become active participants rather than spectators—an attitude the Premier said he believes should be adopted in Canada. "It is not necessary, nor would it be desirable, to halt recreational activities," he said. In a brief reference to possibility of Sunday recreation for servicemen, Mr. Conant said this was a question for the Federal Government to decide.

Conant Urges Middle Course

OSHAWA, Ont., Dec. 7 (CP)—Recreation in Canada should be maintained to the fullest extent consistent with the manpower requirements of our war effort, Premier Gordon D. Conant of Ontario said in an address prepared for delivery tonight at the Oshawa Yacht Club annual dinner. Urging a "reasonable middle course" in co-ordinating recreational and other activities, Mr. Conant cited Britain's example and declared the notable factor in her attitude to sport in wartime is that the people are encouraged to

A MESSAGE to the MOTHERS OF CANADA

FOR many years, it has been the privilege of the House of Heinz to supply you, the mothers of Canada, with Strained Foods specially prepared for use in your babies' diet. And because you mothers have learned to depend so implicitly on Heinz Strained Foods to furnish the nourishment your babies need; because you have realized that Heinz Strained Foods are prepared with all the home-like care and patience that mothers alone can appreciate, the demand for them increased greatly year by year to a point where it challenged our capacity to produce them.

That you have such complete confidence in the absolute purity, the high quality, and the nutritional value of Heinz Strained Foods makes us proud indeed, and we regard your faith in us and our products as a trust which must never be betrayed.

That is why we feel that an explanation is due to you of our inability to meet your increasing demand for Heinz Strained Foods. Because of the urgent need for tin in war industries, and for other economic reasons, the Government of Canada has limited the production of canned foods, and, as a consequence, we have had to restrict, both in volume and variety, the production of Heinz Strained Foods. We have even had to make minor changes in recipes to conform with government regulations.

This is the reason why you may not always see your favourite variety of Heinz Strained Foods upon your grocer's shelves. Indeed, it may happen, at times, that your grocer may be completely out of stock for a day or two. It is a condition we profoundly regret, and we can only ask you, in these circumstances, to be patient. We are doing our best to distribute our reduced production of Heinz Strained Foods to the trade as equitably as possible, and your grocer will get his fair share of regularly replenished stock.

One thing we would ask of you, however. In fairness to other mothers and to other babies, do not ask your grocer, at any one time, for more than a day or two's supply of Heinz Strained Foods, even if he happens to have a stock on hand. We are sure you will agree that, in war-time, the purchasing of supplies in excess of current needs is unpatriotic, and constitutes a brake on the war effort of the nation. It may be necessary, perhaps, to shop around at times to secure the varieties of Heinz Strained Foods your baby likes best, but it will be worth the effort, and you will have the satisfaction of knowing that in doing your best for your baby, you are serving your country as well.

On our part, we are continuing—and shall continue—to manufacture Heinz Strained Foods to the extent of our permitted production. And we pledge ourselves that all Strained Foods bearing our name will be made in the same immaculate kitchens, in the same careful and painstaking way, of the same high-quality ingredients, and with the same devotion to the welfare of Canada's babies that has marked the production of Heinz Strained Foods in the past. The name HEINZ on the familiar keystone label will always be a symbol and a guarantee of supreme quality.

In Memoriam

MRS. AQUILLA J. ROLLINGS At an early hour on Sunday morning, November 8th, in the home of her family, Mrs. Aquilla J. Rollings, of North Rustico passed peacefully away after an illness of six weeks at the age of 71 years. She was born at Mayfield, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George F. Houston. Mrs. Rollings was very well known having kept the Orby Point Hotel for a number of years and won many friends and acquaintances by her kind courteous services and hospitality. Her husband predeceased her to mourn two sons Guy and Weston of North Rustico and two daughters, Mary, Mrs. Lorne McNell, Cavendish and Bertha, Mrs. John Bulman, Central Royalty. She is also survived by three brothers, James, Gordon and Henry Houston all residing in Mayfield. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and of the Women's Missionary Society taking a very active part until poor health compelled her to give up the work she loved so dearly. Her funeral was held on Tuesday from her late residence and was largely attended. Rev. G. C. Leebler, Zion Presbyterian Church officiated, speaking very feelingly from the words "I am the Good Shepherd." Her favorite hymn "The Lord's My Shepherd," "Hilsep in Jesus" and "Forever With the Lord" were sung. The pall bearers were Edson Rollings, Beecher Court, Fred Toombs, Lloyd Houston, George Robertson and Miller Orr, Interment Cavendish cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET E. WOOD

On the 29th October 1942 there passed away at her home in Brookfield, Margaret, Elizabeth Drummond, widow of the late Thomas Wood and the last member of the family of John and Catherine (MacLean) Drummond of that place, at the age of sixty eight years. In the passing of this good and christian woman the community suffers a distinct loss. She possessed those true sterling qualities which ever made and held worthy friendships, and leave behind imprints worthwhile. Always unselfish, forgetting her own welfare in her willingness to help others. She was a member of the Brookfield Presbyterian Church where she regularly worshipped as did her father before her. The funeral took place from the church, October 30th, and was largely attended by relatives and friends who gathered from far and near to pay their last respects to one beloved by all. The services in the church and at the graves were conducted by her pastor Rev. Dr. Thompson. Interment was made in the Brookfield cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs Wilfred Wood, George Stetson, Samuel MacLeod, Heber MacLean, Walter Drummond and Wallace Drummond. (Patriot Please Copy) 12-9-41

Home Service Money Earned by Women at Home Illustration of a woman working at home.

Money to Carry Out Fat Dreams Successful home earners have discovered that the way to earn money is to be "different," but it's not hard to be different! Look at Mrs. U. who made a home dress shop different simply by having an "exclusive" stock of one-of-a-kind dresses. Her advertising was different, too, cheap but charming - postcards that said "Come to the Back Door Shop. It's Lots of Fun." Another way is to offer quality, yes and to charge for it. Mrs. G. built a flourishing cake business on a super-angel cake she priced at $1.50, making 36 per cent. profit on each one. And there's Mrs. F. who offered low price, selling tea-sandwiches to those who couldn't afford caterers' wares. You needn't invest money or be specially talented to earn at home! Our 32-page booklet explains five main rules of home business success, tells how other women got started making money, describes enterprises you might try. Has ideas for women who can sew, knit, crochet, cook, type, be helpful. Send 20c in coins for your copy of our "21 Ways to Earn Money at Home to Charlottetown Guardian Home Service Address.
