SAVE TEETH, MONEY, PAIN.

The day of wholesale slaughter of teeth, by the forceps, is gone. By years of study, experiment and the practical experience of learned men as physicians, dentists, bacteriologists, chemists and others it is now possible for each and everyone to have their teeth preserved to do the work nature intended them for.

It is Our Business to Save Teeth

It is your duty, to yourself, to have your teeth saved. If you intend having dental work done, call and have a talk with us, we will advise and explain matters to you, tell you just what you should have done and what the cost will be. We make

The half-yearly examination of the Cascumpec School was held on Friday afternoon Dec. 29th. in the presence of the trustees and a number of visitors. The pupils were examined in the different subjects by their teacher, Miss Mary Hayden, assisted by J. W. Bridges of P. W. C. and acquitted themselves very creditably. A number of the rate-payers expressed themselves as well pleased with the work being done, and spoke some encouraging words to the pupils.

Miss Ida M. Melrose, who left for her home in Guelph, Ont, yesterday morning after a two years sojourn here, was entertained on the previous evening at the Victoria Restaurant by a number of her friends consisting of ladies and gentlemen. After the delicacies of a well spread table were enjoyed by all present appropriate toasts were proposed and responded to, after which Miss Melrose was presented with a travelling bag on behalf of her friends who expressed their warm appreciation of her society during her stay in Summerside, and wishing her happiness and prosperity in her next abode. This pleasant function of the evening was brought to a close by some piano music and singing.

St. John's night was appropriately observed by Alexandra Lodge No. 5 A. F. and A. M. Port Hill. After installation of officers the members adjourned to the hotel near by where a sumptuous repast was prepared by Mrs. O'Conner in her best style. At the conclusion of the supper the usual toasts were drunk in cold water and suitable responses made. After singing of We Meet upon the Level and God Save the King all dispersed to their homes well satisfied at having spent so pleasant an evening. The officers installed are:—Herbert Yeo—W. M; William J. Montgomery—S. W; John E. Yeo—J. W; John Maynard—Treasurer; Henry Harper—Secretary; Wm. R. Ellis—Chaplain; Hugh Montgomery—S. D; Hubert F. Phillips—J. D; Archibald Montgomery—S. S; Wm. H. Ellis—J. S; Henry Williams—Marshal; George Ballem—I. Guard; Norman McPhail—Tyler.

Geo. Palmer arrived from Boston yesterday on a visit to his home here.

The Stanley arrived yesterday about 12 o'clock with 14 passengers and 25 bags mail.

Frank Farrow of M. Trainor & Co. Charlottetown spent New Year's at his home in Kensington.

Miss Ma[illegible]da Annear, Montague, who has been spending Christmas holidays at Kensington returned home yesterday.

Good resolutions cannot always be carried into effect at the time appointed. Owing to changed conditions the directors have decided that our store shall remain open a few weeks longer during which customers will be given exceptionally good bargains. Jardine & Co. Ltd.

A painful accident happened to Mrs. O. DesRoche of Kildare Cape, New Year's eve, when coming home after attending church. A horse bit off one of her ears which fell on the snow. Having presence of mind Mrs. DesRoche had the ear stitched on again shortly after the shock she must have received.—Patriot.

The New Year was ushered in with splendid weather and the people turned out in large numbers to witness the Polymorphian parade which represented the present industries and improvements of Kensington and vicinity present and contemplated in the future. The leader "Stealthy Steve" was mounted on a dappled grey charger. The Canadian flag fastened to his saddle-bow flowed gayly in the breeze. Next came the red Indian chief "Rain in the Face", mounted on his favorite broncho "Bun" exhibited some wonderful feats of horsemanship and also some wonderful contortions. Very conspicuous among the vans was an engine with tender attached to represent the New London Branch Railway. Next in prominence came the Kensington Fire Department who made a gallant rush for the town pump, which was quickly found on close examination to be dry. The popular Livery Stable was well represented by one of its best rigs with good ads for the doctors, painters and saddlers. The popular young ladies of Kensington well represented the street illuminations of Kensington. The oration of the day was ably delivered by the popular druggist in his usual good style on Kensington's progressiveness. The Boys Brigade was out in full strength, headed by the "Kensington Silent Band." As this is the first appearance of Terribles in Kensington, the young men's social and athletic club under whose management it was gotten up, is deserving of much praise and credit not only for the excellent turn out but also for the orderly way in which it was conducted.
