

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY

Yesterday Mrs. Hennessy, 62 Brighton Ave. was removed to the Charlottetown Hospital for treatment.

A. A. and Mrs. McLean, Charlottetown, left yesterday by the Empress for Summerside en route to the Western Provinces on a visit.

D. C. Campbell has sold his property at Hopeton to R. E. Spillett, Charlottetown. Mr. Campbell and family will spend the summer in Flat River.

Mrs. J. McDonald and little child, W. McDonald, are visiting in Charlottetown the guests of the former's parents, Dr. R. and Mrs. McNeill. Mrs. McDonald is also accompanied by Miss Beazley of Halifax.

Harry Dunn, Charlottetown, intends leaving shortly for his home in Gasperaux after having successfully passed his final examinations in the P. W. C.

Miss Ross, Matron of the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown, leaves this afternoon for Summerside en route to Western Canada on a six weeks' visit. During her absence Miss England will be acting matron.

Roland Paton, Charlottetown, took part in the quarter mile run in the Intercollegiate athletic championship games between Mt. Allison, Acadia and U.N.B. track teams. He won second place, being defeated by a team-mate, Sears of Mt. Allison, whose time was 56 1-5.

A Springton correspondent writes that the veteran farmer, D. A. Nicholson, on going to his barn one morning recently found one of his best hens being devoured by a strange beast, which he quickly despatched with a fork. The animal was pronounced by some who saw it to be a scynia, but on closer examination it was found to be a racoon. The skin is now in the care of our local fur-dealer.

Fred Nash, Jr. Charlottetown, leaves for Moncton this morning where he will enter upon a position in the Bank of Montreal. Mr. Nash will be much missed by his friends in Charlottetown and especially by his associates of the Abergweit Athletic Association of which he has been for several years an enthusiastic and valued member, having "played the game" in the truest sense of the term on both the senior hockey and football teams. That he will have the best wishes of all for success in his new sphere of action goes without saying.

F. E. Sterns, C.E., son of A. W. and Mrs. Sterns, Charlottetown, has been appointed by the Dominion Government as Assistant Engineer of the Welland Canal and will take up his duties almost immediately. Speaking of the appointment the Montreal Witness says: "Mr. Sterns is a brilliant young Canadian, who has achieved much success in his profession." He graduated from McGill College in 1906 and went to Washington for the past three years he has been Assistant Engineer on the Lock Gates and Protection Service in the Panama Canal Construction. In the performance of his duties in this connection he acquitted himself with great credit exhibiting much engineering skill. His many friends in his home town will learn with much pleasure of his advancement in his chosen profession.

At the home of John D. McDonald, Glen Martin, the passed away on the morning of the 15th May, 1912. John M. McLeod aged 25 years son of Neil N. McLeod of Sydney but formerly of Glen Martin, P. E. I. He had been in failing health since last July when on advice of his doctor he left Sydney for his old home where he has resided with his aunt till the end came on Wednesday morning. Besides his father, there is left to mourn his loss, one brother Alexander in Vancouver, B. C. Much sympathy is felt for the father as on last August he came to the Island with the remains of his only daughter. The interment was at Valleyfield beside his mother who predeceased him five years ago. (Sydney Post please copy.)

Advertisement for Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound. Title: 'FACTORY GIRL GIVES UP'. Text: 'Too Sick to Work—Doctor Advised Operation. Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound. Poughkeepsie, N. Y.—"I run a sewing machine in a large factory and got all run down. I had to give up work for I could not stand the pains in my back. The doctor said I needed an operation for female trouble but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me more than the doctors did. I hope that every one who is suffering will get the Compound. My pains, nervousness and backache are gone and I have gained five pounds. I owe my thanks to your medicine for it is the working girls friend, and all women who suffer should write to you for special advice."—Miss TILLIE PLENZIG, 3 Jay St., Poughkeepsie, N. Y. When a remedy has lived for over thirty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their very lives to it, it is not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit? We challenge anyone to show any other one remedy for a special class of disease which has attained such an enormous demand and maintained it for so many years as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. Michael Trainor and son Harold, Amherst, who have been visiting the former's parents Hugh and Mrs. Trainor, Passmore Street, Charlottetown, leave this morning on return to their home. Rev. R. H. Stavert, Harcourt, N. B., who is a native of this Province, is still doing great work in the cause of temperance in and around his parish. At Black River Bridge, N. B., recently he addressed a large meeting as G.W.P. of the Sons of Temperance and at the close of the meeting upwards of seventy people took the pledge and a Division of the S.O.T. was organized. A letter of condolence has been forwarded to Mrs. Charles Houston, Rustico, by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian Church of New Glasgow, signed by the following committee: Mrs. E. E. MacKay, Mrs. Rendall Houston, Mrs. Edison Rollings, Miss Minnie Dickleson and Miss Lulu Parkman, expressing their sincere sorrow and heartfelt sympathy of the great loss she has been called upon to bear, in the death of her little son, Ralph.

The Railway Brotherhoods located in Moncton are holding a joint memorial service in that town on Sunday June 9th. An invitation has been extended to the members of the different Brotherhoods having members in this province to be present and take part in the service. The funeral of the late Francis Stanley, Charlottetown, took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of his son David H. Stanley, 32 Cumberland Street, and was very largely attended. Rev. Wm. Harrison officiated at the services and the following were the pallbearers: John Bell, Murdock McLeod, John McPherson, Henry Fitzgerald, Capt. Squarebriggs, and Jacob Scott. On Thursday evening of this week the kindred and whilom friends of Herbert F. Timmons of Minneapolis, Minn., were invited to the home of J. C. and Mrs. Irving, to extend congratulations to him and his beautiful bride. Mr. Timmons is a native of Thomson and was partially reared in our goodly city. He attended the schools in Thomson when a boy, and afterwards attended school at Gordon Institute, Emory College, and the school of Technology in Atlanta. He is now engaged in the railroad business in Minneapolis. Mrs. Timmons, formerly a Miss Andrew, of Prince Edward Island, located in Minneapolis six years ago. She is a member of the Presbyterian Church. She and Mr. Timmons were united in marriage in the city of Minneapolis, April 29th, Dr. Wilson, the bride's pastor, officiating. The happy couple immediately started south on their bridal tour, and arrived in Thomson on the evening of the 4th inst. This occasion was especially detectable to Rev. T. H. Timmons, as his children and grandchildren were all present. The cottage home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving was brilliantly lighted and decorated with spring roses. Light refreshments were served. The joy of the flying hours was enhanced by superb music rendered by Mrs. E. C. Hawes and the orchestra. Miss Gertrude Jones charmed the happy company with her rich voice, by singing the most appropriate songs. Among the social happenings in Thomson, there has not been one, the features of which were more beautiful and attractive—Minneapolis etc. (Mrs. Timmons was a Miss Andrew, sister of J. B. Andrew, Royalty.)
