PLEASE NOTE! THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS THEATRE BELIEVES IT HAS TWO BASIC OBLIGATIONS TO ACCOMPLISH... FIRST, TO ENTERTAIN ITS PATRONS AND SECOND, TO PERFORM A PUBLIC SERVICE. IT IS IN THE INTEREST OF PUBLIC SERVICE THAT WE PRESENT THIS SIGNIFICANTLY VITAL MOTION PICTURE...

... when I saw the motion picture "Mom and Dad" I was impressed with the quite good portrayal of the attitude of parents toward their responsibility in the matter of instruction in sex hygiene. I am personally of the opinion that the failure on the part of parents to meet this obligation contributes substantially to sex delinquency.

Yours sincerely, Russell T. Kelley, MINISTER OF HEALTH

W. C. T. U. MEETING - The May meeting of the local W. C. T. U. met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John F. MacNeill, Summerside, with the president, Mrs. J. S. Hinton, in the chair. Mrs. Albert D. Sharp who was in charge of the devotional period; opened with the singing of "Again We Meet With One Accord" with Mrs. L. M. Calbeck at the piano after which she read the Bible lesson and engaged in prayer. An inspiring meditation "A Sanctuary for Quiet Communing" was given by the president. During the business session considerable discussion took place on the coming plebiscite and money was voted toward the Temperance Fund. A delightful lunch was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

PLAY MUCH ENJOYED - "Maid of Money" a comedy in three acts was presented Tuesday, May 11th, night in the community hall, Lot 16, by Lot 16 Y.P.U. Players to a capacity audience. The hearty reception given this first performance was most gratifying. It is distinctly a play of laughs and uproarious comedy; and it is conceded on all sides that Lot 16 Players lived up to the promise given in the slogan, which they have adopted: "All for fun and fun for all." Members of the cast are: Hazel Ramsey, Gertrude MacLean, Glen MacArthur, Gordon Yeo, Ira Campbell, Dorcas MacLean, Edythe Monkley, James Campbell, Gordon Campbell, Marion Gallant and Amy Best. Much enjoyed specialties between acts were given by: Vans McKinnon, guitar selection; Marlon Gallant, vocal solo (Doris Rayner, accompanist); Arnold Phillips, guitar selection; Mrs. Best and Leo Farrell, piano and violin duets; and little Miss Claudia Cameron, whose step dancing was an outstanding feature of the evening. The sale of candy, ice cream and cake was under the supervision of the church workers. It is understood that many invitations have already been received to take the play to other communities, due notices of which will be published in this paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chase and little son, Summerside, were weekend guests of Mrs. Calvin Leard. Mr. and Mrs. George McInnis, Summerside, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gardiner. Among visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Affleck last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. James Arding, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Dawson and son and Mr. Everett Mayhew, all of North Fryn. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Delancy, Tryon, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Bowness last weekend. Miss Hazel Weeks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Weeks, Fredericton spent some time this week among relatives at Bedeque and Carleton. Mrs. Walter Bowness, Miss Aletta Noonan and Mrs. Reginald Murray and little daughter Diane, were visitors to Charlottetown on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Craig, Middleton, were in the City on Tuesday, the former attended the Presbytery of the United Church and the latter attended the Executive of the P. E. I. Presbyterial of the W.M.S. Rev. Burton Crowe, and Rev. E. S. Weeks attended the meeting of Presbytery in Charlottetown on Tuesday. Rev. Ernest and Mrs. Week were visitors to Fredericton early this week. Mrs. W. J. Reid, Middleton and Mrs. Walter Leard, Fernwood, were in the Capital last Tuesday. A large congregation heard an excellent Mother's Day sermon last Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Crowe. Appropriate music was provided by the choir. The Young People's groups from several sections of the Province, which gathered here on Friday evening for Bible Study extending over all day Saturday, concluded their course with a splendid Rally on Sunday evening. Mr. John Forbes, District President, presided. He was assisted by Miss McLean, Secretary. The special speaker for the occasion was Rev. James Cross, Malpeque. His address was appropriate and inspiring. A pleasing feature of the service was a quartette from the Kensington Choir of the United Church, led by Rev. L. M. Murray. The Bedeque Housing Co. Ltd., held its first annual meeting on Wednesday evening in Central Bedeque Hall. The business of the Company, since organization a year ago, was passed in review. Good progress had been made. The Board of Directors was re-elected for another year. This Board and the Building Committee were very cordially thanked for the splendid service they had rendered to the Company during the year they were in office. There are 140 shareholders. - Bed.

Mrs. Bruce MacDougall and little son, Kenneth, have returned from a very pleasant visit to Hunter's River.

The Mile Womens Institute have donated $5.00 to the Velda Matthew Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. MacAusland and Mr. and Mrs. Errol Stetson and Miss Alice Gordon were visitors to Charlottetown on Tuesday where Mr. MacAusland and Mr. Stetson attended the sessions of the P. E. I. Presbytery of the United Church which met in the Heartz Memorial Hall. Mr. and Mrs. MacAusland also visited their daughter, Adelle who is a student at the Prince of Wales College.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Matheson who have spent several days in Charlottetown have returned to their homes. Mr. Matheson attended the Presbytery Meeting in the Heartz Memorial Hall on Tuesday.

Rev. Harry A. Bagnall and Mrs. Bagnall and Rev. W. G. and Mrs. Dickson attended the Presbytery meeting in Charlottetown on Tuesday. The Presbytery were sorry to hear that Rev. Mr. Bagnall is one of the active young Ministers who will be leaving the Province having accepted a Call to Townsend Ont.

The Womens Missionary Society of the Bloomfield United Church met on Wednesday afternoon in the Hall of the Church. There was a splendid turnout of ladies. The President, Mrs. Alban Craswell presided. The Devotions were led by Mrs. R. F. MacAusland, assisted by Mrs. John E. Dignan and Mrs. Alban Craswell. Mrs. W. G. Dickson gave a report on a Missionary and led in prayer. Mrs. Metherall gave the Treasurer's report. Mrs. H. P. MacAusland based the program on a leaflet, "Canadian Association of Consumers" in which all the members had a part. It proved to be most interesting and instructive.

Mr. and Mrs. Rae Bernard and Mrs. Bell of Summerside were visitors on Sunday to O'Leary the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bernard.

The serious illness of the beloved Senior Elder of Bloomfield United Church, Mr. John Hopgood, who suffered a severe stroke on Saturday, later developing pneumonia, is causing his friends much concern.

Mr. John Webb of Bloomfield will celebrate his ninetieth birthday on May 27th. This grand old gentleman enjoys very good health for such an advanced age. He is well versed in all current affairs and takes a great interest in community and Church life. In the summer months he has many beautiful flowers growing in his garden. Among his children is Mr. Alvin Webb, the O'Leary Postmaster.

Residents of Bloomfield and district were shocked to hear of the sudden passing of a beloved lady in the person of Mrs. J. Palmer, who passed away at the home of her son, Earl, in Bloomfield about 2 p. m. on Wednesday afternoon from a heart attack. Mrs. Palmer was in her 83rd year. She was a devoted Christian, a fine wife and Mother, a splendid neighbor and she will be greatly missed. To the sorrowing ones, we extend our deepest sympathy.

The men of the West Devon United Church turned out on Tuesday and made a fine beginning at cleaning up their cemetery.

The residents of Coleman, Brae Mile, Glenwood and West Point districts wish to have placed at the Coleman Railway Crossing a wigwag or signal arm. They point out that the approach to the railway is completely hidden on the west side by the store, egg-house and warehouse of C. R. Wallace. On the east side the buildings of the late Spurgeon Campbell, a
