—RETURNS AFTER 43 YEARS IN WEST—Mr. George Lord, Red Deer, Alberta, is visiting his brothers in the Province, Mr. Edwin Lord, Central Bedeque, and Mr. Chas. Lord, Tryon. Mr. Lord is one of the successful Islanders abroad. He spent his boyhood days on his father's farm at Lower Bedeque, and when a very young man went west where he took up farming, and as his wealth increased he invested it in land until now he has a very large acreage in the wheat growing belt. He married in the west and raised a large family, and now his boys are able to carry on the farming operations during his absence. He sees a great many changes in Bedeque since he left, especially with the younger generation; however, he is still able to locate many of his old acquaintances, who are glad to welcome him back. B

—THE WOMEN'S MISSIONARY of the Bedeque United Church was held at the home of Miss Annie Leard, on May 1st at 2.30 p.m. Miss Lousia Callbeck presided. Theme for May, "The Christian Home." The devotional period was led by Mrs. W. J. Reid; eleven members answered roll call with a verse of scripture. Two visitors, Mrs. G. Mizuno and Mrs. Wesley Heckbert were welcomed to the meeting; ten sick calls were made during the past month. The treasurer reported that $100.00 had been forwarded to Mrs. J. A. Nicholson, York. Presbyterial treasurer. A letter was read from Mrs. Clark, Temperance Secretary, urging the members to do all they can for the temperance cause. Singing the hymn, "Happy the Home When God is There", and the benediction brought the meeting to a close. A social hour was spent and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Edna Jenkins and Mrs. Percy Affleck. B

RE-BUILD S,SIDE—

though the walls of the old church are being used the building will look completely different from outside and when completed will be a fine looking structure. Whereas in the old church the sanctuary was built on the east, now the main walls are being produced and the building will be completely rectangular with the exception of the built-on vestry and the steeple at the front.

The church windows will be removed and new windows for each floor will be installed. There will be three gables on each side and the roof will be five feet lower than the church, with the pitch being less steep.

It is planned to have all the installations as modern and up-to-date as possible All floors will be of concrete over steel joists, supported by structural steel columns and beams designed so that no part of the load will be thrown on the brick wall. All floors will be covered with linoleum. The main building will be 108 feet six inches long and 46 feet nine inches wide. The basement will contain two bowling alleys and a number of billiard tables. There will also be a gymnasium. There is room here and provisions will be made, for the installations at a later date, of a central heating system which will supply heat to the parish centre, convent, parish house, church and Knights of Columbus home. For the present the original heating system will be used. Showers will be installed either in the basement or on the second floor.

On the first floor, there will be six classrooms 28 1-2 feet by 18 feet each. There will be steel lockers for the pupils' clothing and modern lavatories. The vestry can eventually be used as a library.

The second floor as stated will be used for a time for church services. Later it will be furnished as an auditorium with theatre-type seats, dressing rooms and proper stage equipment. There will be provision for a modernly equipped kitchen for bazaars and other purposes. Also in the auditorium there will be provisions for the playing of badminton, basket ball and other games.

The roof will be supported by steel trusses and steel purlins. The building will be completely fireproof and air conditioned. There will be three exits from the first and second floors. It is expected that the steel will arrive about June 1 and if there are no unforseen holdups, it should be possible to have church services in the auditorium late this fall.—S.
