The examination was conducted by the teacher Miss Cann and Rev. W. H. Sweet. The work in all classes was very satisfactory, and showed faithful work on the part of the scholars. After the examination, speeches were made by the trustees, Rev. W. H. Sweet and others, complimenting the teacher for her faithful work and the pupils for the way they acquitted themselves.

DUNSTAFFNAGE FACTORY.—The annual meeting of the Dunstaffnage Cheese and Butter Co., Ltd., was held at the factory on Jan. 16th, 1918. The attendance was large and enthusiastic. The business done during the year ending Oct. 31st, 1917 was the largest in the history of the Company. Cream was supplied by 565 patrons and a total of 150,403 lbs. of butter manufactured, the gross value was upwards of $58,200.00 of which $52,205.00 was paid to patrons for cream supplied, the average value of butter-fat for the year being 40.62 per lb. Mr. W. J. Gibson was re-elected president of the Company and the following board of directors, Messrs. W. E. Vessey, Scott Cairns, Chas. Robertson, Orris Gill, Jas. Smith, and James Dovey, which bids well for another successful year. The patrons who supplied the largest amount of cream were A. McEae with 1,757.00 worth; Chas. Robertson, $1,209.00; C. T. Hawkins, $692.00; McLeod Bros., $486.00; G. A. Godfrey, $450.00.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.—On the first page of the Toronto Saturday Night is an article entitled "Canadian Women Who Drive the Wounded." It deals with the work of the women of Canadian Army Service Corps in London and was written by Mary McLeod Moore. Among the names mentioned is that of Mrs. R. C. Holman of whom the following reference is made: "Mrs. R. C. Holman whose old home is in the United States is the wife of Lieutenant R. C. Holman of Prince Edward Island, now in France, and before she became an ambulance driver on July 3 (Was the date a subtle compliment to the 1st and 4th?) she worked for the Canadian Red Cross Society in London." Mrs. Holman's portrait appears as the central figure of a large group. Mrs. McLeod writes: "The Canadian women over here have not been boastful about their work in the Great War. Most of them are too busy doing it, to bother whether the world appreciates it or not, or to trouble to contradict anything that is said about idle Canadians. Among the busiest, the most efficient, and—if they will forgive such freedom of speech from an admirer of their own sex—the most charming, is the group of Canadian women and girls who are privates in the Canadian Army Service Corps in England."

Straight, long blouses of velvet with collarless neck and elbow sleeves are worn in the afternoon.

STILL THEY ARE NEAR
 When God calls home the dear ones whom we love
 To dwell with Him in perfect peace above.
 We cannot feel that He has loosed the tie
 Which bound our human hearts on earth; so I Find comfort in the thought that they
 My guardian angels, keeping watch o'er me.
 For sometimes when my heart and I
 These loved ones seem to hover very near.

I almost feel the touch of each dear hand
 Upon my own, to help me understand
 I still am theirs and they are mine,
 'E'en though
 They dwell in heaven, I on earth belaw.
 No broken ties, but just a veil between
 My earthly vision and that world unseen!
 A little time to wait while loved ones
 there
 Keep tender watch o'er me, till I may share

Their perfect peace and God's most perfect love,
 Known unto those who dwell with Him above.

Salvation Army Tag Day and Street Collection :: Feb. 23rd.
COMMISSIONER RICHARDS appeals for $20,000
 Which is Urgently Needed for the Upkeep and Extension of The Army's War-Time Work Amongst the Canadian Troops

Throughout Canada a Tag Day and Street Collection is to be held in every city and town where The Army is established. The date of this effort has been fixed for FEBRUARY 23rd. The object is to raise money for our War Work, the needs of which must appeal to every Canadian. Just what is being done for our boys overseas will be evident from the following statement:—
REST HUTS FOR CANADIANS
 Rest Huts are being operated for and used exclusively by Canadian troops, as follows: Great Britain: Bramshot (near Haslemere), 2 Huts; Witley (Miford), 3 West Sandling, 1; East Sandling 1, St. Martin's Plain (Shorncliffe), 1; Dibatate Plain, 1; Seaford, 1; Shoreham-by-Sea, 1. France: Hut at Base Camp (Havre). Another at Etaples. The huts at Seaford and Shoreham are what may be termed double Huts, meaning that there is one Hut for recreation and refreshments and another for meetings. At the other places there is one Hut which is for refreshments and recreation at certain times, but which is on frequent occasions used for meetings.
 In addition to the above three large marquees have been sent over to France by International Headquarters and are under the charge of Chaplain-Captain Steele.

WHAT THE HUTS STAND FOR
 While this goes some of the way towards describing in actual terms a little that has been accomplished, the greater, vaster, and more valuable work can never be expressed, since so very much of Salvation Army force is active in spirit. A lad enters an Army Hut with the ostensible purpose of purchasing a cup of cocoa. He is away from home for the first time; he is missing many things which have made up his life. Now, when needed most of all, for he is up against terrible odds, he knows they are out of reach; so he comes to pay his penny for cocoa and to receive the gift of a trustful smile from The Army Adjutant's wife. That the Adjutant should find time to sit at his table for just a minute appears quite natural, that the boy should tell him something of what is in his heart, quite the simplest thing in the world; that the Adjutant should guess a lot more and say a lot more than words can make plain, all happens in the most ordinary way; and that the boy should leave the Hut with a new elasticity in his stride and a firm tilt to his chin is what The Army expects, for our optimistic ministry aims at making men—good men!
SERVING THE SERVICE MEN
 If You Want to Know What The Salvation Army's War-Time Work is in a Wider Sense, Here are a Few Items

Huts, Homes, etc., for Soldiers at some 100 Centres in England, thousands of men helped daily. Numerous Homes and Agencies for Soldiers in Northern France. Work amongst the Forces in Canada. Egypt, Malta, South Africa Australia, New Zealand, India, Ceylon (thirty-four Salvation Army Officers are officially appointed as Chaplains.) Visitation of wounded in French and English Hospitals by Women Officers doing fine work. The Army's Motor Ambulance Cars and Officers. Canteens and Lodging-Houses for Employes at Munition Works. Officers Tracing the Missing on the Continent, and Caring for Relatives visiting their dying men. Food and Clothing for Prisoners of War in Germany. Rest Rooms for Troops at Railway Stations. The Army's fifteen permanent Naval and Military Homes, where thousands of Service men are cared for. Organized Visitation of Soldiers' Wives and other dependents.

SALVATION ARMY CHAPLAINS
 Out of the thirty-four Chaplains mentioned above six are with the Canadians. They are as follows: Captain Steele, now at the Front in Flanders; Adjutant Penfold, Bramshot Camp (England); Adjutant Carroll, at the Base in France; Major McGilivray, London (England); Major Walton, London (England); and Staff-Captain White, Exhibition Camp (Toronto). All of these Officers are doing devoted service amongst our Boys in Khaki, caring for their moral and spiritual welfare, advising and helping them in their temporal affairs, and doing all in their power to keep them cheerful and straight in spite of the great temptations they are up against.
THIS WORK MUST BE KEPT UP
 Heavy expenditures have been incurred in connection with this War-Time Work, and the above-named sum is needed at once. We ask our friends, therefore, to give generously on Tag Day.
