an important site of financial conferences. The German spelling "Basel" was changed to "Basel" at some time or other in the history of the city but a large proportion of the English-speaking peoples continue the old spelling. The French spell it "Bale."

All this doesn't disturb the satisfied citizens of the rich old town tucked away in a corner of Switzerland and with the German frontier within sight of one side and the French on the other.
