Is necessary to save the Little Ones.

Thousands of people have to be constantly, unceasingly guarded! Born with hollow chests, stooped shoulders and general bodily weakness such people are highly susceptible to every change, a slight draught, damp feet, foggy weather, any little thing is sufficient excuse for an attack of sore throat, cough and even pneumonia. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure builds up the system and gives strength to resist these attacks. It never fails to do so. It will make a naturally weak person comparatively strong and robust, and will positively heal up and permanently cure sore and inflamed membranes. If it does not do so the purchaser's entire satisfaction his druggist will refund the purchase money in full. No Cure no Pay! The following testimonial speaks plainly.

S. C. WELLS Co., Colborne St., Toronto.—"I come from a family of Consumptives and none of my ancestors have reached old age, to my knowledge. Twenty three years ago I chanced to hear of the Shiloh Consumption Cure, and being more thoughtful than most young men, probably owing to the family curse, as we termed our hereditary consumption, I thought I would get a bottle and find out what it purported to do and, if it seemed reasonable, give it a fair trial. I carried out this plan and am, I implicitly believe, as a consequence, here to write this testimony. I am now 45 fifteen or twenty years older than the age usually reached by my family, am hale and hearty and as likely to reach a ripe old age as the next man, thanks to Dr. Shiloh. Yours for ever, BENJ. GREEN, Ogdensburg, N.Y.

ROYAL MONEY SAVERS.

The delegates of the London guilds were told that her Majesty was too far advanced in age to stand any great amount of entertaining besides the customary court events. "Aye," the speaker of the delegation is reported to have said, "Her Majesty is old, and we surely wish her long life, but the longer she lives the shorter will be our business lives, because the absence of the court kills business."

PRINCESS OF WALES THRIFTY. The Princess of Wales does not fill the void caused by the saving propensities of the Queen. The future Queen of the British empire knows no finery, no luxury, no representation. She appears almost invariably in tailor-made gowns. At home she sits down with her private secretary and figures closely on receipts and disbursements—of course, simply for pastime, as the courtiers assert. She looks quite rigidly to detailed accounting, for in point of cash the Princess has an account separate from that of her husband, Albert Edward of Wales, who used to be a high flyer. "Used to be" is quite correct, for the Prince of Wales is no longer the 'rounder' he formerly was. He is not as 'close' as his royal spouse, but he has become much more careful in personal expenditures. The only expensive penchant of the Princess of Wales is lace. That she likes to buy and own rare laces, but she wears them rarely. When she does appear at court her costumes, however, are dreams in Valenciennes and Mechlins. Not long ago the Princess sent a trusty messenger to Amsterdam to purchase a rare handkerchief, said to be the oldest and most unique pattern of Mechlin lace, from an impoverished Flemish family, and she paid $15,000 for the piece. Truly, a Queen's lace handkerchief.

WOMEN and Women Only, especially mothers, are most competent to appreciate the purity, sweetness, and delicacy of CUTICURA SOAP and to discover new uses for it daily. Its remarkable emollient, cleansing, and purifying properties, derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure and purest of emollients, warrant its use in preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hands, and hair, and in the form of baths and solutions for annoying irritations, itching, inflammations, and chafings, too free or excessive perspiration, and also in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, as well as many sanative, antiseptic purposes, which will readily suggest themselves. All that has been said of CUTICURA SOAP may also be said of CUTICURA Ointment which should be used after the SOAP, in the severe cases, to hasten the cure.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humour. Consisting of CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales, and soften the thickened cuticle, CUTICURA Ointment, to soothe and heal, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood.
