NEW WOMEN'S INSTITUTES ORGANIZED—On September 2nd the ladies of Harmony, Prince George, in the schoolhouse to form a Women's Institute. Miss Mathieson, Supervisor, organized the club. The following officers were appointed:—President Mrs. Charles McKenzie. Vice-President, Mrs. William Yeo; Secretary, Miss Kathleen Yeo; Directors, Miss Helena Yeo, Mrs. Herbert Yeo and Mrs. Alex Murray.

WEDDING BELLS—Miss Myrtle Welsh, of West Devon, and Mr. Guy Palmer, of Freeland, Sept. 11, were married in O'Leary by Rev. Mr. Tattie on Tuesday, Sept. 8th. After the ceremony they motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacArthur, West Devon, where they were sumptuously entertained. A merry charivari party gathered and made fun and amusement for all. Their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

PAINFULLY INJURED—Mr. Daniel Palmer met with a serious accident the first of last week. While hauling a load of logs to the mill at Inverness his horse, which is rather a high spirited animal, suddenly bolted and threw him of the load. As he fell one of the logs became detached and fell on him breaking his leg above the ankle and also striking him on the head cutting it and stunning him. He was taken to his home and the doctor called immediately to set the broken leg and attend to his other injuries. He is at present resting easier and doing as well as could be expected.

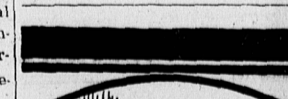

PERSONALS

Mr. Mont White of Boston who spent a short time here visiting his mother, Mrs. W. D. White, Alberton, who is seriously ill, returned this week. The many friends of Mrs. White will be sincerely sorry to learn that she continues in poor health and that but slender hopes exist of her ultimate recovery.

A Big Drop In Immigration

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—It has been impossible to get immigration figures for some time from the department here, the Government having given orders that none were to be published. Last week Hon. Mr. Meighen insisted that he be given the facts. After much difficulty he found that there has been a falling off of 20,796 from the low level of last year. This would indicate the lowest in many years.

Farewell Gathering

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Richards, Gladstone, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Wednesday last, Sept. 2, when a number of friends and relatives gathered to bid farewell to Miss Annie, previous to her departure for Boston, Mass. The evening was pleasantly spent in music, dancing and singing. After the ladies had served all to a dainty lunch, Miss A. B. Mayne arose and read an address, and Mr. Clarence Cuddy presented Miss Richards with several pretty souvenirs of P. E. Island. Ammie, in appropriate words, thanked her friends and expressed her wish to meet them again on her return next year. Miss Annie Richards, Gladstone, P. E. Island.

Dear Ammie.—Now that it is near the day of your departure, we feel it our duty as your nearest friends, school-mates and relatives to say a few words in regard to our wishes for your future welfare and happiness. We realize that we are losing one of our community's most popular young girls, but we are comforted by knowing that your presence in it, and that you will laugh your way into the hearts of your new friends as you have with us. We shall miss you in our social gatherings and especially in those town where we have all spent so many happy evenings, and hope that your absence from there will not be for long. These little souvenirs we give to you not for their value, but to remind you when you are far away of the friends who shall miss you so much. We all join in wishing you health, wealth and happiness in your new sphere and a speedy return to your old home. Ammie, we all love you. Signed on behalf of her friends

Notes By The Way

(Continued from Page 4) beside his own to support his claim. A sorry spectacle! The appointments were due at the beginning of last session, but the last full measure of fidelity was exacted. They must continue to serve till the close of the session. They must trust the Government or the Government would not trust them. So they humbly served on to the close. Not till the House was dissolved could the precious peerage be claimed. There might yet be another session. So they had to wait, glaring at each other in resentful suspense. In the meantime Prince Edward Island was forgotten by the would-be-Senators and by Premier King. Branch railways, elevators and other plums were scattered east and west, but none of them came this way. After dis-

The Conservative Mathieson Government and the Borden Meighen Government at Ottawa came to the rescue, helped out our finances to the tune of $100,000 in yearly subsidy, gave us the Car Ferry and saved our representation from ever falling below four members. What would be our present condition in this Province if we had not received these three great measures of justice, or if all, or any one of them were now taken away? And who has been the better friend, to P. E. Island, Arthur Meighen or W. L. Mackenzie King? Let our fair-minded electors, women and men, think it over.
