A Record-Holding Play of its Type

"Seven Days' Leave," the big military melodrama, which comes to the Prince Edwards on Wednesday and Thursday, August 27 and 28, holds the record for all plays of its type, not only in Great Britain and Australia, but in New York, where it played for over twenty weeks at the Park Theatre, to the largest business of the season. It is now playing at Sir Henry Irving's Theatre, London, where it is rapidly approaching its third year while companies are presenting it in both Melbourne and Sydney, Australia; in South Africa, while one company will again present it in Canada. This, Walter Howard play, centres about a young major in the British army, whose invention to detect undersea boats has been stolen by a man and woman German spies. This leads to all sorts of complications, in true melodramatic style, and enables the producers to show the gun deck of a British cruiser in action with the discharge of six pounders and rapid fire guns, and the crew stripped to the waist, destroying a German U-boat. It also leads to the race for the buoy in the English Channel by the heroine and the German girl. Plan opens at the Theatre at 10 o'clock this morning. 379

—MRS. C. MURPHY DEAD.—After an illness of some months Mrs. Chas.
Murphy passed away early Tuesday morning at her late residence in Summerside. Deceased lady, formerly Miss Jane Egan, was born at North Wiltshire 63 years ago and has been thirty years. She was very highly respected by all and her death will be regretted by many. There are left to mourn four daughters and one son—Mrs. (Dr.) Doyle of Montreal, N. B., Mrs. E. E. Bertha, Mrs. Bertha and Mr. Fred at home. Her husband predeceased her eight years ago and up to the time of his death was collector of Customs for Summerside.

morning to St. Paul's Church, thence to the Catholic Cemetery.—L.

THE HARTFORD MEETING

HARTFORD, Conn., Aug. 16.—The forty-five years which have elapsed since Charter Oak Park was opened has made many changes in the vicinity of the track, which is now the oldest in the Grand Circuit. In 1874 the limit of trotting speed was 2:14, now it is below two minutes, while the smooth running bike has taken the place of the high wheeled vehicle in which Doble and Marvin appeared at the first meeting.
As the years rolled by, the trees that Burdett Loomis planted around the course and near the grand stand added a park like effect to the grounds, making them the most beautiful racing plant in America. The track, however, remains as it was originally planned, the only change being a widening of the home stretch to accommodate the large field of starters. The soil which bore the imprint of the shoes worn by Goldsmith Maid and Smuggler is the same that Lu Princeton and Ante Gay will race over on Labor Day. The superintendent of the grounds is now busy combing the course so that the footing will be fast and safe for the Grand Circuit cavalcade which will be there as soon as they close their engagements at Boston.

When Charter Oak Park was built, it was four miles from Hartford, New Park Avenue, which is now a busy street, was then a country road, while the section known as Parkville had a few houses scattered over the land that is now covered with factories and houses and criss crossed with paved streets. No doubt the time will come when Charter Oak Park, like all other courses built near cities, will have to give way to the demand of the builders of factories and homes, but until it does it will remain the one great pleasure ground in New England where the light harness horse reigns supreme.

This year the Connecticut Fair Association, in addition to renewing the $10,000 Charter Oak Purse, gives a series of trotting events known as the Chanticleer, Lion, Eagle and Battle Royal Purse, its offering for races amounting to $27,500, the top figure for the park since it was opened.
This amount is divided into sixteen purses as follows:

- Monday, September 1.
- Chanticleer Purse for 2:10 trotters, 3 heats (closed)$3000 winners in Chanticleer, Lion and are engaged in the early closing events while the best performers that have been seen at the western meetings and in the Bay State Circuit will appear in the purse races which closed

Getting Full Value for Your Money is Real Thrift

Thrift does not imply deprivation, although some people have an idea that they must practice self-sacrifice in order to save.
The woman who knows what thrift means seeks first the worth of her money and, if she finds it, savings are the logical result.

There is no form of thrift to compare with full value for the money you spend. And there is no form of waste to compare with the haphazard spending of money which takes no heed of value.

People who do all their shopping at this Store au-tomatically save in the course of a year, a sum which permits purchasing additional things, which otherwise could not be bought if the same purchasing power were used in shopping elsewhere.
The reason for this lies in the fact that our patrons get full value. They pay the lowest prices in the city, and consequently save money. In other words, they practice thrift in the best form.
