THE CHARLOTTETOWN GUARDIAN

THURSDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 1, 1906.

THE SUMMERSIDE FIRE.

There is a natural tendency even among generous persons to quickly forget the misfortunes of others. Has it not been to some extent thus with the Summerside fire? We are aware that in raising this question for discussion we are stepping upon delicate ground. When to give and in what amount are matters always for the individual, who alone knows his own limitations and the demands made upon him. And, be it observed, we believe the people of Prince Edward Island are quite as generous in proportion to their ability as any in the world. The Guardian has from time to time had noble evidence of this. In years past in presenting the claims of the sufferers by famine in India and in Japan, or in appealing to the patriotic feeling of our people to erect a monument to those who had served nobly or fallen heroically in the South African war, we were abundantly gratified by the generous response on every hand.

Now in regard to the Summerside fire a few facts may be set down as established. The actual property loss over and above all insurance is in round figures $100,000. Much of this loss falls upon those who are very ill able to bear it. Some who have lost their all are aged, infirm or sick. Some have not only lost their property, their homes, furniture and winter stores, but their employment, or their means of making a living as well. And a long cold winter is at hand. The outside public may forget these things, but to the sufferers, moving about among the ruins of their former comfort the sad reality is ever present. What has been so far contributed for relief is not one fiftieth part of the loss. Individuals here and there and some localities have done nobly. Here in Charlottetown the City Council made a donation and the proceeds of a concert and the donation of the Women's Council with a number of individual subscriptions have gone forward. Still the aggregate was not large and might have been greatly increased if the city had been canvassed for subscriptions. Kensington, Montague and French River are spoken of as having done well for the sufferers. We hear of a movement in Alberton to supplement individual subscriptions sent in earlier.

The banks have contributed. And when we read of a small settlement like Mount Carmel sending in $25 we are reminded of many wealthier localities about the Province that have not yet been heard from. It would seem that every community might give something with a little effort to swell the altogether inadequate relief fund. We sincerely hope that many towns, villages and settlements not yet heard from, will yet want to assist. And there are churches and congregations, temperance, fraternal and benevolent societies and organizations, that might contribute something of their own funds, or set subscriptions afoot in their respective localities. Many of these, even if each were but small in amount, would make a considerable aggregate. We have been shown a letter, not intended to be published or referred to in print, a business letter, written by a sufferer from the fire. He had lost everything and had received a great many letters of sympathy from about the Island and from friends abroad. This sympathy was, however so unsubstantial that the recipient incidentally added: "They all want me to write to them. If I have to answer them all I'm ruined." In brief the situation is one for substantial sympathy on the part of any and all who are able and willing to assist but who have not already done so.

The Patriot is in error in stating that the constituency of North Bruce is close to London where a shocking election scandal is now under review. It is 100 to 150 miles removed from London with half a dozen constituencies between. If the people of North Bruce do not seriously consider the London scandal it argues ill for their moral sense. The fact is that succesive election scandals in London, involving both parties, have been so grave that the Toronto Globe has more than hinted at disfranchisement of the delinquent city.

THE WINTER FAIR.

We have received from President E. B. Elderkin of the Maritime Stock Breeder's Association the program of the annual Winter Fair which will open at Amherst on Monday, December 3. This is the sixth of the series and promises to be of equal or superior interest to any of the earlier fairs. The prize lists are now ready for distribution and can be had on application to Mr. Elderkin. The seed exhibit, which at first was small, has been made a permanent feature and every effort will be made to extend it. This year it will include grasses and noxious weeds from all over the Dominion.

The Guardian will be glad to learn that a large number of our Island stock-breeders will attend with exhibits, or as visitors. There will be the same favorable arrangements for transportation as in previous years. The entries will close November 17. Among the prominent persons who will contribute to the educational interest of the fair will be: Dr. J. G. Rutherford, Dominion Live Stock Commissioner; Dr. C. C. James, Deputy Minister of Agriculture; Prof. G. C. Creelman, Guelph Agricultural College; G. H. Clark, Esq., Seed Commissioner; Prof. J. A. Ruddick, Dairy Commissioner; L. H. Newman, Esq Secty-Treas Can., Seed Growers' Association; Prof. F. C. Elford, MacDonald College; Duncan Anderson, Esq; John Campbell, Esq; Prof. G. H. Grisdale; Prof. Curling; Prof. Sears and others.

The appointment of Henry Smith to the city School Board in succession to the late lamented Dr. Taylor is one that will meet with general approval. Mr. Smith has rendered good public service in many ways, and has always taken a commendable interest in our schools, and in the intellectual and general advancement of the community.

Congratulations to Hon. Matthew Smith who has been sworn in as a member of the Provincial Government as sucessor to his late lamented colleague, Hon. George Simpson. Mr. Smith is widely and favorably known as the proprietor of the Pleasant View Hotel at Hampton, and also as one of our progressive and prosperous farmers. He was first elected to the Legislature in 1900 and was re-elected in 1904. His promotion will be popular among all classes and creeds.

Nervous Strain of Teaching
LEADS TO HEADACHES, INDIGESTION AND PROSTRATION—THOROUGH RESTORATION THE RESULT OF USING Dr Chase's Nerve Food

The teacher's nerves are held at high tension during the day, and evenings that should be spent in recreation must too frequently be given to study and planning of lessons.
Nerve force is consumed in enormous quantities in the brain and too little is left for digestion and other vital functions of the body. The following letter from a school principal shows the remarkable restorative power of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food
Mr. Archibald Sutherland, Principal South Bar School, Sydney, N. S., writes:—"I was greatly troubled with nervous dyspepsia and tight, choking feelings in the chest. After meals I often felt like vomiting, and my stomach was sore. I was nervous and worried, frequently had headaches and shortness of breath on slight exertion,
"Several doctors treated me, but each for a different ailment, and I finally decided to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After I had used three boxes I found myself very much benefited. You can depend on me to recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to all who suffer from any form of nervous disease, for I believe it has entirely cured me. I shall be glad to be the means of bringing this medicine to the notice of anyone who is suffering as I did.
Mrs. Willis Taylor, Hensley street, Charlottetown, P.E.I., states:—"I suffered from nervous postration, could not sleep, and frequently had attacks of nervous headache; in fact my whole system was rundown and my health was in anything but a satisfactory condition. Since having used three boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I can say that I never tried any medicine that did me so much good. It has built up my system, strengthened the nerves and enabled me to sleep and rest well. It is now a considerable time since I had a headache, and I can truthfully recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a splendid preparation
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50 at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
