—BRUSH FIRE AT WATERFORD—There are three potential danger spots in West Prince where brush fires are reported burning but all of them seemed well under control last night. The most active blaze seemed to be at Waterford, near Palmer Road, where about twelve acres of woodland was burned on Monday. Members of Alberton detachment, R.C.M.P. organized a band of fire fighters Monday evening and succeeded in bringing it under control. Yesterday it continued to smoulder and last night it sprang up again but local residents were keeping an eye on it. A shower of rain Monday night helped the situation temporarily. At West Devon where the house and barn of Mr. Samuel Graham was destroyed on Monday the situation seemed to be much improved. The other area from which a fire was reported is near Portage Lake where some scrub timber was smouldering but in this case it has never appeared dangerous, even if under control these fires will probably continue to smoulder until drenched by a heavy rain. The funeral service will be conducted at his late residence at 10.30 o'clock daylight time, Saturday morning and interment will be at the People's Cemetery, Summerside at 2 o'clock in the afternoon under the auspices of the Masonic Lodge. —S.

The non-denominational Bible Study Group was held from July 21st to July 26th, in the Fraser Memorial Church. As many as sixty-one children took advantage of this wonderful opportunity. Friday evening a special service was held and the parents were present to hear the children review the work of the week. The teachers were the Rev. J.M. Fraser and Mrs. Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Carl Weeks, and Mrs. David B. Hodgson.

For the first time in its history the City of Charlottetown was solely under the protection of the R. C. M. P. for one hour and a half yesterday evening while the members of the City Police force were doing honour to ex-Sergeant Allan McInnis at a banquet at the Charlottetown Hotel.

Police chairman N. W. Lowther presided and formally opened his remarks by conveying his thanks to Inspector N. J. Anderson, R.C. M. P., for his generosity in agreeing to police the City during the banquet. He then paid a warm tribute to the devoted and efficient police service of ex-Sgt. McInnis who, he said, had served the City faithfully for thirty-five years. Mr. Lowther also commented on the presence of ex-Sgt. William McInnis and asked him to consider the banquet a somewhat belated honour to himself as well.

His Honour, Mayor B. Earle MacDonald added his words of tribute to ex-Sergeant McInnis and concluded by presenting him with a testimonial from the City of Charlottetown
