The merry month of May brings joy and gladness, sunshine and flowers. The issue of the Busy Man's Magazine for the current month also brings pleasure and profit for its ever widening circle of enthusiastic readers. "Canadians Who Are Doing Things, and How" forms an important and highly edifying feature in the May number which is generously illustrated and presents a most artistic appearance. The book with the "red cover" as Busy Man's is frequently and familiarly called, also has numerous other admirable adjuncts which will prove particularly welcome. It not only gives several of the best selections from the magazines of the world, but contains such instructive, timely, and popular articles as "The Principle of Profit Sharing in Business," "Some Deductions on the Average Man," "How Those who Fall Are Given Another Chance," "Canadians Should Indulge in More Boating," "A Greater Sense of Our Responsibilities," "The World's Greatest Plow Manufacturer," "Youth Should be Taught the Habit of Saving," "The Adoption of Automobiles in Business," "Canadian Banking System the Best in the World," and "A Police Force that is a Credit to Canada." Other attractions of the magazine might be dwelt upon, but in the words of an old saw, "enough is as good as a feast."
