THREATEN STRIKE IF CONSCRIPTION GOES THROUGH

LONDON, Sept. 16.—During the discussion in the House of Commons this afternoon James Henry Thomas, Laborite and assistant general secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants, declared that every lodge of the railway union had informed the executive committee that on the introduction of conscription the men would stop work.

"If the conscriptionists want an industrial revolution," he said, "let them proceed with their agitation."

WALTHAM MAN TAKES POISON BY MISTAKE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Newman Erb, a wealthy financier and railroad reorganizer, who swallowed two poison tablets by mistake, is today confined to his summer home at Deal, N.J., calmly awaiting the outcome of the efforts being made by three specialists to save his life. He spent a comfortable night, is virtually free from pain and entirely conscious.

CANADIAN HAY AND OATS FOR THE ARMY.

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—The British War Office, it is understood, will purchase large quantities of hay, oats and other forage in Canada this fall. The purchases will be for the purposes of the various British expeditionary forces in France, the Dardanelles and elsewhere, and are expected to be very considerable in amount. It is understood that a representative of the War Office will be sent to Canada to confer with members of the Government as to these purchases. In the past they have been effected through the medium of Government officials and later, it is understood, through the Canadian Pacific Railway system. It is probable that the quantities to be purchased this fall will be on a much larger scale, consequently, no doubt, on the increase in the strength of the British forces in France and elsewhere, and that the War Office's representative will be an expert buyer, who will arrange for the best means of securing the required supplies. There should be no trouble about Canada's furnishing them, this year's oat crop being estimated at 488,000,000 bushels.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE

The first film, "The Song of the Sea Shell," is a fine romantic dream idyll of country life. The rustic lover with his rival, the great musician, and "Lydia" make the charming trio. "Pauline and Harry Marvin" are hurtled through their fourteenth installment of air-raising escapades. She and her lover are lured away by Bethlehem and his gang disguised as firemen, bound and carried off to an old water mill, where they are thrown down a deep canal. A hole blown in the wall by the ruffians, allows the water from the dam to pour in. Their desperate struggle in the well with the raging torrent, their climb to the roof, the escape over the canal, hanging from the wire, the dizzy drop and final escape in the robbers' car all make up a wild whirl of excitement.

The "Pathe Gazette" showed some fine military pictures, including work in munition factories, scenes at convalescent homes for the soldiers, the funeral of Lieut. Warnford.

Many ribs must have been sore after seeing Charlie Chaplin last night in "His New Profession." The wild fun on the "prom" with uncle and his invalid-chair, introduces the girl and her sweetheart, the sham cripple, and other types. Charlie's ingenuity in raising the price of a drink at the pier bar is side-splitting. It was altogether a riot of mirth.

PRINCE EDWARD THEATRE

The third adventure of "Under the Crescent" series, "In the Shadow of the Pyramids," was presented at the Prince Edward yesterday. The scenario of this sensational succession of revelations of Oriental life, written by Burton King with impressive lucidity, was presented in a most comfortable way. They are a little impatient with the present inaction, but subject to practically no casualties under present conditions.

Major Bayes Smith, Lieut. Hal. Gordon, Capt. W. Bane and Major S. G. Wickens (paymaster of the Toronto regiment), were among Toronto oficers who met. Many of them are Royal Canadian Yacht Club representatives and men who have fought over the pigskin on the Varsity campus.

One is impressed with the curious atmosphere of comradeship in the trenches, here was absolute cheerfulness, even occasionally hilarity, but all with an undertone of steadiness, resolution, and preparedness for instant and absolutely unselfish action in the great cause.

One is impressed with the contrast between these quietly smiling, hospitable little communities of brave young men, brotherhoods in every sense, and petty sordidness which too often envelops the struggles of individuals at home. I do not mean that the trenches are saintly.

Last night two Calgary men fought and ran out through a sap into "No Man's Land" where they rolled in the dirt, oblivious to bullets overhead. "It is a fair fight," shouted a Vancouver corporal, through a megaphone. "Let em fight it out, bosches." The boches did. When the fight was over the victor dragged the vanquished back to safety through the sap. This for a touch of humor. They need it, but on the other hand the audiences in Canadian Theatres could stand just a touch of this atmosphere. This is an affair of brothers, not individuals.

HEROIC ACTION OF AUSTRALIAN AIRMAN IN AIR

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The thrilling story of an Australian air pilot, who clung by one hand to the framework of a disabled aeroplane, five thousand feet over the enemy's lines, while executing repairs with the other, was told here today by an officer observer on leave of absence from Northern France.

"We had crossed the German lines and their guns were booming at us from way down below, when Cornstock (the pilot) noticed that our left wing was tilting down, and not responding to the controls," said the officer.

"He swung out of the seat to the right side, but the plane continued to tilt and it looked as if we were going over sure.

"Cornstock acted quickly. He let himself down with nothing but thousands of feet beneath him, holding tight with his right hand and fumbling with the control wires where they were jammed under the body of the machine.

"The strain on his right arm must have been terrific. Seconds seemed hours as he swayed there, his legs dangling in space, while the machine swung over 'air bumps' and levered to the side.

"As a matter of fact it was all done in an instant. He was back in his seat, cool as ever."

A Splendid Way To Reduce One's Weight

There is, perhaps, no one thing that shows the passing of our youth so much as the horrible tendency of some of us to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30. However young our face may appear, our figures "give us away."

The cause of this over-stuffiness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the fatty tissue. To reduce your weight go to a good druggist and get all of orlone in capsule form, and take one after each meal. It is sold only in original sealed packages. Oil of orlone taken at meal-times gives you all the benefit of the food you eat, and at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. In this way many have reduced their weight at the rate of about a lb. a day and no flabbiness is left.

Any druggist can supply you or a large size box will be sent on receipt of $1.00. Address: D. J. Little Drug Co., Box 1240, Montreal, Can.

WON'T INTERFERE WITH ORDERS IN GERMANY BY NEUTRALS PRIOR TO WAR.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—The Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey, explained in the House of Commons today that the Government was not interfering with the shipment from Germany of goods contracted and paid for by neutrals prior to March 1. To hamper shipments, he said, would injure only neutrals.

Sir Edward said also that Great Britain was permitting free passage of drugs and certain chemicals produced only in Germany, for which neutrals had an imperative need.

The Foreign Secretary made this statement in reply to a question why the Government was permitting Germany to export certain goods to America.

AGAIN ADVISING AMERICANS TO QUIT MEXICAN DANGER ZONE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The State Department's advice to Americans to leave danger zones in Mexico was being circulated today, through the northern part of the republic and the United States.

The State Department issued instructions to quit their posts whenever conditions became threatening. The advance of Carranza troops into the northern states, making fighting imminent, and reports of lawlessness along the frontier were responsible for the measures.

The Villa agency in Washington declared there had been no depredations in territory controlled by Villa in Northern Mexico, and that Villa had provided ample forces to safeguard foreigners.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER NOT SO WELL LAST NIGHT

OTTAWA, Sept. 16.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier is reported as not quite so well today and is suffering a good deal of pain. The rainy weather of the past few days has affected him somewhat, and he will not be able to leave the hospital until next week.

After that it is expected that Sir Wilfrid will take a long holiday in the south.

Lady Laurier is the only visitor who has been allowed to see him.

RUSSIAN DUMA WAS PROROGUED.

PETROGRAD, Sept. 16, via London.—The Russian Duma was prorogued today until mid-November, President Duzhakov announcing an Imperial order authorizing the prorogation, which had been transmitted through Premier Goremykin.

The session lasted about three minutes. There was a muttering from a section of the Laborite and Radical Deputies of "It is a crime," as the Imperial message was read by the vice-president, but the Constitutional Democrats maintained silence.

All the Deputies immediately left the hall, only Deputy Korensky, a Laborite, who shouted, "Down with Duzhakov!" attempting to speak. The leaders of the Duma decided there should be no debate, because M. Korensky insisted upon his right to say what he liked. Only a score of spectators had gathered in the streets. The Deputies, as they left the chamber and gathered in private party congresses, appeared generally cheerful.

It is pointed out that the Emperor reserved the right to recall the Duma before November 14, if he wished.

ANARCHY REIGNS AGAIN IN PERSIA.

London, Sept. 16.—"Persia once more is in a state of anarchy," wires the Petrograd correspondent of the Morning Post. "The sole organized military force there has been defeated in a series of engagements with tribesmen. The mob is in control at Ispahan. German influence is at work."

A number of Swedish officers who were in the service have been killed.

The British and Russian colonies at Ispahan with French and British women missionaries, have been forced to leave for Tehran.

SAW MILL AT SALISBURY WIPED BY FIRE.

SALISBURY, Sept. 14.—A fire occurred at Salisbury on Monday afternoon when the saw and lath mill owned by Eddie Lewis was burned to the ground. Mr. Lewis, who had been working at the mill all morning, had just gone to dinner. It is supposed that a spark caught in the roof. In a few minutes the mill was a mass of flames making it impossible to save anything. Mr. Lewis had just put in a new lath machine last week, which added considerably to his loss. It is understood that there was no insurance.

LADY ALLAN RECOVERED.
