

THE CANADIAN ENCYCLOPAEDIA

In Six Quarto Volumes, with an Index volume additional. By Two Hundred and Twenty-eight Eminent Canadian Writers and Specialists.

Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal ordered a set of "CANADA" for his private library at Montreal, and a set for the office of the Canadian Commissioner at London, England, and he writes:

GENTLEMEN: "The work forms an important and valuable addition to the literature of the Dominion."

The Hon. G. W. Ross, premier of Ontario, after an examination of the set for which he subscribed, writes:

"It is a work which no public man can afford to be without."

We might add that the work is a necessity for every intelligent Canadian, whether in public life or not.

Scores of the leading men of Canada write in similar strains, and over two thousand pleased subscribers echo their sentiments.

See the reviews of the leading newspapers, for they fairly babble over with praise.

We will send you a set on approbation, prepaying the freight charges, and will pay the return charges also if the work does not please you. If you decide to keep it, you may pay for it whenever it is convenient to do so.

You can have a set for a little over half the original low price, providing you order before Christmas.

As a Christmas Gift for father, son, husband or brother, it would be a never-ending blessing.

Johnny—"Why, nurse, it's not the questions that make him angry; it's because he can't answer them."
