THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

W. A. Cuming, Montague, was in the City yesterday.

Miss Sterns of Souris is the guest of R. H. and Mrs. Sterns, Victoria Hotel.

Geo. McDonald has removed from Annandale to Cornwall, where he has purchased a farm property.

The schooner Abana sailed on Saturday from Cardigan to Sydney with a mixed cargo, loaded by Nicholson & McLaren.

The Canada Gazette announces the appointment of Felix Gallant, of Cardigan Bridge, as harbor master for Upper Cardigan River.

Geo. H. Campbell, teacher of Rosemeath, is in charge of Cardigan Post Office, during the absence of Miss McVane, who is taking a much needed rest.

A private recital for the benefit of students and music lovers was given by Mr. Watkins in the Kindergarten yesterday afternoon at 3.30, also at five o'clock in the Notre Dame Convent.

This spring Alfred Robertson, Alexandra has been doing a very rushing business with his gasoline engine "Woodpecker" and although he has been working continually there is "much" more work to be done.

Owing to the big Saturday Guardian and the large number of advertisements therefor it is necessary that all "changes" of matter reach this office not later than ten a. m. Friday to insure insertion in first following issue.

The remains of the late Mrs. Mary Murphy, who died in Boston arrived by the train Monday and the funeral took place yesterday morning to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Pius McDonald. Rev. Maurice McDonald conducted the services at the grave.

Do not send communications to individual members of staff. Everything should be addressed "The Charlottetown Guardian, Charlottetown, P. E. I.", and on the left hand corner at the bottom of the envelope should be "Advertising," "Subscription," "Editorial," or "Tour Editor," according to the contents.

St. Francis De Sales Church, Little Pond, was the scene of a very pretty event on Tuesday, the 27th of April, when Mary J., eldest daughter of Allan and Mrs. McDonald, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to William C. Fisher, of Bay Fortune by Rev. D. J. G. McDonald, P. P. The bride looked charming in a suit of blue, with a white hat, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Mary C. McDonald, while John J. McDonald acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the residence of the bride's father, where a sumptuous dinner was partaken of, and the rest of the day passed pleasantly, till about six o'clock, when they drove to the home of the groom at Bay Fortune.

The Guardian regrets to learn of the death at Tryon, last evening, after an illness of several weeks, of James B. S. Hodgson, aged sixty-eight. The late Mr. Hodgson was born at Hope River, but for a number of years resided at Stanley Bridge, and subsequently at Tryon, where he has been engaged in farming. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Mary Elsie Clarke, daughter of the late John Clark, of South Rustico, one son John, on the homestead, and two daughters, Mrs. Arthur of Alberton, and Bertha in the Northwest. Two daughters, Lottie and Annie, predeceased him. Three brothers, Silas F. of the P. E. I., R. W. of Malpeque, and Thomas of Alberton, and one sister, Mrs. G. R. Garret of Murray Harbor, survive him. The funeral takes place at 2 p. m. tomorrow to Tryon cemetery.

The attention of Guardian readers is called to the legal cartoon by Johnston & McCallum, which appears in today's issue. The members of the new firm are J. J. Johnston, K. C., an experienced, successful and well known barrister and Calvin D. McCallum, who studied law with W. S. Stewart, K. C., and who was admitted as a barrister at the last session of the Supreme Court, having made a sufficient number of marks to render it unnecessary for him to spend his year as an attorney. As will be seen, the offices of the firm are at Souris, Mr. McCallum having charge at the latter place. Mr. Johnston has well established himself in the legal profession. His partner has proved himself a faithful student, energetic and capable. The combined talents should certainly spell success.
