Abegweits Clash With Wolverines This Evening

(Canadian Press) HALIFAX, N. S., Nov 21—The same Wolverine force that defeated Saint John Beavers 2-1 here Monday night will lineup tomorrow evening for their first seasonal clash with Charlottetown Abegweits in the Maritime Hockey League schedule.

The Wolves are still deprived of their imported Paul Gagnon, flashy left-winger, still awaiting his release from Quebec authorities. Gagnon had hoped to get into action in the first meeting with Saint John but he still has no word as to whether his transfer to Halifax has been sanctioned.

The probable line-up with Lawlor again filling the Frenchman's important position, is as follows.

Abbies lineup:
Goal, McCann; defence, Walker, Gross, Currie; forwards, Hudson, Beaton, McArthur, Kelly, Nicholson and McGlashen.
