Modern Bluebeard Goes To Trial

PARIS, Jan. 2 — (AP) — Brown-bearded, 47-year-old Dr. Marcel Petiot, accused of being the modern bluebeard of Paris, told a Magistrate during a preliminary Court hearing today that all the mysterious corpses lying around his home were there when he walked in and that he burned them to get them out of the way.

Petiot, hunted for months by police of the Vichy Regime, who described him as killer of 60 persons, reiterated today he was an old anti-German resistance worker and added that the bodies were those of executed traitors.

"Undoubtedly," Petiot said calmly, "my friends wanted to play a joke on me upon my return. Well, not knowing the story, I had to get rid of them, so I made them melt away."

The victims' bones were found in the furnace.

STOCK QUOTATIONS

Stock Markets At A Glance

CHICAGO, Jan. 5 — (AP) — Grain Markets were dull and price changes were small today. Most of the futures list was about steady. Wheat was off nearly a cent at one time but recovered when commission house buying developed on the break:

WINNIPEG, Jan. 5 — (CP) — Rye futures recovered from early losses today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange and posted fractional advances chiefly on light offerings combined with support from shippers, commission houses and some New York buying. Upturns at Chicago also aided the advance here.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 — (AP) — Assorted rails and industrials continued on the strong side of today's Stock Market but six straight average advances to 7-year peaks inspired large-scale profit cashing which pushed numerous leaders to lower levels.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off 2 of a point at 58.9, first recession since Dec. 27.

MONTREAL, Jan. 5 — (CP) — Active pace in trading and higher prices which have marked transactions on the Stock Exchange and Curb Market this week showed signs of easing up in late deals today. At the end, utilities were at their best since 1943 in the indices and banks, papers and golds down from Thursday's levels. Industrials touched a new high in the averages at noon but lost their advantage.

TORONTO, Jan. 5 — (CP) — Trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange continued its general upward tone today with all index groups recording gains.

Oils and golds marked up more gains than losses and activity was particularly heavy in Vermilata which traded 220,000 shares but held steady at 19. Frobisher, gold marked up a gain of 40 at 850, new high for the issue. Giant Yellowknife traded up ¾ to 20 ¾.

FIRST CHARLOTTETOWN TROOP

On Tuesday last, January 2, the Basilica Troop went on a hike to Rosebank ,nothing daunted by the weather. The hike was in charge of J. Trainor, A.SM., since the Scoutmaster, H. Pineau, could not get away from his work.

As soon as they were across the bridge, the troop cut through the woods as often as possible. On the first short cut, the scouts spotted a squirrel in one of the low branches of a spruce tree, and P. L. Abe Zakem tried to get a picture of it. However, the Tenderfeet were a bit too excited and every time there was a good chance for a picture, someone would decide to change his position to get a closer look. Of course, they frightened the squirrel away and no picture was taken. This little incident should teach the Scouts the value of stalking.

When they arrived at the Fish Hatchery they followed the stream back through the woods and prepared a dinner of hot-dogs and delicious, warm, cocoa. After dinner the rucksacks were shouldered and they continued their tramp. Shortly after resuming their journey, the scouts came across a crow-trap and were astonished at the size of it, most of the boys thinking that a crow-trap was no longer than a butter-box.

The Troop then proceeded to "cross the Rubicon", and this they did by tying a rope to a branch over-hanging the stream, and swinging across to the other side. The rucksacks weighed some of them down, but, besides one or two letting their feet dangle in the water everyone did fine.

The troop then proceeded across the fields, across the road, and after cutting through one or two more fields, went through the woods at the Rosebank fur Farm. When they arrived at their destination, a certain cottage, two scouts set about lighting the fires, while the rest went out to get twigs to bring home for the purpose of building model bridges or towers.

After supper, a short singsong was held around the fire-place ,and the scouts proceeded home, arriving in Charlottetown shortly after dark.

SEVENTH CHARLOTTETOWN TROOP

The Salvation Army Troop held its weekly meeting on Wednesday evening, January 3, with the Scoutmaster Robert Chandler, in charge. After the opening the scouts played Kim's Game ,and later a game of hand and foot skill. In this game, there are two contestants who stand opposite each other with their right feet along each other's, then grasp hands and try to throw one another off balance.

The meeting closed with a singsong consisting of, "Blow the Man Down", "Li'l Liza Jane," "Sweetly Sings the Donkey", "One More Ribber", "Round the Blazing Council Fire", and others. Then the Lord's Prayer was recited and the scouts were dismissed.

THE CHARLOTTETOWN SCOUTER'S CLUB

The Scouter's Club held its monthly meeting on Thursday, in the Salvation Army Hall, with the President in the chair. The meeting opened with minutes and reports from the newspaper committee and from the Scout Week Committee.

The newspaper committee stated the cost of printing a four page publication every month. Much discussion took place concerning finances, distribution, and a name for this publication. A nomination committee brought in a slate of officers for the staff of the paper which were unanimously agreed to. The staff for the paper will be: Rev. S.J. Davies, Editor. Roy Edgecombe and Grace Diamond Assistant Editors; Stirling Walker Secretary; Robert Chandler, Treasurer. In the matter of financing the first edition, Mr. Picton McCormack, President of the local Association, volunteered to pay for the cost out of his own pocket.

The Scout Week committee's report also brought a lengthy discussion on the possibilities of a raido play ,a concert-rally for Charlottetown scouts in which each Troop would present a skit or some other item of interest. A special meeting of the Scouter's Club will be held Tuesday to make final preparations for Scout Week.

The matter of a new Provincial headquarters was brought up, but it was decided that this did not concern the Scouter's Club, but the Provincial Council.

After the business session, Mr. Davies gave a talk on the "power of suggestion" in character training. The meeting concluded with a lunch served by the girls and a singsong with Lorne MacDonald at the piano.

INDIAN RIVER CHRISTMAS CONCERT

A large and very appreciative audience attended the annual Christmas concert in Indian River school on Dec. 20. The children, though many of them very small, took their respective parts exceptionally well, of which credit is largely due their teacher, Miss Rita Horgan, who, by her good consideration made it both humorous and enjoyable. The school was artistically decorated for the occasion and a brilliant Christmas tree was in prominence in one corner. Mr. Bernard A. McLellan capably presided and the following program was carried out:—

Opening chorus, by the school.
Welcome, Girl and Boy, Shirley Bridges and Johnnie Cameron.
Flag Drill, 3 small boys.
Recitation, Leslie Heckbert.
Duet, Elnor Noonan, Thelma Cameron, guitar accompaniment, Edgar Hickey.
Dialogue, Painting the Chair.
Duet, Pearl Cameron and Florence Gillis, guitar accompaniment.
Recitation, Urban MacLellan.
Trio, Johnnie Cameron, Earl Bridges and Donald Ramsay, guitar accompaniment.
Dialogue, Selling of Sally.

Actor Booked On Battery Charge

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1—(AP)—Helmut Dantine, 26, Austrian-born movie actor, was booked on a battery charge today after actress Ida Lupino's secretary, Miss Leslie Forrest, complained that he had bitten her arm, wrist and hand and chased a woman guest through the actress' house.

Police radio car officers R. V. Stoner and George E. Haddox, summoned to Miss Lupino's West Los Angeles home early this morning, filed a report in which they quoted Miss Forrest:

"The defendant (Dantine) entered, through a dining room door about 6.20 a.m. without my permission or knowledge.

"He came into my bedroom and looked around and then went to another room in the house where Miss Rena Cournyn (a house guest) was sleeping.

"She then came running to my room, defendant chasing her, and then he proceeded to bite me on my right arm, wrist and hand. He slapped me and struck me in the face. I tried to get him to leave the premises but he would not do so. I summoned police."

Dantine posted $250 bail pending a court appearance tomorrow. He was unavailable for comment.

Scene of the Nativity — Silent Night.

Good Night Drill by nine small girls.

Closing chorus by school.

Santa Claus made his appearance and in his usual jovial way, relieved the tree of its burden by distributing to each pupil presents and sweets, also to teacher and others many nice parcels. The National Anthem brought a very successful concert to a close.
