

MADE TO FIT.

The great difference between the best "made to order" clothing and Shorey's "made to fit" clothing is the price.

SHOREY Ready Tailored Clothing

is made to fit not to order. You get the benefit which would come with made to order clothing and your purse does not feel it.

We are in a position to know, and we have not been able to find ready tailored clothing which gives as good satisfaction as Shorey's. That's the reason we sell it. Improvement seems impossible. Workmanship, material, style, all are irreplaceable—but, just the same, you get your money back if you want it.

THE CAPITAL OF THE WEST

Latest from Summerside and Prince County

ERNEST SINCLAIR arrived home, last night from McGill.

POTATOES are now bringing forty-eight cents in Summerside.

MRS. J. F. BLADON and daughter Grace left yesterday morning on a visit to Halifax.

Among the shipments by the Northumberland yesterday were 307 bags of oats, 200 bags of potatoes and two horses.

Miss Ruby Darrach, Kensington, and Miss Bertha Schurman Summerside, crossed by Northumberland yesterday en route to Wolfville N. S. to attend the closing exercises of Acadia College.

No other musical troupe that has ever visited these parts has such power of entertaining and pleasing an audience as the Boston Sextette. They play in Market Hall June 2nd. Plan of hall opens at Goullie's to-morrow morning.

ALL parties who are willing to furnish plants, flowers etc. for use in the flower beds of the Public Square will confer a favor if they will please notify some member of the Improvement Committee previous to June 3rd as to what they can spare for use in decorating said flower beds. The Committee are: W. S. Bearist, John Dobson, D. M. Waugh, Creel McArthur.

F. H. JOHNSTON & Co., Fulton Market, New York, successors to Wright & Meigs, conduct a first-class fresh fish business, being in close touch with the best markets. They are noted for making prompt remittances, and for their satisfactory dealings with all their patrons. Mr. Johnston, head of the firm, has many personal friends in Summerside and vicinity, and his wife was a Seartown lady.

A FIRE started in the dwelling house of Nelson Howatt, St. Eleanors, about 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in the gable end of the building. The men were working out in the field at the time, and before it could be extinguished the blaze had reached the top of the roof. The wind was blowing hard and it was only with strong effort that the house was saved from ruin. The damage will not exceed $100.

A CONFESSION was made before the Stipendiary yesterday for a breach of the Sunday law. The case was one of selling goods on Sunday. The fine imposed, $3 and costs, was moderate in consideration that the extreme penalty is $25. This should be taken as a warning by those who make it a practice of ignoring this law. The police are making special efforts to stop Sunday selling and the law shall in the future be more strictly enforced than ever. Two violators of the C. T. A. also confessed yesterday and were fined the usual sum of $50 and costs.
