Presentation By Alpha Rebekah Lodge

On Wednesday evening several members of Alpha Rebekah Lodge paid a fraternal visit to Sister Maud Finlayson at her home, 92 Water St., it being the 30th anniversary of her joining Alpha Lodge and presented her with gifts and an address, after which the Sisters had some singing and recitations. In departing they felt they had left cheery thoughts for the Sister in the days to come.

Following is the address: Mrs. Maud Finlayson, Water St., Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Dear Sister,— It is with sincerest pleasure that we gather here this evening to show you that we have not forgotten that you are a member of Alpha Rebekah Lodge.

For thirty years you have been a member in good standing, but we know, that for the greater part of that time circumstances have prevented you from taking an active part in the work of that Order.

We come, hoping that we may bring to you a word of cheer, a little change of thought—and a fresh renewal of our love and friendship. Do the days seem long to you?

Oh, no, that cannot be, for your bright, cheery manner makes us think that, somewhere, in some way, through these years of trial and indisposition you have some open door or unseen way, through which you catch a glimpse of brightness and hopefulness, and strength, which is as the silver lining of the dark cloud, or the rising sun spreading his bright rays above the dark horizon.

We come to you, each one laden with a little offering which we hope will bring you pleasure, and with an accompanying portion of love which we bestow upon our sister members, and more especially on those who like yourself, are unable to enjoy the pleasures of this life as we do.

Please accept this gift from the Lodge, which accompanies this short address. May their individual crispness and newness be an incentive to you to exchange them for something that will be a real delight to you and may every crinkle that comes into them be as a word of sympathy spoken to you by some loving friend or as a beautiful thought waited from your fellow members of Alpha Rebekah Lodge.

For a beautiful thought is a beautiful thing. And out on the Infinite tide, May meet, and touch, and tenderly bring

To the sick and the weary and sorrowing A solace sometimes denied. In Friendship, Love and Truth, we extend to you our best wishes for your happiness and restoration to health.

Muriel Lowther, N. G. Jane T. McKie, R. Secy.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. WM. YOUNKER

A cloud of sorrow cast its shadow over the hearts of the entire community of Kingston, P. E. I., on the learning of the death of Mrs. Wm. Younker, which occurred Nov. 1 in P. E. I. Hospital. When it would appear she had years of usefulness before her, a life story has closed that has left after it a sense of an irreparable loss. The deceased previous to her illness about a year ago, was active in every circle that would minister to the general welfare. In the home she had proved herself a loving wife and mother, one who had given of herself unstintingly for the welfare of others. In the community she was interested in everything that would help to uplift and benefit. She was an active member of the United Church of Canada, and labored faithfully to do her part in the Master's vineyard.

The esteem in which she was held by all was partly evidenced by the exceptionally large number of relatives and friends who gathered at her late home to pay their last tribute of respect. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. E. M. Aitken, who spoke on the subject "The Need of a Shepherd." After this service the largest cortege that many had ever seen followed the remains to their resting place in Kingston cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs Everett Holmes; Duncan Marshall; Heber McPhail; Bertram Wilby; Tyroo Holmes; Ernest Newsom.

Following are the floral tributes: Crescent, Beer Family; Crescent, Missionary Society; Crescent, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Toombs; Crescent, Mr and Mrs. W. McKinley; Wreath, Orange Lodge; Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmes Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. R. Barrett Wreath, Mr. and Mrs. B. Livingstone and Family; Spray, Mrs. A. Newsom; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall; Spray, Mr. and Mrs. E. Younker.

Mere trifles are responsible for more happiness and more misery than great happenings.

MALPEQUE

Rev. D. M. Grant, Malpeque, and Rev. D. K. Ross, North Bedeque, exchanged pulpits on Sunday, the former addressing good audiences in Travellers Rest; Freetown and North Bedeque—the latter conducting services in Princetown United Church. In the morning Mr. Ross chose as his text Daniel 6:3. The subject being an "Excellent Spirit". The speaker declared that we need the excellent spirit of Daniel to carry out the programme of the church today. Daniel's character stood sun crowned above the evil surroundings in which he lived. It was shown that all great men have great temptations. Christ was tempted greatly because he had great powers. What made Dan a success? 1st. He had a controlling purpose in his life—loyalty to God; 2nd He was a man of prayer—He kept his windows of prayer open toward Jerusalem—3rd. He did for me what no one else can do. I am indebted to Christ for all I have. Mr. Ross appealed to his audience to give their lives, with all its resources into Christ's keeping, then it is safe, for time and eternity.

The many friends of Mr. Clark Woodside, who is at present in the Christie St. Hospital, Toronto, will be pleased to learn that the operation which he has recently undergone has been successful, and all will await with interest the result of other operations, which it is understood are necessary. During a few days leave of absence, Mr. Woodside was in attendance at the Toronto Exhibition; he also visited his sisters-in-law, Mrs. J. H. Klein and Miss Nancy Poulton, Chicago. He has met many friends, former P. E. Islanders—among them Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery, Owen and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Aud. Comfort are soon knocked for a fare-thee-well (M) by Seigel's Syrup.
