FELL EXHAUSTED AND UNCONSCIOUS

CIIOUS Mrs. R. W. Edwards, 35 McMurray St., Bradford, Ont., suffered for five years with nervous exhaustion, headache and dyspepsia. "The pains in the head would almost drive me crazy. I could not sleep nights but would walk the floor in agony until exhausted and unconscious. For the past nine months I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and from a mere skeleton this medicine has built me up in flesh and weight until I am strong and well. It would be scarcely possible to produce stronger evidence of the wonderful power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Nearly every one in this city knows the Rev. G. M. Campbell at one time pastor of our Methodist Church. Following is a letter he has written to Mr. Spencer the director of Jessie MacLachlan's provincial tour, knowing that the great singer was coming to Charlottetown. Mr. Campbell wrote the letter unsolicited being desirous that his friends here might realize the wonderful ability of the Scottish nightingale.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 16th.
MY DEAR MR. SPENCER.—I do not wish my friends in Charlottetown to miss the opportunity of hearing Jessie Niven, MacLachlan, the greatest living Scotch and Gaelic singer, I never fail to hear her when she appears in this city. Miss MacLachlan possesses a splendid presence, fine quality of voice, and above all, a really wonderful dramatic power, which enables her to give those interpretations, which enthuse thousands. How shall I ever forget her singing of "the hundred pipers" "The March of the Cameron Men" "Comin' Through the Rye" and her matchless rendering of "Rule Britannia" which never fails to bring her audience from their chairs with enthusiasm. I would most heartily recommend all my friends to hear Miss MacLachlan, while the opportunity affords.
GEO. M. CAMPBELL, Pastor of Centenary Church St. John.

QUALITY

THE GREAT ESSENTIALS IN SILKS.

The one consideration of prime importance in buying black silks—is quality. Prettiness is important—and so is price—but after all THE THING you want to buy is satisfaction. We've just opened a lot of the satisfactory sort of black silks,—in Peau de Soie—Taffeta, Gros Grain—as well as a fine assortment of Black Satins.

Our Prices Do The Work

To many Charlottetown buyers—our way of selling jackets has brought saving and satisfaction. Right buying means right selling and we've bought these handsome fall coats at prices that are dead right. The showing includes one large lot of manufacturers samples selling to you—at just about what the maker would charge ordinarily. People wonder how we can sell handsome coats so cheaply. Never mind how!—But get the benefit.
