PROFITABLE CONCERT.—The concert and social held in Harmony Hall by the Village Green and Mt. Abney Glee Club in aid of the hall and Red Cross fund was a complete success. Although the roads were almost impassable standing room was at a premium. Mr. Jenkins acting as chairman stated in a few words the need of funds for the work, after which a solo and chorus by the Glee Club was sung. Solos were also sung by Misses Lona Misset, Gertrude Jenkin, A. trio by the Glee Club was much enjoyed as was also one by Misses Chester Acorn, Vincent Curley and Arthur Jenkins; Readings by Misses Ethel Brown, Edna Jenkins, Jessie Jenkins and Lester Crossgrove were well rendered. While it would be unfair to particularise, mention might be made of the recitation by Miss Avis Noy which was pronounced by all present as best they had ever heard. For one so young, A violin solo by Miss V. Carley and Mr. B. Love added much to the enjoyment of the evening. Miss Lottie Jackman and Miss H. B. Jenkins accompanied in their usual first class style. At the close the sale of baskets by Mr. Robert Horton took place. Mr. Horton is rapidly coming to the front as a successful auctioneer. The dialogue entitled "A Bad Mixture" by Miss Brown, Lane Gay and Mr. Wilfrid Wood brought down the house. The thanks of the community are tendered to Messrs G. C. Acorn, Haveland Horton and Warren Acorn who did so much to bring the concert to a successful issue.
