CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this province.

Miss Dykes, City, has gone to Souris.

W. A. O. Morson, city, was a passenger east yesterday afternoon.

J. G. Scrimgeour, Cardigan, was in the city yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. Doyle, Moncton, came to the city yesterday en route to Summerside.

Mrs. John Heartz from Denver, Colorado, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Charles Clay, Sr., Bridgetown, who is very ill.

Mrs. Agnew, wife of Mr. Speaker Agnew, Alberton, is in the city, the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Carruthers.

Charles McGregor, City, was among the passengers on the special to Georgetown last night en route to Montreal on a business trip.

Invitations are out for a dinner at Government House on Tuesday next, when the members of the Legislature and others will be present.

J. G. McLeod, postmaster, of Bridgetown, has been ill for the past two weeks with a somewhat serious case of la grippe. His friends look for his early recovery.

W. S. Newsome, city, returned by the special train from Georgetown yesterday after having distributed a fine bunch of horses among a number of his Nova Scotia and New Brunswick customers.

The officers and members of Alpha Rebekah Lodge, No. 10, I. O. O. F., will be at home to the brothers of St. Lawrence and Widley Lodges in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Tuesday, April 4th, at 8.30 p. m. A splendid evening's entertainment is being prepared and a really good time is assured those who attend.

In the last issue of the Oakland, Cal., Maple Leaf is a reproduction of a photograph of a rural scene taken in this Province by Will S. Louson, city. The picture is entitled "White Birch and Wool grown on a P. E. Island Farm" and, as the name implies, shows P. E. birches and sheep in pretty and natural contrasts.

At the last regular meeting of the Alpha Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., of this city, held in the Oddfellow's Hall, on Tuesday evening, twelve candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order. A very large number of candidates have been admitted the past few months and there are yet a number of applicants awaiting the conferring of the Rebekah Degree in Oddfellowship.

The following were recent arrivals at the North American Hotel, city: Miss M. C. Rix, Boston; G. F. Enman, Brandon, Man.; Alex. F. McDonald, John D. McIsaac, Hermanville; Joseph Murphy, New Haven; Mrs. D. Enman, Lynn, Mass.; Daniel McInnes, Outlook, Sask.; Colin B. Campbell, Boston; A. D. McPhee, Georgetown; M. L. McMillan, Hunter River; Francis Murphy, New Glasgow; John Ferguson.

E. F. Acorn, city, has sold to the Fourth Regiment Band his magnificent cornet. This instrument is of the celebrated English Hawkes make, and is of the same style and workmanship as the beautiful trombone recently imported by A. W. Gaudet of the 4th Regiment Band. It is silver-plated and is possessed of a delightful tone. On the evening of March 22nd the home of John McPhail, Argyle Shore, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when his sister, Florence A., was united in marriage to Hammond J. Ince of Hampton, in the presence of the immediate friends and relatives of the happy couple. Precisely at 7.30 p. m. the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, which was played by Miss Aggie B. Boyce of Bonshaw. Rev. Jas. McDougall officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, John McPhail, was becomingly attired in white silk with lace insertion. The bride and groom were unattended. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold bracelet. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room where all partook of a sumptuous repast served in Mrs. McPhail's usual excellent manner. A large charitable crowd surrounded the house accompanied by DeSable's popular piper, and deluged the happy couple with good wishes. After being treated by the good people of the house they gave three rousing cheers for the bride and groom and quietly dispersed to their homes. Mr. Ince has travelled very extensively and only recently returned from Nome, Alaska, where he spent some years in mining. He intends making his future home at Victoria where he has purchased a beautiful residence on the outskirts of the village. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Ince many long years of happiness and prosperity.

The sermon by the Rev. E. P. Calder at the Baptist Church in this city last night was on the subject "Faith." He dealt with his subject in a very concise and convincing way. He has the faculty of saying the right thing in the right way and is a master of good English. He grips his subject and makes it grip the people. The attendance was the largest yet in this series of evangelistic meetings, showing that the interest is decidedly deepening. A number started on the Christian way. The subject for tonight will be "Reconciliation." The meeting will begin at sharp 8 o'clock and will close at sharp nine o'clock. The people of Charlottetown are showing their interest in this series of evangelistic services by the good attendance.

Splendid Showing of Spring Suits

DECIDEDLY THE FINEST showing of spring suits that this store has ever made—is now ready for you in the mantle room. You will notice that there is a wide difference between last season's suits and these—mainly in the shortness of the coats—and the narrower cut of the skirts.

These suits are the product of the two best makers in the Dominion—they are well tailored—they fit—and their shapeliness is put in to stay.

Suits of wide wale serge, made in "Misses" model—just the right thing for the little woman. New short 3 button coat, side pockets, semi-fitted back. Skirt in trim new model, colors shown are navy, grey, green, tan, coronation and black. This pretty $15.50 suit is .....

Fine hard finish worsted makes up a pretty suit, of which the coat is short, with 5 close set buttons at front. Finely moulded and well tailored, lining of polonaise silk. Skirt is new narrow model cut. $16.00

A notably effective suit comes in fine hard finish worsted with inlaid satin at collar. The lining is a good polonaise silk. Coat is 4 button model—quite short. Very pretty skirt in latest model. This suit in black, navy, green at. $19.00

A very handsome little suit, is made of black and white tweed, with coat in hip length. There are three large black buttons, the new deeply sloping revers, are half-faced with black satin. Plain skirt, neat, well tailored skirt. $22.00

Handsome wide wale serge suit, in black, navy, walnut and grey. This model is a particularly fine fitter—very smart and stylish. Four button coat, is made quite plainly, but is slightly ornamented with small buttons—new model narrow skirt. $18.00

Covert cloth is the material which is prettily made up in handsome shades of light tan. The short coat has 6 close set buttons and is brightened up with a touch of brown soutache braid. Skirt of new model. This pretty suit. $22.50

Latest New York model, in fine grey worsted, has hip length coat—2 button slightly cut away model. The lining is a fine stripe silk. The skirt is the new semi-hobble model, beautifully tailored and well balanced model. This is one of the smartest suits we have ever shown. $30.00

A particularly strong line of "misses suits" for the little woman of about 5 ft 2 inches tall—who weighs 110 to 120 pounds—Does this mean you?
