

HEART WAS SO WEAK Had to Stay in Bed

Mrs. F. Wilson, Lathbridge, Alta. writes:—My heart was very weak, and I had to stay in bed for five weeks with it.

as she had taken them with good results after a very bad operation. I took them and some time after a doctor came to examine me for life insurance and he said there was nothing wrong with my heart.

—EASTERN KING'S NOTES.—Great damage was done to highways, properties and mill dams on Nov. 6th and thousands of dollars worth of highway bridges and roads were washed away. From Maric to East Point a distance of thirty seven miles there are fifteen mill dams and fourteen of them were almost completely destroyed, only one surviving. The dam of Mr. James Mallards, Gowan Brae is the only one that stood the floods and on looking it over today a correspondent writes, "I see it is practically unharmed and in good condition." On asking Mr. J. H. Mallard how he saved his dam he said he thanks his good neighbours and his four sons as they worked out twenty-four hours in the cold rain and floods to save it.

FOOTBALL

Queen Square and West Kent football teams assembled at the Abegweit grounds yesterday afternoon determining to play rain or shine, but the weather man was just as determined that they should not play and just before the boys were ready to take the field the flood gates were opened and even the undaunted spirit shown by the boys was considerably dampened before a let up was shown and the boys decided to call it a day and the game was postponed until Friday afternoon at the same hour and place. The teams were to have lined up as follows:

- Queen Square Fullback F. O'Neill Three Quarters J. Coyle L. Blanchard R. Filliter J. Duffy R. Johnson W. McIntyre G. McDonald Halves L. Duffy Forwards J. O'Neill J. Hill J. McKinnon S. Kennedy A.
